CLAIM NON-PARTISAN CROWN.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 3.—Partisan league headquarters today claimed the re-election of Lynn J. Frazer for Governor for the third term. The vote tabulated early today gave J. M. O'Connor a lead of 13,000, but few rural precincts where non-partisan candidates were listed had been heard from. E. F. Ladd, non-partisan, was leading for United States Senator over H. H. Perry, Democrat, 3 to 2.

END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY

Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Recovered.

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered all with much back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking them to advantage. You can use my name for a testimonial."—Mrs. THeresa COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

YOU can always be certain, beforehand, of the unvarying goodness of National Bread however often it may be served. That is because of the exact scientific conditions under which it is baked—conditions unknown even to home-baking at its best. The made-with-milk flavor, the even texture and fine-keeping quality of every loaf are reasons why you should buy a loaf of this famous bread today. Baked in pound-and-a-half size loaves.

5 Women Defeated in U. S. Senate Race

Five women aspirants for United States Senator were "shown out" by yesterday's Republican avalanche of votes.

They were: Mrs. Lea Cobb Marion, Pennsylvania, who essayed to oppose on a "dry" ticket the re-election of Senator Penrose.

Mrs. Anna T. Boble, Prohibition, and Miss Rose Schneiderman, Farmer-Labor, New York.

Miss Anne Martin, Independent, Nevada.

Mrs. Culla J. Vorbinger, Prohibition, Indiana.

BOSTON, Nov. 3—Mrs. Florence Spooner, of Boston, "the little lady in black" and the "angel of the prisons," announces that she will actively support the plan to have voters of this State decide whether they want to abolish the death penalty.

Pledging the assistance of the Anti-Death Penalty League of Massachusetts to aid in the circulation of an initiative and referendum petition Mrs. Spooner, who for nearly fifty years has campaigned to abolish the death sentence, said she despairs of favorable action by the Legislature.

Gift Granny-Grams

The desire to give and the desire to receive are universal. The means of gratifying these desires are multitudinous—our shops are laden with them.

With no lack of desire and no shortage of supply, what then is it that has stultified giving? Merely the lack of a graceful means of consulting the prospective recipient.

Here's to the House That's Homey,

To the Draperies

That Make It So

However pretentious or simple the home, the commonsense, modern demand of the family is that it should be livable, every corner and every inch of it.

And by livable we mean that it must not be barren if it is simple or must not offend the eye by being too ornate if it is pretentious. Restful colorings, pleasing colorings in the textures of the rooms drapes or covered furniture are certain means of achieving the correct "feeling" in a room's atmosphere. And such are the suggested pieces.

Cretonne, an imported piece, in an all-over and comparatively close and small bird-bough floral pattern in blue, green and red. Price 80¢ the yard.

Cretonne, conventional sort, of flowers in shades of blue and red on a tan ground. Price 80¢ the yard.

Cretonne, a lovely vase and foliage pattern in oriental red and white on a French blue ground. Price only 50¢ the yard.

Cretonne, a jasper ground with comparatively small, placed, conventional blossoms in intense red, blue and green. Price $1.50 the yard.

An exceptionally effective cretonne is one that is called the verdure pattern in that it depicts in a well-balanced scheme running brooks, bridges and foliated trees. The colors are exquisite tones of blue, old red and green. Price $1.90 the yard.
