

Society

Floor baskets of chrysanthemums, tall palms and masses of feathery greenery, under the soft glow of tapers set in cathedral candelabra, made an attractive background for the wedding of Miss Adele Eckler and William Arthur Nugent, solemnized this afternoon in Broadway M. E. church by the Rev. William B. Farmer.

Mrs. Mary Wilhite, organist, played a program of bridal music preceding the service, changing to the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" for the procession.

Mrs. W. E. Rider, matron of honor, wore a frock of dark blue velvet with hat of the same shade and carried a shower of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses while Mrs. Thomas Eley, bridesmaid, in soft gray velvet with hat to match, carried a shower of Killarney roses.

T. B. Shaugnessy was best man, with C. C. Furr and Melville Todd of Chicago as ushers.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, Charles F. Eckler, wore a handsome suit of midnight blue duvety with moleskin collar and cuffs, clever little hat of the same shade, trimmed in orange ostrich tips, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, lilies of the valley and orchids.

Among the out-of-town guests were Charles S. Howlings of Chicago, William Rider of Waynetown, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shanklin, Mrs. Stonebraker, Mr. and Mrs. Gorman Armstrong and Mrs. Mae Rankin of Frankfort, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Johnson of Mattoon, Ill., grandparents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Nugent have gone to Chicago and will be at home after Dec. 1 in St. Louis.

Miss Ruth Armstrong, Evansville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Armstrong, of Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Griffin, 4749 Central avenue, have gone to Tampa, Fla., where they will pass the winter.

T. J. McHugh, 1009 Harrison street, announces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Muri Elizabeth, to A. E. Craig of Jeffersonville, which took place Tuesday in St. Vincent's Parish, near Shelbyville, the Rev. Father O. E. Bousler officiating.

Miss Esther Mansfield and Paul L. Wallace were the only attendants.

Mrs. Eva E. Walters, 620 East Twenty-second street, entertained with a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Craig Tuesday night.

Miss Mary Southwick, Miss Hortense Wickard, Miss Florence Jay, Miss Beulah House, Miss Urith Dalley, Miss Amy Keithley, Miss Jeanette Henley, Miss Dorothy Vestal and Miss Francella Sargent all left today for Nashville, where they will pass the week-end among the Brown County hills.

Mrs. Frederic Ernst and Miss Lucile Ernst, 2554 Salem street, are passing several days with friends in Glasgow and Cave City, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harris, 3147 Capitol avenue, will leave tomorrow for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will pass the winter.

Voters' League Plans Consolation Party

A "consolation party" is being planned by the League of Women Voters for Friday evening, Nov. 5, when the women of the winning political party will entertain the losers.

If the Republicans win, Mrs. John F. Barnhill will be in charge of the party and if the Democrats win Mrs. Olive Belden Lewis will be the chairman.

A program of "stunts," a movie in three acts entitled "The Campaign," "The Burying of the Hatchet" and a stump speech will be features of the evening's entertainment.

Two Brides of Week

MRS. WILLIAM A. NUGENT (top) and MRS. ROBERT BOSSON.

Two interesting brides of this week are Mrs. William A. Nugent, whose marriage took place this afternoon, and Mrs. Robert Bosson, whose wedding was solemnized Wednesday night.

Mrs. Nugent, before her marriage, was Miss Adele Eckler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Eckler, 2444 North Meridian street. They will live in St. Louis. Mrs. Bosson formerly was Miss Dorothy Anne Lease, daughter of J. H. Lease, 6012 Marion road.

Mr. and Mrs. Bosson will be at home to their friends after their return from the East, in Allisville.

Range Starts Big Loss

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 23.—A general fire which started from an overheated range in a lunchroom in the center of the city today, wiped out a dozen concerns, and caused a loss estimated at $800,000.

Mme. Frances Alda at Murat Theater Sunday Afternoon

Mme. Frances Alda, leading soprano with the Metropolitan Opera Company, will have the honor Sunday afternoon at the Murat Theater of formally opening the new Civic Music Series under the direction of Bradford Mills and Marie Armitage.

Besides Mme. Alda, the series will include recitals by Mary Garden and Rudolph Ganz.

The Civic Music Series is the birth of necessity—the demand of the public for such artists as Alda, Ganz and Garden.

The splendid response given the new series by the large demand for season tickets practically guarantees the continuance of the series.

In private life Mme. Alda is the wife of General Manager Gatti-Casazza of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The appearance of Mme. Alda at the Murat Sunday afternoon will be one of the worth-while musical events of the season.

THE ISSUES

The result of the coming election will not hinge upon the Wilson League of Nations. It will not and should not. The Wilson League with Article X cannot be ratified whatever the result may be. At most it had but 29 votes in the last session, and with the election of every new senator favorable to it, it would still lack a constitutional majority in the next session.

The next senate will adopt some league, some association or some adaptation of the original idea. That it will not be a military alliance that will sacrifice any part of our sovereignty is certain. It WILL be an adjustment arrived at by the senate---just as all our governmental policies have been and as was the Constitution, and being such, it will be safe and healthful, and will be promptly signed by a Republican president. That action will be in the spirit of our representative government. Such an outcome we cannot change or prevent, and should NOT.

The Questions We Must Determine By Our Votes Are:

Are we willing to risk four years more of Democratic Mismanagement?

Will we return to "Party Responsibility" or continue to depend upon the "One Man Rule?"

Will we have the Democratic Party or the Republican Party solve the following problems during the next four years?

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING
GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OR OPERATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES
THE MAINTENANCE OF WAGES BY THE CONTINUATION OF RENEWED PROSPERITY

THE CONTROL OF AGGREGATIONS OF CAPITAL
THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF INDUSTRY
THE REVISION OF FEDERAL TAXES
THE TARIFF

THE MERCHANT MARINE
THE RESTORATION IN ADMINISTRATIVE DEPARTMENTS OF SKILLED AND EXPERIENCED HEADS TO DISPLACE IMPRACTICAL IDEALISTS OR PARTISAN INCOMPETENTS

The Failure of Democratic Statesmanship

The failure of Democratic statesmanship to meet these issues and solve them is notorious. In Washington today there is wastefulness and extravagance, inefficiency and carelessness, such as has never been seen there before. There is compromising with evil. There is greed. There is an army of needless employees working for party and not for country. There is dealing with capital and dealing with labor---all putting off a reckoning that threatens the most serious disaster. Most serious of all, there is a display of recklessness with the fundamentals of our government.

The Republican Party Promises

to meet this situation, to restore the Constitution, to accept the responsibility as a party, and to have again the departments of government functioning together in harmony and unity.
