Attendants for the wedding of Miss Myra Fischer and John W. Browne, which will take place Wednesday afternoon in All Souls Unitarian Church, will include Mrs. E. C. Mathias, matron of honor; Miss Agnes Browne, sister of the bridegroom; bridesmaid, and Hugo Fischer, best man.

An interesting program was given at the meeting of the Indianapolis section of the Jewish Council of Women this afternoon in the Temple. Sidney Kusworm of Dayton, Ohio, talked on "Americanization"; Mrs. Henry J. Haywood told of the Girl Scout movement, and current topics were discussed generally under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Feilbush, and Mrs. J. C. Harris gave a group of dramatic readings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Battie Ford, Jr., have returned from their wedding trip and will pass a few days with the George Gordon Tanner before going to Detroit, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lehman of the Knickerbocker apartment, together with Dr. Carl Ryan and Miss Ella Hartcock, passed the week-end in Danville with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckley.

Mrs. F. A. Meyer, 1920 North Meridian street, and Miss Pauline Baker entertained with a tea Monday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. E. Ward Macey and her guests, Miss Lela Goodall of Boston, and Mrs. Frederick Russell, a recent bride, who has come from New York City to Indianapolis for residence. French baskets of chrysanthemums and masses of greenery were used through the rooms.

Women Voters League Plans Election Party

Plans have been completed for the "consolation party" to be given by the members of the League of Women Voters Friday evening. In the directors' room of the Chamber of Commerce, with the exception of the naming of the hostesses as the women of the various political parties are to entertain the losers.

Mrs. John F. Barnhill will be the chairman for the Republicans and Mrs. Olive Eddon Lewis for the Democrats. A campaign "mock movie" in three reels will be presented. Those taking part will include Mrs. Horace Huey, Miss Frances McMath, Mrs. Claude Palmer, Mrs. Edwin Camp, Mrs. Richard Habbe, Miss Edith Harshman, Miss Esther Thornton, Miss Margaret Carter, Mrs. Warren Fifer, Mrs. W. R. Nethercut, Miss Helen Biederman and Miss Margaret Montgomery.

A joint debate called "Legal Nations," written by Robert E. Cavanaugh, will be given under the direction of Miss Lola I. Perkins.

A victory stunt in honor of the winning President and Governor, a review of campaign songs by Miss Marianne Holmes, a skit, "Burying the Hatchet," and the presentation of a gift to the losing party will compose the remainder of the program.

All members of the league and their friends are invited to be present.

DO YOU WANT HEALTH—THEN READ

Bulgarian and Oriental Europe Produce Sturdiest People.

Do you want to feel from 10 to 30 years younger?

Do you want to know the joy of Perfect Health?

You can get back the spirit of youth, your eyes will sparkle with new life and the rich glow of health will replace the faded yellow skin.

Bulgarian Blood Tea, used for centuries in Oriental Europe, is the most remarkable medicinal family preparation known in the world today. Composed of choice and rare herbs, just brewed for you. Your blood will become rich and pure; the flame of life will be rekindled—no more headaches, biliousness, constipation, indigestion or bone-racking aches or pains. Bulgarian Blood Tea is guaranteed to contain just pure herbs of marvellous medicinal and curative power gathered from fields, mountains and valleys of Europe, Asia and Africa. Bulgarian Blood Tea taken steaming hot at bed time will kill a cold and guard against influenza, grippe, pneumonia and other serious sickness.

All drug stores now keep Bulgarian Blood Tea in stock, but owing to the enormous demand immediate application to your druggist is urged on account of the limited source of supply. Distributors of Bulgarian Blood Tea are authorized to return the full purchase price if it does not materially improve your health in three weeks' time. This evidence of faith in the power of Bulgarian Blood Tea is the guarantee of the Marvel Products Company, Marvel Building, Pittsburgh, Pa., who authorize this public statement.

MISS LOIS BUTLER

Symbolizing "Youth," Miss Lois Butler, talented young danseuse of this city, will be the central feminine figure in the pageant to be presented by the Girl Scouts Saturday afternoon on the Monument steps.

Miss Butler, who is still in high school, made a study of interpretive dancing in New York City for some time, and this season is studying under George Sommes of Indianapolis.

She has made a number of appearances in Indianapolis and will be seen this winter in the Little Theater productions.

The pageant of Saturday, which is composed of a series of pantomimes representing various activities of the Girl Scouts, is under the direction of Mr. Sommes, assisted by Miss Florence Farman.

A parade, starting from the Public Library at 1:30, proceeding down Meridian street to the Monument, will precede the pageant.

Kokomo Man Knight Errant of Election

KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 2.—That the women might have every convenience in voting today, J. N. Loop, one time member of the Indiana Legislature, laid carpet on the floor of his garage, provided electric lights, an oil stove and a long table for the booths.

Mrs. Housewife. Do You Know?

1. What is the difference between rolled oats and ordinary oat meal?
2. Whether canned vegetables like peas and beans should be washed before heating for the table?
3. How to remove paint from a window or mirror?

These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. Multitawny—the East Indian words for "pepper water"—is made from meat, vegetables, rice, coconut and other ingredients, highly seasoned with chutney powder.

2. To prepare old-fashioned molasses quince slice them into a covered baking dish and a little molasses and bake in a slow oven or fireless cooker four or five hours.

3. It is difficult to secure old-fashioned bathtub, but it is possible to get powdered brick dust—the same thing in more convenient form.—Copyright, 1920.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3.

This is not an altogether satisfactory day, according to astrology. While Venus and Jupiter are in benefic aspect, the Sun and Uranus are adverse.

The rule is held to be a fortunate one for the business affairs of women. Whatever they venture at this time should prosper, but not until serious obstacles are overcome.

While seers declare that great opportunities are to open to women in the new year there will be many delays and disappointments due to the natural opposition caused by the order of things.
