

CITY TO HEAR
CHOICE MUSIC

Talented Artists to Give Municipal Concert.

The New York Chamber Music Society, playing at Caleb Mills Hall, Shortridge High School, at 8 o'clock tonight, offers the city an opportunity to enjoy a type of musical entertainment that has rarely been presented here, according to musical authorities.

The music society is brought here by the board of park commissioners and the board of school commissioners as the opening attraction on a program of ninety-two concerts to be given under their auspices with city funds during the winter.

No other city in the United States has ever attempted a municipal entertainment plan of such scope and few cities have had the opportunity to hear the New York Chamber Music Society.

The society, competent musicians state, stands today as the perfect achievement of an ideal conceived by a pianist, a woman of great musical and business ability.

Carolyn Beebe, an artist of rare accomplishments, is the woman who organized the society and brought it to its present high standing in the musical world.

ARTISTS ARE SOLOISTS OF WIDE REPUTE.

Her experience in ensemble work as assisting artist to the Kuebler and Olive Meade quartettes, also with the Baroco and Longy ensembles; her love of chamber music, which is comparatively little known, and her knowledge of its vast literature led to the formation of a body of players in which piano, strings and winds play equal parts.

Each of the ten artists who, with Miss Beebe, form the organization, is a soloist of repute. The Metropolitan Opera, the University of Chicago, the University of Wisconsin and in conservatories of Paris, Prague and Berlin.

Samuel Lifschey, viola, soloist with the New York Symphony Orchestra for several years and widely known for his recitals.

CELISTA ORIGINATED TRIO DE LUTCE.

Paul Kefer, cellist, known abroad for his own string quartette and in New York as first cellist for five years of the New York Symphony Orchestra, and as one of the originators of the Trio De Lutece.

Emil Mix, double bass, who has been successfully heard in a world tour and for the last ten years has been a member of the New York Symphony Orchestra.

Gustave Langens, clarinet, graduate of the Brussels Royal Conservatory, former member of the Queen's Hall Orchestra and the Duke of Devonshire's orchestra at Eastbourne in England and of the New York Symphony Orchestra for nine years.

William Kincaid, flute, among the first American flutists and often a soloist with the New York Symphony Orchestra.

Henri de Buscher, oboe, with Ysaye in Brussels at the age of 16, and with the New York Symphony Orchestra for a number of years.

Ugo Savolini, bassoon, one of the foremost players in the country and formerly associated with a number of nationally known organizations, as well as a teacher at the New York Institute of Musical Art.

Joseph Franzl, French horn, well known in Bohemia and Paris and formerly with the Pittsburgh and New York symphony orchestras.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

WHITE CAKE.

Ingredients—Whites of two eggs, enough shortening to fill half a teacup and enough milk to fill that cup to the top, a pinch of salt, a heaping teaspoonful of baking powder, enough flour to make a thin batter, one cup of granulated sugar and flavoring to taste.

Method—Mix butter and sugar together thoroughly, add the milk. Then mix in the flour gradually, into which the baking powder has been sifted thoroughly. Lastly, fold in the whites of the eggs and add the flavoring.

Bake in two layers.

Ingredients for Frosting—Mix one cup of powdered sugar with one teaspoonful of baking powder and enough sweet milk to give the mixture a firm consistency.

MRS. JAMES R. O'KELLEY, Indianapolis, 711 Terrace avenue.

Mrs. O'Kelley says this is a very simple and inexpensive cake.

"Although it does not make very much, it is very good," she said.

Mrs. Housewife,
Do You Know?

1. Whether it is true that pink coloring matter used in candies, cake icing, etc., is made from the bodies of little insects?

2. What is meant by sauteing?

3. How to attach buttons on wash-clothes so as to make them most likely to stay on?

(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the HOUSEWIFE.

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. Cloves are the dried flower buds of a large evergreen tree cultivated in the West Indies, Brazil and other tropical countries.

2. To try out suet cut it in small pieces, place in the top of a double boiler, and let cook until fat is free from fibre; strain through a cheese cloth and keep for frying.

3. Kerosene oil lamps should be filled daily, nearly full, so that there is no large space between oil and burners for gas to collect.—Copyright, 1920.

Retiring Rotarian
Given Gold Watch

Frederick E. Matson, retiring president of the Indianapolis Rotary Club, was presented with a gold watch at the weekly luncheon of the club at the Claypool Hotel.

The watch was a token of the appreciation of the members for the services rendered by Mr. Matson as president of the club and the presentation was made by Frank Shepard on behalf of the members.

The new president of the club, Frank E. Floyd, formally took office.

Carl A. Taylor was elected a director of the club, there having been a tie between him and Arthur B. Heistell at the recent annual election.

One of the features of the luncheon was the presence of Douglas Malloch, humorist, poet, student and philosopher, who spoke on the subject, "Some Sinners I Have Met," and quoted from a number of his poems.

CHILD HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Special to The Times.

GREENSBORO, Ind., Oct. 13.—Charles Craig, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craig, of 222 West 10th, narrowly escaped being cut to pieces by a corn-cutting machine yesterday.

The child walked directly in front of one of the machines.

The father brought the team to a halt just in time to avoid the entire

VOGUE FOR THE TUNIC.

What can not black satin accomplish? Through stately dinner gowns to play little frocks like the one pictured, this versatile material ranges. This frock, by the way, depends not a little on the threads of red silk and gold that finish it so cleverly. The long, rather full tunic is especially becoming to the slender figure. The frock comes in two separate pieces.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Edith Alfreda Emery and George William Rost, both of this city, which took place Saturday afternoon in Jeffersonville. Mr. and Mrs. Rost, after a short trip, will be at home to their friends at 1200 Eugene street.

Ray Spencer, who is attending Indiana University, will arrive here tonight for the wedding of his brother, Elmer E. Spencer, and Miss Florence P. Harmon, which will take place tomorrow morning.

Musicless Homes
Will Enjoy the Pianista

The Pianista represents nothing untried or an experiment. Its performance and lasting musical satisfaction is a PROVED certainty, as shown by 140,000 owners and friends of this most reliable instrument.

The Pianista serves you without failure on extra repair costs, not for a year or so, but for a score or more musical years for yourself and family.

Daughter can use it as a piano to take and practice her music lessons. Father, mother and the young folks can use it to reproduce music from music rolls.

Sing with it with the aid of the song rolls, also play or sing classics, sacred or popular—anything you wish.

If the young people enjoy a change, turn a little lever and the Ukelele will play with the piano, thereby causing very pleasing and enjoyable Hawaiian musical effects. Wear in a piano is hidden, therefore it is necessary to select a make that will last.

The Pianista

—used and recommended by thousands upon thousands of satisfied owners and users everywhere.
