

HARDING STAND CAUSES SWEEP TO DEMOCRACY

Chairman White Bemoans Fact G. O. P. Candidate Stops Speaking.

SEE SMASHING VICTORY

Special to The Times. CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, arrived in Chicago Tuesday morning for his final visit to western headquarters during the campaign.

He came from Columbus, Ohio, where he spent Monday in conference with Ohio Democratic leaders.

"Anxiety has followed confidence among the Republican leaders," said Mr. White.

"Our next state of mind will be desperation."

"Evidence of certain Democratic victory have begun to accumulate until those who are in close touch with the Democratic campaign await with perfect confidence the balloting two weeks from today."

"During the last two weeks this change has been apparent."

"It started with the Des Moines speech of Senator Harding in which he bade away from his board of strategy and revealed himself as an irreconcilable on the league, joining company openly with the Republican leaders."

"I do not want any clarifying reservations," said he.

"I want to turn my back on these obligations."

"I stand for rejection."

"Until Mr. Harding said that, Republicans and Independents who are for the league accepted underground assurances from inspired sources that Mr. Harding was at least a pro-league."

"But when Des Moines he came out flatly in opposition to the league, despite any modifications that might be obtained, they concluded the only safe course for friends of world peace was to vote for Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt."

CHIEF OF SUPPORT COMING IN.

"At national headquarters in New York, from the moment that Des Moines speech appeared and the press, it was like watching a tidal wave."

"First came hundreds of telegrams from Republican and Independent announcements of their support of the league."

"Then Herbert Parsons, who up to last year was New York's Republican committeeman, publicly repudiated Harding."

"It was followed by scores of others, some writing cards to the newspapers and others writing letters to the national committee."

"And then came the real, barometric test."

"Literally by the thousands letters containing small contributions began to pour in from Republicans and Independents."

"A high proportion of them from women."

"Dimes, quarters, dollars and larger sums in currency, checks, postal money orders and drafts piled up on the desk of Treasurer March."

"In totals they represented no large sum, but as an earnest indication of the turn of tide in America they were most significant."

"The ascendancy of the Democratic cause began then, and it has passed the Republican campaign long since."

"In Ohio yesterday I had detailed reports which assure the State for Cox and Roosevelt."

"The same is true of Indiana and the border States are as safe for Democracy as Texas."

"Western Chairman Doremus turned over his reports to me today and they reveal a West and Northwest burning like a fuse for the Democratic cause."

"I tell you what I have believed from the start and held to, despite propaganda, deceit and discouragement."

"The American people will not countenance by their votes a campaign built on hypocrisy, misrepresentation, cowardice and hate."

SEN. DEMOCRATIC MAJOR IN SENATE.

"The American people are more interested in politics than politics."

"Especially when women are casting their vote, the straight forward course will be the successful one."

"World peace, which for the first time in history ends its long life insured by a constructive plan—the League of Nations—will not be killed by the votes of the people of the United States."

"I heard today that the Republican managers are looting off speaking dates for Senator Harding as rapidly as they disappear."

"It is the only bad news I have had in three weeks."

"If they will just keep this on the stump our majority will be 200 electoral votes, and instead of a surprise margin in the Senate we will have fifteen."

Chairman White was accompanied by Arthur Krook, editor of the Louisville Times, who is serving at national headquarters as assistant to the chairman.

PARTY LEADERS ADMIT CLOSE STATE FIGHTS

(Continued From Page One.)

candidate for Governor is opposed by leading Republican newspapers of Chicago.

Republicans hope, through the nomination of Ralph Cameron, to defeat Marcus A. Smith, in Arizona, and to add that State to their anticipated Senate majority.

Party leaders, however, were conservative in their claims.

KENTUCKY CONTEST HELDS INTEREST.

The contest between Richard Ernst, Republican, and J. C. Beckham, Democrat, has aroused interest because of the possibility of forecasting a wedge in the solid South's Democratic representation in the Senate.

Republicans were encouraged by the election of a Governor two years ago.

"Oklahoma is shot to pieces in this campaign over the League of Nations," Republican headquarters here said.

Senator Gore's opposition to the League of Nations resulted in the nomination of Scott Harris by the Democrats.

He is opposed by J. W. Harrell, Republican.

South Dakota had a choice of five senatorial candidates.

Two Independents were declared out of the running by major party leaders here, who admitted a hard fight with Governor Pe. Norbeck, Republican, and Senator E. G. Johnson and E. S. G. Cherry, Democrats.

Entering as an Independent, Senator Charles Thomas has complicated the Democratic situation in Colorado.

Because of his stand against the League of Nations, Thomas refused to try for the Democratic nomination, and Senator Tulley Scott was entered to oppose Samuel D. Nicholson, Republican.

ADMIT TAGGART STRONG IN RACE.

Indiana offered an interesting fight between leaders of the two major parties with Senator James E. Watson, Republican, opposed for re-election by Thomas Taggart.

Republican leaders admitted Taggart has a fair chance of defeating Watson.

The fight in Utah between Senator Smoot and Congressman Walling was taken as a test of the League of Nations sentiment.

REALTORS TO HEAR PRETENSES.

"Business conditions will be the subject of a talk by J. C. Pretense, of the Sheldon Business Service, tomorrow noon at the weekly luncheon of the Indianapolis Real Estate Board, at the Chamber of Commerce."

Specialist Called to Help Treat MacSweeney

MacSweeney '68 DAYS Without Food

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A specialist has been called in to assist the British jail infirmary staff treat Lord Mayor Terence MacSweeney of Cork, who entered the sixty-eighth day of his hunger strike today.

In addition to a slight cold MacSweeney has developed scurvy.

The specialist asked Mary MacSweeney, a sister, to urge her brother to drink some orange and lime juice, but she replied that it was useless.

CORK, Oct. 19.—Enormous crowds turned out today for the funeral of Michael Fitzgerald, the dead Sinn Fein hunger striker, at his home at Fermoy.

The body was removed last night from Cork jail to St. Peter and St. Paul Roman Catholic church, where it remained until this morning under continuous guard of Sinn Fein officials.

MANDATE MAY BE NEXT PARTY MOVE

New Ticket Refused Place on County Ballot.

The arbitrary action of County Clerk Richard Sipe and Jackson Carter, Republican members of the Marion County board of election commissioners, in refusing to place the name of the Independent Republican party with its candidates for county office on the official ballots today paved the way for the filing of a possible mandamus proceeding to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the ballots was taken by Sipe and Carter late yesterday afternoon after Harry C. Hendrickson, Republican county chairman, filed a petition objecting to the refusal of the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The petitioners requested the court to compel the commissioners to place the party name and candidates on the ballots.

The action in refusing to place the Independent Republican party candidates on the