

COUPLE MARRIED IN CATHEDRAL

Madden-Rink Wedding Prominent Event in Society.

Among brilliant weddings of the autumn season was that of Miss Marie Madden-Rink and John Joseph Madden, which took place this morning in St. Peter and Paul Cathedral, the Rev. Father Joseph Chartrand performing the ceremony and the Rev. Father Edgar O'Connor reading the nuptial mass.

Groups of laurel trees and masses of greenery filled the chancel, the rail of which was entwined with asparagus fern studded with chrysanthemums, and from the gateway, surmounted on either side by French baskets of snowy chrysanthemums, an aisle formed of cypress fern led to the main altar, which was densely banked with palms, laurel trees and floor baskets of white blossoms.

Wedding music was sung by the Cathedral male quartette, with solos by Elmer Steffen, cousin of the bride, and preceding the nuptial mass, a program of bridal numbers was played by Miss Frances Spencer, organist; Miss Ruth Elizabeth Murphy, violinist; and Miss Yuba Whitte, cellist, who also played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" for the procession and the "Mendelssohn Wedding March" for the recessional.

The group of attendants included Mrs. William Campbell Hall, matron of honor; Miss Edna Rink and Mrs. Francis O'Reilly, bridesmaids; Richard Madden, best man; Otto N. Frenzel, Jr., Norman Metzger, Francis O'Reilly and Ralph Vonnegut, ushers.

Mrs. Hall wore an attractive frock of orchid silver-toned tulle, combined with silver lace, fashioned in bouffant effect, caught in the back by pink roses, with a hat of silver lace with pink ostrich crown.

She carried an arm bouquet of Japanese lilies, sweetheart roses and delphinium.

Miss Rink and Mrs. O'Reilly were gowned in frocks of rose-orchid tulle in silver-laced design, ruffled in silver lace, caught in panner effect on the sides with tiny roses, with silver lace hats.

Their bouquets were of orchid-hued pom-pom chrysanthemums, Japanese lilies and violets, with showers of tulle and silver ribbon.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of bridal satin, fashioned with panels of Duchess lace, studded with crystal beads, over which fell her veil of Duchess applique lace, banded across her forehead. Russian style, caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley.

Following the service a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rink, 2103 North Meridian street.

The home was beautifully decorated.

In the hallway baskets of chrysanthemums were set against a background of laurel trees and cypress fern and masses of Ophelia and Columbia roses were used throughout the parlors, combined with parlayeane ferns and Southern smilax in the open doorways and stairway.

A huge wedding cake on a mound of roses and chrysanthemums, on either side of which was a plateau of dresden flowers, formed the centerpiece for the bridal table and center baskets of pom-pom chrysanthemums and roses adorned the small tables.

The out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sang, Miss Agnes Sang, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flynn and Mrs. Heister Spades, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kitzinger, Emanuel Baer, Samuel Ogus, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Silver and A. E. Lefort, New York; John Pfan, Zanesville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zimmerman and L. G. Hall, Brazil.

Mr. and Mrs. Madden have gone on a trip and will be at home after Dec. 1 in Rose court.

Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. What is the loganberry?

2. Why does coffee that has been boiled a long time or that has stood on the coffee grounds have a disagreeable flavor not present in fresh coffee?

3. How should handkerchiefs be washed when colds are prevalent?

These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. Cocoa shells are the outer husk of the fruit that gives cocoa and chocolate. An inexpensive beverage may be prepared from them that is agreeable to children.

2. To prepare a good beverage from cocoa shells wash one-half cup of shells in strainer, put in saucepan, pour on one quart of boiling water and cook slowly for a half hour. Strain and serve like cocoa.

3. The best way of preparing bluing water in the laundry is to make a little strong bluing in a bowl and to add this to the bluing rinsing water as needed.

FOR FIRST CHILLY DAYS.

Strichs has surely come into its own again, for not only hats, but small capes and scarfs are trimmed or made entirely of it. Here a rich-brown velvet hat is surmounted with brown plumes which match the little shoulder cape she wears. The cape is lined with tulle Georgette patterned in gold silhouette. Ribbons to tie are of satin tasseled at the end.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

MEAT PIE.
Ingredients—One-half cup of flour, one-third cup of shortening, either vegetable or lard, one-half teaspoonful of salt and enough water to make dough, not using more than one-half cup, a good-sized piece of meat and one onion.

Method—Cut the shortening into the flour. Add the salt and the water. Roll out thin. Put the meat through a grinder or chop up in small pieces. Cut the onion up fine. Add a half teaspoonful of salt and a cup of cold water. Stew until tender. Then put in a baking dish and cover with dough. Bake very slowly.

If only a small quantity of meat is used the deficiency may be made up by using one hard-boiled egg. A cream sauce may be added to the meat.

Vivid Colors Feature London Winter Styles

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Long waists, bare backs and vivid color notes are the features of the winter fashions.

Vermilion, jade green, Indian red of the most brilliant hue, tangerine and flame-colored frocks were conspicuous at the dress display held by the Maison Ross at their showrooms.

Skirts, judging from this display, are shorter and tighter than ever, and even where floating drapery gives a wider effect, there is a narrow "hobble" skirt beneath.

Most of the evening frocks had a sheath-like effect, ending in a fish-tail train.

Other dance frocks stood out above the knee like that of a ballet dancer.

Nearly all the frocks have an Eastern effect, both in gorgeousness and color.

The long waist line was much in evidence, both for day and evening wear.
