

FIRST 'EVENING' CONCERT PLEASURES

Marcosson Trio Heard by Jewish Council.

As the opening feature of a series of "evenings" to be presented by the educational section of the Council of Jewish Women, the Marcosson Concert Company appeared in recital at the temple last night. The company is composed of Sol Marcosson, violinist; Mrs. Dorothy Frew Marcosson, pianist; and Sara Re Quia Vack, contralto.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcosson opened the program with an arrangement of Grieg's "Sonata in G, Opus 13," which was Mrs. Marcosson's only opportunity to exhibit her evident skill as a soloist.

Mr. Marcosson played with technical beauty, but seemed to lack that intangible something that might be called "musical sympathy."

His second number was the "Romance and Finale Alla Zingara" from Concerto in D Minor (Wienawski), and his final group included "Deep River" (Colebridge), "La Gotana," "Caprice Viennois" (Kreisl), "Oriente" (Cul), and "Etude in E Major" (Paganini). The Kreisl "Caprice" and the Cul number were evidently favorites of the audience, judging from the spontaneous outburst of applause following them. He responded with an encore "Piccolo" (Ginrand).

Mrs. Vack sang as her first number the aria, "O Don Fatale" (Verdi). She has a contralto voice of rich, smooth quality and of unusual range.

Her second number was a group of lighter songs was delightfully interpreted. They included "Sink, Red Sun" (Del Riego), "A Birthday" (Cowan), "My Heart's Desire" and "Lift Thine Eyes" (Frederick Knight Logan). As an encore she used a little song called "A Dream."

As a finale the trio gave "By the Waters of Minnetonka" (Lieturanc), arranged for voice, with a violin obbligato.

Talented Singer

Among the talented young singers who have achieved success outside of their home city is Miss Julia Reyer, 2064 Central avenue, soprano, who will present a group of early English songs on the Armistice day program of the Caroline Scott Harrison chapter of the D. A. E. to be given in the Propylaeum ballroom tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Reyer studied with Rudolph Heine in Indianapolis for several years and continued her work in Chicago with Carleton Hackett.

She has traveled as the soloist with a concert company for the last two years and will join the Sheehan Concert Company again in January for a tour through the South.

The remainder of the musical program will include numbers by the quartette, composed of Mrs. Glenn Friermood, Mrs. E. Everett Johnson, Miss F. E. L. Anne Parkin and Mrs. Traub Busch, and solos by Mrs. Busch, contralto.

Lieutenant Colonel James K. Parsons of Ft. Benjamin Harrison will give the address of the afternoon.

The Times will be glad to print YOUR husband's favorite recipe. Address Recipe Editor, Daily Times.

Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. What the word blanket comes from?
2. The best way to prepare cold boiled ham?
3. How to clean a refrigerator?
(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.)

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. The making of glass was known in Egypt 4,000 years before Christ. This was probably the earliest glass making. Glass was not then used for tableware, but for beads. Glass bowls and bottles appeared later on.

2. To test a roasted or baked chicken or turkey to tell when it is done, insert a fork in the wing, which is supposedly the toughest part of the fowl. If the fork turns easily, the fowl is done.

3. To remedy binding or scraping a door, take the door off the hinges and plane off a little of the door where the scraping takes place. Don't do this until the furnace heat is on, as many doors are expanded by the dampness of summer but shrink to normal when the house is heated.—Copyright, 1920.

Most noticeable among this lot is the ostrich crown hat with small straight brim. These come in henna, Copen, taupe and black.
