

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR MUNICIPAL COURT SYSTEM

Attorney Asks Bar Association to Father Bill for Relief in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis will have a municipal court system, if the efforts of a Henry Abrams, attorney, to have the Indianapolis Bar Association draw up such a bill for presentation to the regular session of the general assembly, are successful. Mr. Abrams is now awaiting action of the bar association on a request made by him for the appointment of a committee to consider the formation of such a bill. The municipal court system, according to Mr. Abrams, would relieve in a great manner the congestion of the Marion County Circuit and Superior Courts. It would also save expense to citizens having occasion to go to court for settlement of controversies in which sums not exceeding $1,000 are involved.

In the present system in Marion County, many such suits originate in the courts of a justice of the peace and should either party to the suit be dissatisfied with the verdict, then an appeal is taken to the Circuit or Superior Courts. DIRECT APPEAL COULD BE TAKEN.

With the Municipal Court system prevailing, such suits could be filed in this court, then should either party be dissatisfied with the outcome, an appeal could be taken direct to the Appellate Court.

Under Mr. Abrams' system the Municipal Court would be composed of two branches, the criminal and the civil. There would be three divisions of the civil branch, with as many judges, and only one division of the criminal branch. He would have the four judges rotate each month, so that each judge sits as judge of the criminal division one month out of each four.

The civil branch of the court would be divided into three divisions for convenience and for the sake of time. Under the system proposed by Mr. Abrams, the Municipal Court would have jurisdiction in civil cases involving matters up to $1,000. All suits for over that amount would be taken to the county courts.

JUSTICE OF PEACE COURTS REDUCED.

With the establishing of the Municipal Court system, most of the Justice of the Peace Courts could be abolished, Mr. Abrams declares. However, under the Indiana constitution, justice courts can not be abolished, as the bill which would be presented to the Legislature would provide for the abolishment of all but possibly one or two of the justice courts, leaving just enough to comply with the constitution.

This is a peculiarity of the Indiana constitution. Any court in the State may be abolished under the laws of Indiana, with the exception of a justice court. Therefore, the bill which would be drawn up for presentation to the Legislature would provide for possibly only one justice court. All present justices would be permitted, however, to complete their terms of office.

Mr. Abrams has signified his willingness to assist in the preparation of a bill to be presented to the next session of the Legislature, but he says it is too much of a task for one man to attempt to draw up the bill, and has asked the cooperation of the Indianapolis Bar Association. The matter probably will be taken up by the association at its next meeting and a committee is expected to be appointed to discuss the matter.

Makes 'Pretties'

MRS. RAY BONSIK.

Where is the woman who does not adore exquisite "underneath" things? Anyway Mrs. Ray Bonsib, Dolly Madison Apartments, does and she adores them so much that she is making them for "other folks" too. Mrs. Bonsib, who is a little French girl, who came to live in this country with her husband not quite a year ago, goes into raptures over her superb creations when she exhibits them to her visitors.

"You see," she explains in her delightfully broken English, "everybody likes something just a little bit different from what everybody else has, and so I try to make each thing have a personality all its own."

Nor was it hard to believe what she said as she displayed several articles dear to the heart of woman, each of which had an individuality all its own. Perhaps it was only the way the sheer lace was draped or perhaps it was only the way a knot of ribbon was tied, any way the envious possessor might know that she could take it over "next door" and show it to her dearest friend without her saying "Why, I got one just like that last summer."

Indeed, when one sees such an array of lingerie, camisoles, breakfast caps, corsets, blouses, one can appreciate how the author felt when he wrote "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Previously to her coming to America, Mrs. Bonsib with her mother conducted a shop in Paris. Mrs. Bonsib, who is assisted by her mother, is planning to open a "real" shop soon in Chicago. According to her own statement, she just loves to make pretty things. In addition to her work for local patrons, she also fills orders for her old customers in France.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. It has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorder.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

Police Nab Five in Craps Game at Hotel

When the police forced the door of room No. 128 in the Roosevelt Hotel, at 3 o'clock this morning, there was a wild scramble and a grabbing of money from on top of a bed, it is said, but the police obtained $5.35 and a pair of dice, which they say is craps game evidence.

The raid was made following a complaint of the night clerk at the hotel who said five men were shooting craps in the room, which was against the orders of the hotel proprietor.

H. G. Montgomery, 29, 4316 East Washington street, said to be a special police officer employed by a railroad, was charged with gaming and keeping a gambling house.

The others arrested were charged with gaming and visiting a gambling house and gave their names as: George Sweeney, 33, 236 North Bird street; Harry Stevens, 24, the Oneda Hotel; T. L. Ryan, 28, 4316 East Washington street; and U. H. Radcliff, 44, 138 North Illinois street, the latter having the additional charge of drunkenness placed against him.

The drive was originally set for the week of Nov. 15.

HAD WIFE POSE AS SISTER.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Before Mrs. Bertha Osterle, 1209 Addison street, returned home from a vacation and found another woman there, she was suspicious of her husband's fidelity, she told Superior Judge Lewis. She testified that while they were living at another address her husband, Walter Osterle, an architect, had her pose as his sister so that he could strike up an acquaintance with a young woman on an upper floor.

FORESALL COLD WEATHER ILLS

Fortify Yourself by Strengthening Your Whole System—Take a Good Tonic.

With the fall comes changeable weather, and changeable weather means an increase in sickness. Sickness means increased expenses, new bills, and an added outlay of money, and during these times, that is what everybody wants to avoid, and not only do they want to avoid expenses, but most certainly no one wants to be sick, or suffer if they can avoid it. Those who are in a run-down condition, whose stomachs are out of order, nerve force low, who can't sleep well, or in short, those whose vitality is not up to par are always the first to fall before the ravages of disease. Everyone should take a good tonic in the fall, and in looking over the list of tonics offered, Nerv-Worth stands out in a class by itself because of the wonderful service it has given through many years. It contains ingredients which are highly beneficial, it is quick in its action, and its pleasant taste, coupled with all these features, makes Nerv-Worth an ideal fall tonic. Here is an example of what Nerv-Worth did to ward off sickness in the case of Joseph Le Prell, 17th St. Erie, Pa.: "I was suffering from severe pains and was feverish. My stomach and digestion were in bad condition and I was forced to my bed. At times I froze up, and then again I would be burning up, and I was afraid I would have to fight the flu. My wife purchased me a bottle of Nerv-Worth, having heard it was such a great help, and in a day or so I was out of bed, and ready to go to work. It did its work effectively in my case, and I advise all to use it to ward off sickness and 'flu.' This is Mr. Le Prell's testimony and you will find that Nerv-Worth will be just as big a help to you. Be sure to get the genuine in the round bottle, price $1.25. Sold by all leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.
