French baskets of white chrysanthemums, clusters of money lilacs combined with masses of greenery and tall palms, carried out the color scheme of green and white for the wedding service of Miss Ruth Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hubbard, and Frederick T. Holliday, held at the Central Christian Church Saturday night, the Rev. Allan B. Palfitt officiating.

Miss Dorothy Knight, organist, played the bridal program.

Jack Holliday was best man, with Walter Hubbard, Evans Woolen Jr., Paul Deam of Buffalo, N. Y.; Crawford Johnson of Birmingham, Ala.; Shepherd Elliott of Henderson, Ky., and Lawrence Jones of Chicago as ushers.

Miss Margaret Row, maid of honor, wore a frock of French blue chiffon over green, and carried a shower of lilacs, mignonette and sweethearts.

The bridesmaids, Miss Carolyn Coffin, Miss Alice Holliday, Miss Margaret Gardner, Miss Lucy Holliday, Miss Stuart Snyder of Minneapolis, and Miss Louise Atwater of Bridgeport, Conn., were in flesh-colored satin frocks, with overdresses of blue chiffon, combined with silver lace. They carried bouquets of pink roses and delphiniums.

The bride wore a handsome gown of ivory satin, combined with rose petals, lace that had been worn by her grandmother, fashioned with a court train, over which fell her veil, arranged cap style, with orange blossoms.

She carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley, white heather and orchids.

A reception at the Woodstock Club followed the ceremony.

Meridian Street Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday night when Miss Margaret Hornbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hornbrook, became the bride of Robert G. Windsor.

Palms, feathery fern, combined with floor baskets of chrysanthemums, banked the altar. Southern smilax covered the all standards bearing lighter cathedral candles and decorated the doorways.

Mrs. Howard L. Clippinger, presiding over the service, played a program of bridal music, among the numbers being the college hymn of Pennsylvania University, the bridegroom's march, "The Wedding March," and the college march of Wellesley, whence the bride was graduated.

The "Swan Song" and the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin were used for the professional, "The Wedding March" was played for the recessional.

Norman Metzger was best man, with Henry C. Thornton, Jr.; Otto N. Frenzel, Jr.; Addison Perry, John H. Lewis of Buffalo, N. Y.; Marvin C. Wilson and Dr. Raymond C. Lofgren of Jamestown, N. Y., as ushers.

Miss Amelia Henderson, maid of honor, wore a frock of peach colored chiffon over silver-cloth, and carried a shower of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses and orchids.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Freda Brown, Miss Isabelle Davidson, Miss Edna Levey, Miss Margaret B. Walker of Buffalo, N. Y., Miss Miriam Walker of New York, and Mrs. Marvin C. Wilson of Jamestown, N. Y., were in green or gold chiffon over flesh color, finished with tiny French flowers in pastel shades, and carried showers of Opelia roses and lilacs of the valley.

The bride's gown was of bridal satin, combined with rose point and Duchesse lace, fashioned with a court train, caught with satin roses and pearls on each shoulder.

Her veil was of Italian point de Venice lace, arranged cap-effect, over orange blossoms. She carried a shower of orchids and lilacs of the valley.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Masses of greenery, baskets of variegated dahlias, southern smilax and autumn berries were arranged attractively through the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow have gone on a motor trip, the bride traveling in a brown duveta suit with heavy hat.

After Dec. 1 they will be at home at 2448 Pierson avenue.

One of the pretty weddings of the autumn season was that of Miss Sue Eleanor Hayes and John Taylor Adams, Jr., which took place Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Hayes, 2543 North Capitol avenue, the Rev. C. S. Wicks officiating.

Presiding the ceremony, Mrs. C. A. Kreece sang a group of songs, including "I Love You Truly," and "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. C. B. Fawcett, who also played the Mendelssohn Wedding March for the processional and "Oh, Promise Me" during the service.

Floor baskets of chrysanthemums and tall palms, linked with ropes of smilax, formed an aisle leading to the fireplace which was banked with ferns, masses of chrysanthemums, vines and cathedral candles in which burned white tapers.

The bride wore a frock of pink georgette crepe and carried a shower of lilacs of the valley and Sweetheart roses.

Following the service, dinner was served in the dining room, which was decorated with autumn leaves and garden flowers.

The table appointments were in pink and white, with miniature brides marking the places.

Pasquale Montani, harpist, gave a program during the dinner.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Adams, Sr., parents of the bridegroom, of Franklin; E. B. Lynch and daughter of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. B. S. Johns of Pittsburgh, Pa., sister of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams left Sunday for Chicago, and will be at home after Nov. 1 in the Walbrook Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Lehman of the Hockmeyer Apartments had as their guests over the week-end, Miss Colleen Crowe, Miss Janet McShirley of Newcastle, and Miss Esther Hutchings of Danville.

Mrs. Lehman entertained for them with a party for the Farrar concert Sunday afternoon.

The annual charity ball of the Welfare Club will be given Oct. 29 in the Severin Hotel.

Mrs. Alonzo B. Chapman heads the entertainment and arrangement committee and she will be assisted by Mrs. Frederick Hetherington, Mrs. Anna Kaskaskia, Mrs. William Hogardus, Miss Florence Bright, Mrs. Carrie Hammill, Mrs. Alice Shaffer, Mrs. A. M. Eberich, Mrs. A. C. Zaring, Mrs. Edward Feger, Mrs. Irvine Lemaux, Mrs. Edward Schumann, Mrs. Reese Wyssong and Mrs. J. H. Laird.

Mrs. George S. Winders and Miss Katherine Winders, 2444 North Meridian street, who have been nursing a fortnight in Chicago, have returned home.

Mrs. William Sorenson of Ft. Wayne is the guest of Mrs. Creel P. Conder, 4514 College avenue.

Miss Lillian Harris of Seymour, who has been the guest of Dr. John W. Stuss, 2205 North Meridian street, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lilly, 1713 North Meridian street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jeanette, to Paul E. Fisher.

The wedding will take place in the spring.

POSSE GETS MAN IN FIELD.

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 18.—A posse of thirty farmers, under Sheriff Butler, armed with rifles, Saturday captured William Jones, an ex-convict, wanted in connection with the theft of a horse and buggy in a cornfield. The farmers peppered the fugitive with a shower of bullets.

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES

A New Serial of Young Married Life

By Ann Lisle

CHAPTER LXXXV (Continued).

"This cozy little spot is where your Jimmie works," announced Terry. Then we stepped over the threshold and were at once in a great many-windowed room. At a desk under one of the windows sat Jim, arms flung across a mass of papers and head resting on his arms—a picture of weariness and dejection. Hearing our approach, he looked up, tossed his head back and closed his eyes in a way he had—and then brought himself into focus with things again—and rose smiling to greet us.

"Hello, folks—seems to me Terry just phoned a minute ago—didn't think you'd make it so fast. Welcome—thrice welcome to our little bit of industry."

He was striving for a jocular tone—but I knew that Jim was tired and having an inner struggle—to hide his lack of interest in the work from Terry, probably. At this moment in came Anthony Norreys, his thin face radiant, his eyes alight.

"This is the open season for jolly surprises," he said in a voice that carried to the door. "I had a rendezvous with my cook directly you phoned, and Nora McGinnis surprised me, too. Didn't she just beam with delight and tell me that the lunch was crying for folks to appreciate it when I timidly suggested I'd like to give a party tonight!"

"Tony, you dear old scamp, are you asking us to stay and dine?" said Betty. "Because if you are, I, as guide, and mentor for the day to Anne Harrison, do hereby unanimously accept."

"That's jolly white of you, Norreys," broke in Jim. "I'm such an old delfect"

PUSS IN BOOTS JR.

By David Cory.

Twinkle, twinkle, lantern bright, With your eyes of candle light, First look here, and then search there, Scrutinize each spot with care—

Now, if you don't know what "scrutinize" means, I'll tell you. It means to look thoroughly, and please don't forget it, for if you learn something every time you read one of these stories, you will become quite learned.

Well, by and by, Jack O' Lantern, whom you remember in the last story, was helping the Black Swan and his lost pocket, suddenly cried out, "Here it is!" and, sure enough, half hidden under a withered leaf, lay the lovely gold locket.

So the Black Swan picked it up—in a hurry and then he opened it, and his lost locket, and Jack O' Lantern placed his Pumpkin Lamp so close to her that her skirt almost caught fire, which made her scream out, "Don't do that, you mischievous Jack!" But the poor Black Swan said nothing, for he was dreadfully afraid of her.

"Look here, Mrs. Witch," said Puss, and he very politely took off his cap with the flaming gold feather. "I have met witches before, and they always wished they had never met me. For I am an enemy of cruel people, and I have seen their whiskers and tried to look very fierce. But the Broomstick Witch only laughed, and this made Puss angry."

And when she stretched out her hand to lay hold of the poor Black Swan, Puss touched her with his flaming feather. And, would you believe it? she turned into a bat and flew away with a dreadful scream.

And as soon as she was gone the Black Swan changed into a handsome prince. And if the little Pumpkin Lantern doesn't burn out so these good friends can't find their way back to the Pumpkin House, I'll tell you another story tomorrow.—Copyright, 1920.

Lad Is Charged With Robbing His Uncle

Ernest Briston, 16, Terminal Hotel, was charged Sunday night with robbing his grand uncle and burglar after he is said to have entered the home of Charles Martin, 629 Oliver avenue, his uncle.

According to police Mr. Martin was away from home when Briston entered the house and stole two flashlights, a watch and a necklace.

Some boys gave the alarm when they saw him try to steal a bicycle.

Baby Crushed to Death in Its Mother's Arms

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Dorothy Budlong, 16 months old, was killed in her mother's arms, early yesterday, when an automobile in which they were riding collided with a stalled truck near Desplaines. Edward H. Budlong was driving in a heavy fog. Mrs. Budlong held the child in her arms and was thrown violently forward. The child's head was crushed. Mrs. Budlong suffered a broken nose and other injuries.

ATHENS, Oct. 18.—King Alexander had a fair night and was making satisfactory progress today, a bulletin from his physicians said.

The king is suffering from infection, the result of a bite of a pet monkey.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found how to save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for results. It gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any drugist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full quart.

If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your drugist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WITCHHAZEL AND CAMPHOR RELIEVE EYE STRAIN

Common witchhazel, camphor, hydragric, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash, produces quick results when used for eye strain. One customer was greatly astonished at the restful feeling produced by a single application. A young man reports that both he and his mother were greatly helped by Lavoptik. We guarantee a small bottle to help ANY CASE weak, strained or inflamed eyes. Henry J. Huder, Drugist.—Advertisement.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

PIE CRUST.

Ingredients—One cup of flour, four tablespoons of lard, three tablespoons of water and a pinch of salt. Mix the shortening into the flour. Add the salt and add the water, making a soft dough which can be handled. Roll out thin in two pieces and use whatever filling desired.

MRS. CHARLES KOEHRING, 1133 Reid place, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Koehring says that the recipe was given to her by a friend, who says it will never fail.

"The first time I used it it was perfectly delicious," she said, "and it is very economical."

"The proportions will make enough for one pie."

The Times will be glad to print YOUR husband's favorite recipe. Address, Recipe Editor, Daily Times.

Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. Whether there is a fruit called prune distinct from the plum?
2. How to make sauce tartare?
3. What precaution should be taken in cleaning waxed floors?
(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the HOUSEWIFE.)

ANSWERS TO SATURDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. Clotted cream consisted of the clots of cream produced on the surface of new milk by beating it.

2. Yorkshire pudding is usually made from flour, eggs, milk and salt which is first cooked in a hot butter and poured into the dripping pan of roast beef about a half hour before meat is done.

3. To test coffee for adulterants shake some in cold water. The coffee floats; the adulterants sink.—Copyright, 1920.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

Kindly stars rule today, according to astrology. Mercury, Saturn and Venus are all in benefic aspect.

It is a time most auspicious for any sort of advertising or publicity. The stars are supposed to impart originality and cleverness to all who exploit either personalities or commodities.

While the stars seem to foreshadow good fortune to the oppressed of all races, there is also indication of serious difficulties affecting the darker peoples who are closely associated with the dominant white race.

Persons whose birthdate is 1 have the forecast of a happy year. The young will court and marry.

Children born on this day will be energetic and industrious. They are likely to be exceedingly punctilious in all their duties and to be especially successful in whatever they undertake.

Gettin' Pretty Close!

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—An earthquake originating 5,500 miles from Chicago was recorded early today at the University of Chicago.

The seismograph record showed the first tremor at 3:48 a. m. and continuing intermittently until nearly 8 a. m.

Observers were unable to give the exact location.
