Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. Is it true that the pumpkin is of Indian origin?
2. Do you know the ingredients for a good oyster stew?
3. Why rugs or carpets should never be hung on a line when being beaten.

These questions will be answered tomorrow by the HOUSEWIFE.

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. The word prune means plum and is especially applied to dried fruit of the plum. However, in certain parts of the country certain plum trees yielding fruit suitable to be dried are called prune trees.

2. To make sauce tartare, served to advantage with fried fish of all kinds, add to one cup of mayonnaise dressing one tablespoon of chopped olives, and same amount each of chopped parsley, pickle and chives.

3. In cleaning waxed floors never use oil as this softens the wax. A dry mop is best.

Railway Goes on Block

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Denver & Rio Grande Railway will be sold to the highest bidder on Nov. 20.

The sale was ordered to satisfy a judgment of approximately $33,000,000 against the Denver & Rio Grande in favor of the Western Pacific. No bid under $5,000,000 will receive consideration at the sale.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

SALMON SALAD.

Place a red salmon steak in boiling water to which one tablespoonful of vinegar and a pinch of salt has been added. Boil until tender. Drain and place on a platter and chill thoroughly. Serve when cold with mayonnaise. Garnish with lettuce leaves, tomatoes and radishes.

Ingredients for salad dressing—Beat the yolks of two eggs thoroughly. Add a teaspoonful of mustard, a dash of pepper and a pinch of salt. Beat in a pint of salad dressing drop by drop. The dressing should be stiff enough to stand firm.

Harmonie Club Sings Hadley's Late Opera

Yellow chrysanthemums combined with branches of gay-colored autumn leaves were attractively arranged through the Green Parlors of the Y. W. C. A., for the meeting of the Harmonie Club Monday afternoon.

"Cleopatra's Night," Henry Hadley's late opera, was the musical subject for study.

Mrs. R. L. Blakeman read the story of the opera, with musical interpolations by the various members of the organization.

Mrs. S. K. Rulick, the club accompanist, gave the prelude and several phrases used through the first act.

Mrs. Mildred Barrett Pearson, soprano, opened the voice numbers with "Cleopatra's Lament."

The Egyptian Queen's next solo, "I Love You," was sung by Mrs. J. Lowry, followed by an "intermezzo," interpreted on the flute, by Paul Miller.

The Greek dance of Cleopatra's entertainers was presented by Miss Marie Climer, in characteristic Grecian costume.

Miss Dorothy Knight, pianist, gave a piano version of the wild "Dance of the Desert Girls."

The aria "I Love You" sung by the queen's lover, was sung by Miss Jess-mine Barkley, soprano, and the final tragic solo of Cleopatra, sung by Mrs. E. C. Johnson, closed the program.

An informal tea followed the meeting, with Mrs. Herbert O. Duckwall and Mrs. Otto Leder as hostesses.

New Arrivals in Wool Dresses

Tricotine and Poiret Twill

When we shake them out and give them time to forget their creases, these newcomers take on amazing attitudes of self completeness and real egotism. They are typified by a smartness that is apparent at first glance. However, there is this one comedown—they are

Low Priced From
$33.50 Upward

Outstanding features among the new wool frocks, some of Poiret twill, others of tricotines, include the Redingote effect, poise-giving for the taller figures, the bright splashes of color achieved by collars and cuffs or gay bead and embroidery trimming.

Simple models with normal waistlines depend upon their tailoring and narrow braid trimming for their appeal. A dress appropriate for many occasions can be selected from this assortment. Priced from $33.50, $37.50, $49.50, $59.50 and up.

Here's a Garment Secret

Concerning Camisoles in the Making

It's a novel idea that is finding favor with women whose taste calls for dainty and extravagant underthings and yet who do not find time to do all the making themselves.

S-h-h! We're Telling

Glossamer-like shadow lace, is fully wide enough for the camisole width. The pattern has the holes cut out ready for a built-up shoulder, so that all that's lacking of the finished undergarment is a neat hem and a bit of ribbon running through.

Presto-Chango and it's done. One and a quarter yards are needed for a camisole. The lace is priced by the pattern, $1.50, $1.95 and $2.50.

Petticoats for Service

Sateen and Heatherbloom

If your taste in petticoats runs to the finer things of silk, and yet you are convinced that practicality after all is the realm of underskirts, these new sateen and heatherbloom styles especially will compromise your desires.

Priced $1.00 to $3.95

A new shipment of misses' sateen petticoats are plain styled, in green and black, priced $1.00.

The heatherbloom petticoats have that desirable quality of sturdiness without being cumbersome, and, moreover, they are attractive in those insets of green or purple on the black add color and novelty. The flounces are accordion plaited—some banded with a Dresden design. Rose, navy blue and green, tan and green are some of the combinations used. Lengths 28 to 34 inches. Priced $3.95.

Plain colors in the heatherbloom skirts, navy, black and purple, are priced at $2.95.

These are the Kinds of House Dresses One Enjoys

They give housekeeping a professional level—an attitude of enjoyment and pride. Then, too, when work is over and you are a bit tired, you do not feel necessitated to refrock, but you can rest an hour or so with a good book. And you won't mind who calls in the mean-while.

Princess, Mina Taylor, Dix, Hubrite

$3.95, $4.39, $5.25

These are new arrivals. Never were there practical frocks for the housewife of prettier modes. Both light and dark colors are represented, tucks and ruffles, placed where they are most fetching, and neat collars and cuffs.

The skirts—Plain, some with tunics or cascade panel effects, but all well made and becoming. Your choice will certainly be here.

From the maple groves of Vermont and Canada comes the rich flavor of the new Karo Maple

Delicious maple flavor and moderate price sold over five million cans of Karo Maple last year. A money-saving hint to many mothers

Over a thousand tons of the purest and finest flavored maple sugar are used annually to make Karo Maple delicious enough to be the preference of those who enjoy maple syrup.

The world's largest users of maple sugar are the makers of Karo Maple. Karo Maple outsells, by far, every kind of maple syrup.

The price is remarkably moderate—economical enough to serve daily to all the family.

Serve it to the children on their bread, and to all the folks on waffles, griddle cakes, or crisp, buttered toast.

Our belief that you will like Karo Maple equally as well as million others is best expressed by the following suggestion:

Ask your grocer for Karo Maple in the Green Can. It is guaranteed to please you or your grocer returns your money.
