Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. What is meant by "Pot-au-feu"? 2. How to make beef juice for infants or senile adults?

3. How to remove ink from rugs and carpets?

(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.)

ANSWERS TO SATURDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. The olive tree was known from earliest times throughout the Mediterranean region. The name for olive trees and oil in Greek are similar, as the first oil was olive oil.

2. Cake and bread should be thoroughly dried before putting them away. If they are put away with the water in them condenses and makes them soggy.

3. To make a mustard poultice mix flour to a soft paste with warm water and mix with twice as much dry mustard as flour. Put in a bag of sterilized muslin. Copyright, 1920.

SHRINERS PLAN
FOR PILGRIMAGE

Feast to Mark Initiation of Large Class.

Dressing a white apron and cap, Bob Zehliche is presiding over the big kitchen at Murat Temple completing plans for the feeding of hundreds of Shriners who will attend the last Shriners' ceremonial of the year at the Temple Friday. The banquet will be served at 6 o'clock this afternoon, and will be served for the occasion. Zehliche has ordered that a flock of chickens be executed at sunrise on the morning of Nov. 19, and that their remains be smothered in steaming gravy and decorated with oysters.

The initiation is to be preceded by a show which is being arranged by a committee headed by Paul Dickey who will be aided by Elmer F. Gay, Frank A. Holmes, Roltare Eggleston, Robert L. Elder, Odisa Porter and W. I. Hall. The show will be in the nature of an elaborate spectacle.

Several hundred candidates are expected to undertake the long journey over the hot sands. Charles S. Barker, recorder, will receive petitions of candidates at the Shrine tonight, but petitions will be received up to 1 p.m. Friday.

Boarding House
Is Contributory
Cause of Divorce

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—The tendency of married couples to seek hotels and boarding houses to evade the burdens of the sweet responsibilities of the fireside and home is little more than in that public atmosphere rather than assume the cares and gain the sanctity and privacy of a home—such a spirit reveals the hard selfishness that prefers a pretty and indolent ease to domestic traditions and duties, and coarsens alike parents and children by shriveling the pitiful apology for a home into a mere lodging place and ease.

"What wonder, then, when tact obligations assumed are shamelessly declined, when whim and caprice and selfish ease crowd out the willing service of love and the glad sacrifice of duty, that

Easily Rejuvenated

An aged face is often only a mask to a comparatively youthful person. Beneath is a countenance young and fair to look upon. It is a mask, indeed, to形容 the mask. Ordinary mercurized wax to be had at any drug store, gradually absorbs the worn-out surface skin; in a week or two the user has the lovely, healthy, young complexion again. An ounce of the wax is sufficient to complete the transformation. It is put on at night like cold cream and taken off in the morning with warm water.

This mercurized treatment is invariably effective, no matter how muddy, sallow or discolored the complexion. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

To remove wrinkles and flabbiness, here is a recipe that cannot be too highly recommended: Powdered sarsaparilla, one ounce; dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint. Use as a wash lotion.—Advertisement.
