

YOUNG TELLER GIVES SELF UP

Lost Nerve Responsible for Clearing Ottawa Bank
Mystery.

OTTAWA, Ill., Nov. 12.—Francis J. Carey, 22, teller of the National City Bank, is being held here on warrants issued after he had surrendered and confessed an attempt to loot the bank of $45,000. Bank officials declare $3,997 of the loot is missing, but Carey denies knowledge of it.

Carey voluntarily surrendered to Sheriff Ayers late Thursday after the district had been combed for him during the day and after the door of the bank's vault had been drilled through in the belief that the missing teller was imprisoned therein. The youthful teller declared he had no confederates.

"I took the money," he said. "I took $500 home with me when I went to supper and put it under the mattress of my bed. When I went back to the bank after supper I took $40,000 in currency and $4,000 in Liberty bonds and put them in a big pasteboard box. Then I went to the roof of the bank and dropped the box, but it made a bigger noise than I thought it would, so I ran back into the bank and out the front door.

"When I started up the alley to pick up the box I saw a man coming out of the back door of a saloon so I ran. I tramped nearly all night. Then I got to thinking about the money I had left in the alley and was afraid the bank wouldn't get it back, so I called up President Hayler and surrendered."

G. O. P. Committee's Output $3,416,000

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.
FRENCH LICK, Ind., Nov. 12.—National Republican Treasurer Fred W. Upham gave out figures here showing that the expense of making Warren G. Harding President of the United States and Calvin Coolidge Vice President, cost the Republican national committee exactly $3,416,000. All bills have been paid, but there is a deficit of $1,350,000 yet to be raised.

Mr. Upham's completed report of receipts and expenditures will be filed early next week with the clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington.

Returns From 'Y. W.' Service in France

After nineteen months overseas as a Y. W. C. A. secretary, Miss Mabel M. Felt, daughter of Edward W. Felt, 64 North Irvington avenue, has returned.

Miss Felt, who left Paris the first of the month, went to Havre, sailing for New York on La Lorraine. She was assigned as secretary of the Foyer De Allee upon her arrival in Paris in April last year, where she served until the following March. She was then assigned to duty with the central Y. W. C. A. at Paris as educational and club secretary. Miss Felt expects to remain in Indianapolis until the first of the year when she will take up her work through the central "Y" at Chicago.

Cost of Re-election for Abrams Set at $57

Henry Abrams, an attorney, who was re-elected State Representative on the Republican ticket, spent only $57 during the campaign, according to his expense statement on file in the county clerk's office.

Edward White, in his race for State Senator on the Republican ticket, spent $100 he states.

Congressman Receives
Her First Proposal.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 12.—Miss Alice M. Robertson is considering her first proposal received as a Congresswoman-elect from Oklahoma. It came from a Washington (D. C.) man who has been in a hospital for many weeks.

"I know that no one under 65 will marry me," he wrote, "but I have hopes that you might marry me and get me out of this place."

"I've been a little afraid of getting a proposal since this publicity began, but with my years, I hoped they would refrain. Now I've heard from one who seems to like my age," said the Congresswoman-elect. "But I guess I'll have to turn him down."

Being proposed to is no new experience for Miss Robertson. While postmistress of Muskogee under President Roosevelt back in 1904 her mail was flooded with requests for marriage. She never gave any serious heed.

"They were so diverting," she said. "But I can't pay much attention to proposals nowadays when my opinion is being asked on everything by people all over the country. I haven't got the time."

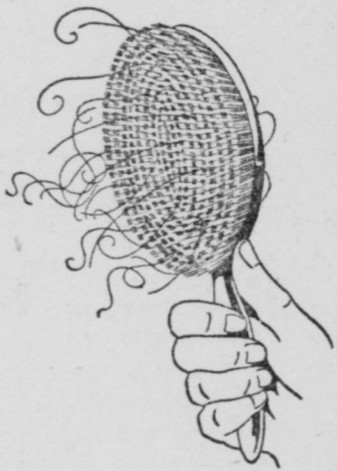

Hun Workers Fail in Seizures of Plants

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—The German government was triumphant today in its first clash with radical workmen who attempted to emulate Italian workers in the seizure of plants.

Metal factories seized by strikers were abandoned when police suddenly surrounded them. There was no violence, the workers realizing they would be starved out if they did not yield. In like manner a "soviet" which seized a gas plant on the north side of the city was compelled to withdraw.

Indianapolis Hunter Accidentally Shot

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.
GREENSBURG, Ind., Nov. 12.—Raymond Cutting of Indianapolis suffered a severe scalp wound when a gun carried by Frank Enders, his cousin, and also of Indianapolis, was accidentally discharged while they were hunting near this city Thursday. The two men were walking across a field when the gun carried by Enders was accidentally discharged, the contents striking Cutting in the head.

He was hastened to this city, where his wound was dressed by a surgeon who said the injury was not serious.

Second Wife Obtains Annulment of Vows

Judge T. J. Moll of Superior Court, Room 5, has instructed County Clerk Richard V. Sipe to expunge from his records a marriage license issued to Vera B. Neudigate of this city and Ernest Moresco, a New York musician.

This action of the court declares void the marriage. The action of the court resulted when evidence was shown that Moresco, who was stationed at Ft. Harrison, was a married man at the time of his marriage to Miss Neudigate.

On a trip East with her husband, Miss Neudigate learned of the former marriage. She returned to Indianapolis and has not seen him since.
