

FOUNDING DAY
PROGRAM SET

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Indianapolis Young Women's Christian Association will be observed next Thursday from 3 to 5, when the board of directors will give a musical tea in the parlors of the association.

A program of exceptional charm has been arranged by Mrs. Bertha Miller Ruck, pianist.

She will be assisted by Miss Ella Schroeder, violinist; Miss Hanel Humphreys, cellist; and Miss Florence Ann Parlin, soprano.

The following numbers will be given: "Told at Twilight".....Huerfano Cappella Baller Music.....Delibes "A Night in Seville".....Albeniz Lincoln string trio.

(Mrs. Ruck, Miss Schroeder, Mrs. Humphreys.)

"Song of a Robin".....Anna Case "Joy of Spring".....Rogers "The Star".....Rogers "My Alice Blue Gown".....Rogers Miss Parlin.

Bereave from "Jocelyn" Solo by Mrs. Monologue—Mrs. Ruck.

"Valse Triste".....Sibelius "Serenade".....Spawkowski Miss Schroeder.

"A Birthday".....Woodman

Mrs. Harry W. Griffith is chairman of the committee which has the tea in charge. Assisting her are Mrs. Stanley Finckle, Mrs. Frank Wood and Mrs. A. E. Stierne.

Those members of the first board of 1895 who are living here in Indianapolis will be guests of honor at the tea.

The complete board list included the following:

Mrs. F. F. McCrea, president; Mrs. E. L. Griffith, vice president; Mrs. F. W. Wood, recording secretary; Mrs. L. W. Fisher, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. Stratford, treasurer; Mrs. E. G. Corbelle, Mrs. J. J. Brown, Mrs. W. W. Winslow, Miss Mary Butler, Mrs. W. H. Kipp, Mrs. J. H. Lowes, Mrs. A. B. Buel, Mrs. E. W. Urman, Miss Julia Moore, Mrs. H. G. Gaylord, Miss L. H. Wailes, Miss Ella L. Malott, now Mrs. Edgar Evans; Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, Mrs. C. J. Buchanan, Mrs. J. O. De Vay, Miss Anna Morrison, Miss Founds, Mrs. J. C. Adams, Mrs. Frank Helwig, Miss Anna Sharpe, Mrs. G. W. McCoy, Mrs. E. M. Thompson, Miss Agnes Dike, Mrs. Allan Philpott, Mrs. Joseph Allerdice.

Mrs. Allan Philpott and Mrs. J. C. Adams are the only two members of the first board who are on the board at the present time.

The members of the present board of directors will act as hostesses. They are: Mrs. J. R. Barrett, president; Miss Frances Brownell, secretary; Mrs. M. A. Potter, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Adams, Miss Eliza Browning, Mrs. G. W. Combs, Mrs. C. B. Dyer, Mrs. J. L. Floyd, Mrs. Madelon Swadlow, Mrs. T. W. Grafton, Mrs. Harry Griffith, Mrs. J. F. Hendricks, Mrs. Curtis Hodges, Mrs. Fred Hoke, Mrs. E. R. Kackley, Mrs. F. R. Kautz, Mrs. E. F. Kramer, Mrs. J. B. McCoy, Mrs. A. B. Philpott, Mrs. David Ross, Mrs. E. C. Rumpel, Mrs. C. E. Rush, Mrs. W. C. Smith, Mrs. Russell Sullivan and Mrs. Samuel Wells.

World fellowship will be the note struck in all the vespers services during November. During the vespers hour on Sunday, from 4 to 5 o'clock, Rev. George W. Allison will speak on the subject, "The Eagle's Nest and the Eagle's Young." Social hour will be from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The following girls were initiated into Manual Training High School Girl Reserve Club last Tuesday: Cora Baldauf, Vivian Butler, Lena Haynes, Katharine Burgon, Lora McGee, Lola Lyzotte, Clarice Sheets, Anna Weaver, Marguerite Wilt, La Verne Wallace, Cleanna Kennedy and Idell Clark.

Seven girls were initiated into the Shortridge High School Girl Reserve Club Wednesday: Margaret Toye, Grace Taylor, Mahel Mitchell, Irene Scott, Florence Cleiver, Frances Swannick, Rowena Smith and Dorothy Dazy.

All three high school girl reserve clubs will celebrate election week with mock elections and discussion of the various policies presented by the parties. Also, each club will have tryouts for cheer leaders.

Roller skating will be opened for the winter on next Saturday night, 8 to 10 p. m., in the gymnasium. Both boys and girls are welcome.

Club Index

Aftermath Club—Thursday. Hostess, Mrs. V. W. Woodward, 1204 Central ave. A survey of the physical features of South America will be given by Mrs. J. H. Brill and Mrs. George M. Christensen will read a paper on "Argentina—The World's Future Meat Market."

Culture Club—Friday. Hostess, Mrs. Walter N. Carpenter, 926 West Drive, Woodruff Place. The program will include a paper on "Cities of Japan," by Mrs. Henrietta Dillen, and a general discussion of current events, led by Mrs. C. F. Remy.

Fortnightly Study Club—Monday. Hostess, Mrs. William R. Griffith, 625 Middle Drive, Woodruff Place. The program will include the report of the annual convention of Indiana Federation of Clubs, by Mrs. Daniel T. Weil, and a paper on the "Life of Susan B. Anthony," by Mrs. William H. Link.

Indianapolis Woman's Club—Friday. The Propriety. Mrs. Katherine Merrill Graydon will talk on "Pilgrims of the West" and Carrie Frances Robertson's topic will be "Isle of the Blessed and Unblessed."

Irrington Woman's Club—Monday. Hostess, Mrs. William Inaler, 445 North Audubon road. Mrs. Elva Elrod will talk on "John Burroughs."

Magazine Club—Saturday. Green parlors of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. E. P. Brennan, Mrs. J. L. Benedict and Mrs. W. H. Blodgett, hostesses. Three papers will be read: "The Century of the Saints" by Mrs. O. R. Sumner; "The Era of Feudalism" by Mrs. F. W. Gunkle, and "Characteristics of the Flemings and Walloons" by Mrs. A. E. Baker.

New Era Club—Monday. Hostess, Mrs. J. K. Wallace, 16 Drexel Arms; assistant, Mrs. C. L. Thornburgh. Mrs. C. L. Temple will talk on "Americanism."

Saturday Afternoon Literary Club—Saturday. Hostess, Mrs. Mollie Nay, 2152 Pleasant Run boulevard; assistant, Miss Bertha Ross. Indianapolis day will be observed with readings from various local writers.

Wednesday Afternoon Club—Wednesday. Mrs. C. C. Monday, 1908 East Twelfth street, hostess. Mrs. Isaac Born will talk to the members on "The League of Women Voters."

Society

Among the former popular Indianapolis girls whom Cupid was singled out to Miss Elizabeth Harrison, now of New York, whose engagement to James Blaine Walker Jr. of New York has been announced by Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, her mother.

Miss Harrison, who is the daughter of former President Harrison, attended Tudor Hall and is a graduate of Westover School, Connecticut.

She holds a degree of bachelor of science from Washington Square College, New York University, and bachelor of law and doctor of jurisprudence from New York University.

Miss Harrison was admitted to the Indiana bar and the New York bar last year and now is practicing law in New York.

Mr. Blaine, who is a grandnephew of the late James G. Blaine, Secretary of State in President Harrison's Cabinet, is a graduate of Cornell University.

During the war he served as secretary of the first section, general staff, A. E. F., at General Pershing's headquarters. He is connected with the American International Corporation and Investment Banking House.

The date of the wedding has not been announced.

Miss Lois Vandewater, 2015 Bellefontaine street, will leave for New York within a few weeks to resume her vocal studies with Frederick Haywood. She will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. B. Vandewater.

Alumnae of St. John's Academy will give a reception and dance Nov. 10 in the assembly room of the Claypool hotel. The chaperons will include Dr. and Mrs. John McCool, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hahle and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carson.

The members of the Delta Gamma alumni and of the active chapter of Indiana University held a luncheon today in parlor T of the Claypool hotel preceding the Northwestern-Indiana football game which they attended in a body. The luncheon table was decorated in flowers and tapers in red and white.

Cres Blakeney of Purdue University came last night to pass a few days with friends in this city.

A "football ball" will be given in the Riley room of the Claypool hotel tonight by the students and alumni of Indiana.

The college colors, Miss Adelaide Moore was chairman of the committee on arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Douglas and Mrs. Carl Cooper.

Mrs. Clifford Ducomb of South Bend is the guest of Mrs. George W. Budd, 3245 Kenwood avenue.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Elsiebeth Carle Bently to Walter Clarence Tuttle, which took place Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Rev. J. H. Doddridge.

The marriage of Miss Helen Ebner and Charles B. Clift was solemnized this morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ebner, 1037 West Thirty-second street, the Rev. Benjamin Rist of St. Paul's Methodist Church officiating.

Autumn flowers in various colors were used throughout rooms and the service was held before an altar of palms, ferns and floor baskets of pink and white roses and chrysanthemums.

Miss Mary Moorman, contralto, sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because," preceding the ceremony, accompanied by Miss Helen Wells, organist, who also played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" for the processional, and soft bridal airs during the service.

Mrs. Marie Clappitt, sister of the bride, wearing a brown suit with hat to match and a corsage of Mrs. Aaron Ward, was the bride's only attendant, and Pete Clift, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride wore a handsome suit of brown duvety with hat to match and carried a shower of bride roses.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clift have gone on a Western trip and on their return will be at home temporarily at 1036 West Thirty-second street.

Miss Myra Allison, who has been attending Indiana University, is passing the week-end with her mother, Mrs. D. C. Allison, 2523 Sutherland avenue.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.

The engagement of Miss Marjorie Coulter to Earl D. Haley has been announced by Miss Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coulter. The wedding will take place Nov. 15.

A bridge party in honor of Miss Martha Helen Shields, who will be married soon, was given by Miss Charlotte Bell and Miss Emma McClure Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 3541 Guilford avenue.

Tables were placed for five and the decorations of the room were carried out in autumn colors.

Northern University students who will attend the game at Washington ball park include Miss Lucile Perkins, 422 East Walnut street, who has as her guest the Misses Lorraine Kindred.

Mrs. Isaac Born was elected a member of the board of directors of the Little Theater at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Born is chairman of the fortnightly play reading at the Public Library. John Kautz was appointed stage manager and A. H. Adams chairman of properties for the November bill.

The bill to be presented Nov. 19 will consist of four one-act plays, the cast of which will include approximately thirty persons.