

NEWS TO RETAIN DUAL OWNERSHIP

Fairbanks Heirs and Delavan Smith Incorporate Company.

Coming at a time when it sets at rest many rumors of the sale of the paper to Democrats, announcement has been made of the incorporation of the Indianapolis News Publishing Company, to operate the Indianapolis News.

The corporation, formed with a capital stock of $500,000, approximately $200,000 more than the News property is assessed for taxation purposes, is said to represent both the interests of the heirs of the Charles W. Fairbanks estate and of Delavan Smith.

SMITH POSED AS THE SOLE OWNER
It will be recalled that for years Delavan Smith posed as the sole owner of the News and the ownership of three-fourths of the property by Charles Warren Fairbanks was not disclosed until some time after his death, when it was admitted by Delavan Smith in the publication which he asserts he controls.

The preliminary articles of incorporation name the attorneys for Smith and the Fairbanks heirs as the incorporators, omitting, however, the name of Joseph B. Keating, the most prominent of the attorneys for the Fairbanks heirs.

Announcement is made in the News that the Fairbanks heirs and Delavan Smith will be the permanent directors of the new corporation and that Delavan Smith will be the president and will control the property.

Neither the incorporation nor the announcement presages any change from the management of the paper at this time, but the announcement indicates that the Fairbanks heirs are contented with the direction of the paper by Delavan Smith as it was operated before the public was enlightened as to the Fairbanks interests.

As the Fairbanks heirs are regarded as Republicans and the newspaper did not support the Republican party in the last election, the failure to change the management is taken as an indication that the Fairbanks heirs do not care to see the News operated as a Republican newspaper.

FAIRBANKS HEIRS IN CONTROLLING POSITION.
The Fairbanks heirs control three-fourths of the stock of the new corporation and are in a position to dictate the political policies of the paper as they desire.

The omission of the name of Joseph B. Keating as one of the incorporators is regarded as significant inasmuch as Mr. Keating was one of the most active of the attorneys for the Fairbanks heirs and is also a Republican national committeeman from Indiana.

Kiwanians to Observe Signing of Armistice

Armistice day exercises will be held by the Kiwanis Club at the Hotel Severin Wednesday with addresses by the Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Carr, representing the American War Mothers, and Paul Donald Brown. The program will be featured by community singing, led by E. A. Steffen. Mrs. Clyde E. Titus will give soprano selections. The program is in charge of a committee of which George G. Doran is chairman. J. Mercer Barnett, international

Woman Pleads Not Guilty of Murder

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 9.—Pearl Mansfield McLaughlin, charged with first degree murder as the result of the death of her husband, Guy McLaughlin, entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned in the Circuit Court here. She informed Judge Caldwell that she had no money to employ an attorney and the court appointed Daniel P. Flanagan, county attorney to defend her, when the trial opens Nov. 18.

The plea for the defense will be insanity, according to Mr. Flanagan.

The defendant shot McLaughlin June 3, 1920, after she had called him on the phone and asked him to take her home in his car. She then shot herself, but inflicted only a flesh wound. McLaughlin died three days later.

In the Mornings When It's Cold then's when you will appreciate Red Crown Gasoline.

Your spark has to generate only 100 degrees of heat (blood heat) to ignite Red Crown. Many good gasolines, made exactly in accordance with U. S. Government specification need 40 degrees more heat to start.

But Red Crown is made to fit conditions in the Middle West.

When the mercury goes down to the bottom of the thermometer, there is a heap of satisfaction, yes, and pride, too, in saying to yourself, "I won't waste any time getting started,

Use Red Crown

The High-Grade Winter Gasoline"

Red Crown will contribute pleasure and satisfaction to your winter driving.

You not only start easily, but there are plenty of low boiling point fractions for smooth acceleration, and plenty of higher boiling point fractions to insure an abundance of power and speed.

You will be surprised at the way your car will perform when you have Red Crown in your tank—no sputtering, no false motions—just oodles of smooth, rhythmic power, the kind that makes your friends say, "Gee, this is a smooth-running car."

Better switch over to Red Crown if you have not been using it.
