

HARDING FOR ANOTHER 1907

Former Progressive States in Letter Pledging Support of Governor Cox.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—W. H. Nichols of Bennington, Vt., State chairman of the Committee of Forty-eight, and former Progressive national committeeman of Vermont, announces in a letter received today (Friday) by Chairman George White of the Democratic National Committee, his support of the League of Nations and Governor Cox's candidacy.

The letter follows:

"In 1912 it was my privilege and honor to become personally acquainted with our greatest American, Theodore Roosevelt, and it is to be regretted that the one carrying his name now is not following in the footsteps of his father.

Colonel Roosevelt told me of his struggles while President with the reactionaries who were controlled by a group of radical Wall street capitalists, who caused the financial panic in 1907.

"How some reactionary Senators, of which Senator Harding is one, and to whom he reports, are in control today, and to further their own financial and political ambitions, you will notice that the rate of interest on money needed to operate our industries has been forced so high today that thousands of industries are crippled and obliged to shut down their plants.

"It is not right or fair that the industries and labor of this country should be smothered and starved under the lack of the political financial whip wielded by a group of reactionary Senators.

"Colonel Roosevelt told me he was alarmed at the rapid growth of I. W. W. and radical Socialism, which was largely brought about by the reactionary policy of the administration at that time, and unless something was done to change the condition he feared a revolution.

"For having had the courage of his conviction he was called a madman Aaron Burr by Senator Harding, shot at Minneapolis and last year died an untimely death.

"Independent Progressives and liberal-minded voters can unite with the reactionary element who control the Republican party today.

"It is evident that the Republican party must first clean house.

"Governor Cox is the Progressive standard-bearer in this campaign.

"He has taken up the work where Roosevelt left off.

"The reactionary Democratic element is supporting Harding, and the Republican Progressive element supporting Cox.

"The League of Nations is the greatest moral issue ever presented to humanity.

"Its sole object is to establish a better relation between nations and prevent war.

"In the recent war, millions of human lives were destroyed and billions of dollars worth of our natural resources wasted and untold agony and suffering brought upon innocent women and children.

"The League of Nations can and will prevent another such war.

"A Christian nation it is our sacred and moral duty to do all that we can to have the League of Nations become a reality.

"Harding says he is not for going in and stands for rejection of the League of Nations.

"Has the Republican party lost its soul?"

"Governor Cox says, 'I am for the League of Nations with reservations if necessary,' therefore, according to their own testimony, a vote for Harding is a vote for war.

HURT ALL OVER COULDN'T SLEEP

Suffered So Much and So Long, Indiana Lady Became Discouraged, and at Times Cared Little to Live.

Leavenworth, Ind.—Mrs. Hannah Peru, of this town, writes: "About six years ago I began the use of Cardui for female weakness. I suffered such fearful bearing-down pains at

It seemed like something was just pressing on the top of my head and it burned like fire. I was indeed a nervous wreck.

"For four years I couldn't do my housework. I was in bed most of the time. I got so discouraged, and at times I wanted to die. I was in so much pain. At times I hurt all over. At night I was restless and couldn't sleep. I had no appetite, in fact was a misery to myself and every one else.

"I continued in this condition until finally I began Cardui. Took Cardui regularly until I took a number of bottles. It cured me. I can not say too much for this treatment, and highly recommend it to others."

For more than forty years Cardui has proven beneficial to suffering women.

Your druggist sells it. Try it!—Advertisement.

Eats Candy but Loses Her Fat

Here's a joyful news for every fleshy person who loves good things to eat, especially those who are dreading themselves the things they like most because of their desire to keep down their weight or to reduce the fat with which they are already burdened.

There is no further necessity to diet in order to keep your weight down or reduce the fat you have already acquired.

The famous Marmola Prescription has been put up in tablet form, and is now sold by all druggists at one dollar for a good size box. To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, just take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime until you have reduced your weight to where you want it. No wrinkles or flabbiness will remain. Use Marmola Prescription Tablets according to directions a few weeks and get results without going through long sieges of tireless exercise and starvation diets. Get them at any drug store or send the price to the Marmola Co., 33 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich., and receive them by mail, prepaid, in plain, sealed cover.

Vote for war and reactionary movement. A vote for Cox is a vote for peace and progress.

(Signed) "W. H. NICHOLS."

DRIVES AUTO INTO CROWD; 1 KILLED

Maniacal Driver Hits People Waiting for Car.

TOLEDO, Oct. 29.—An automobile driver, believed to be a maniac, is responsible for the death of one man and the serious injury of another when he charged down upon a group of persons waiting for a car at Oak and Woodville streets early today.

The dead man is Joseph Segrum of Toledo.

William Armstrong, a laborer, is seriously injured.

About a dozen persons were standing in the street waiting to board a car when a man in a large touring car approached at terrific speed.

Without warning he apparently purposely swerved into the crowd.

Segrum was killed instantly.

Several others were knocked against the street car and seriously bruised.

Boards Meet to Look Into Election Plans

To determine if all steps have been taken to make ample provisions for the election Tuesday, the Marion County board of commissioners and the Marion County election commissioners this afternoon met in joint session in the county commissioners' courtroom.

Members of both boards desire to determine if all the voting machines will be in running order and delivered on time.

To End Walkout of Colorado Miners

LOUISVILLE, Colo., Oct. 29.—Negotiations were under way here today to bring an end to the walkout of 1,600 miners in the northern Colorado coal fields who quit work after their representatives had been denied a conference with operators.

Meetings were held today between representatives of the miners and owners and it is believed an agreement will be reached.

Water Company Asks Receiver Appointed

Petition for the appointment of a receiver for the Agnos Distilled Water Company today was filed before Judge Carter of Superior Court, Room 3, by Lawrence Schmidt & Sons, who claim that the water company is indebted to them in the amount of $10,000.

The petition charges other indebtedness amounting to $20,000.

ADVISES HOLDING FARM PRODUCTS

Farmer's Union Officials Say 'Time Now to Act.'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—"Hold your cotton and wheat, men."

This advice was given today to the farmers of the country by Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Board of Farm Organizations, and chairman of the farmer conference now in session here.

"The time has come now for action," Barrett continued.

"The unrest in this country with the price situation is deeper and more widespread than ever before.

"The farmers' union officials are being flooded with messages from the cotton and grain belts to call for a holding movement.

"Since the Government has failed us we now ask Government officials to stop talking price decline and give us a chance to help ourselves.

Barrett said he had positive information the world's wheat situation is such that a very slight holding movement among American farmers will lift the price of wheat.

"I know that the world can not go much longer without cotton," he continued.

"It is now a question as to whether the speculator or the farmer will carry this cotton.

The present price is so far under the cost of production it would bankrupt most southern farmers and merchant communities for us to sell the crop now.

It was announced the farmers attending the conference will go home to put into effect a gigantic holding movement.

Investigation of the money trust by the Government was demanded in the report of the committee appointed by the conference to draw up recommendations which will aid the farmers in securing credit to meet the falling prices on their products.

The committee refused to go on record as working in favor of immediate reorganization of the railroads to Government ownership.

The committee also rejected a proposal to make an immediate visit to the White House with representatives of labor to demand further extension of credit to farmers.

The committee recommended that the farmers investigate the possibilities of creating a great agricultural bank whose directors will be selected by all of the farm organizations in the country.

Recommendations were also made for the restoration of the war finance corporation; that the Federal reserve board classify all loans and that it sell issues in the open market short-term securities and that cooperative marketing be endorsed by the farmers.

Appointment of a public relations committee which will represent farmers and producers in all public matters.

DAVIS ACTS TO SAVE LISTS OF REGISTRATION

(Continued From Page One.)

of the First ward in said city and county, the Third, Seventh and Ninth precincts of the Third ward in said city and county, the Fourteenth and Fifteenth precincts of the Fourth ward in said city and county, the First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth precincts of the Fifth ward in said city and county, and the Eighth precinct of the Sixth ward in said city and county, the names of all persons as fully qualified and lawfully registered voters who are not so fully qualified and lawfully registered voters aggregating in all of said precincts more than 1,000 persons; that as a precautionary measure, the lawfully registered voters should be prevented from voting by challenges at the polls.

"If I am elected prosecuting attorney I will prosecute all who vote illegally next Tuesday regardless of their politics."

"Mr. Van Nuys, the United States district attorney, will, I know, prosecute in the Federal court, all who violate the election law."

"I wish the Republican candidate for prosecuting attorney would make the same statement so that all may understand that no matter who is elected that all who corrupt this election in any degree will be prosecuted."

"In this suit we are simply asking that the registration papers be preserved."

"The law provides that the inspectors of the election boards must deliver them to the county auditor within three days after the election, and if they do not do this they are violating the law and will be prosecuted."

"The law does not compel the county auditor to preserve them a single minute."

"If there is any corruption in this election these registration papers will be of great value in case of prosecution in either the State or the Federal court, and they should be preserved in order to insure the election in Marion County."

"We will be very glad to have the Republican candidate for prosecuting attorney join in the request that these registrations be preserved."

"There can be no valid objection upon the part of anybody to preserving them."

The petition is a precautionary measure filed to prevent the destruction of the records, which would be of vital importance if an election contest suit or suits should be filed following the election.

The records would also be valuable in the investigation by Federal authorities of the charges of irregularities.

In connection with the filing of the suit, Mr. Davis made the following statement:

"It is also set forth that said lists of voters and registration books in said several precincts are listed by law to be used as a guide by the various election boards of said precincts for the election of November, 1920, only the names of such applicants for registration whose applications conformed to the law and the registration books of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters for said precincts when said applications were not made in accordance with and required by law in the registration of said precincts; that through mismanagement of the great number of lawfully registered voters and the lawfully registered voters in each of said precincts did place the names of the applicants on the lists of voters and registration books of voters