SCARLET SEES BRIGHT HOPES FOR BIG GAME

Wabash Warriors Refuse to Be Worried by Reports of De Pauw Confidence.

WORK OUT IN THE SNOW

CHAMFORDVILLE, Ind., Nov. 16.—The first snowfall failed to get the glad hand on its appearance on the Wabash College campus today because Wabash students are more interested in football at present than in singing of the falling flakes.

However, Coach Vaughan refused to let the poor weather stop him in his preparations for the De Pauw game at Indianapolis Saturday and the Scarlet warriors were sent through the paces this afternoon as if the day was ideal.

The spirit of the student body and grid squads is running high and rumors that the Greenback outfit has been made the favorite in the annual clash has not caused any concern in the Athens of Indiana.

Wabash always has taken keen delight in upstaging the hopes of the Tigers, and the Scarlet players are being put through the best possible shape for the struggle. Last season De Pauw threatened during the first of the game, but it didn't pierce the Wabash defense when the Scarlet goal was near. Then toward the last of the contest Wabash took a hand at piercing the De Pauw defense and the Scarlet warriors were on the way to points when the final whistle sounded, ending the game scoreless.

EXERCISES HURT COACHES PLANS.
The teams stacked up this year about the same as last and therefore there is no reason for gloom in this section. Of course, Coach Vaughan has had his handicaps, brought about by injuries to some of the regulars, but he has worked fast to fill the holes left by the hospital men and he is depending on the old Wabash fight of spirit to carry the new men through the big struggle.

The Wabash rosters admit they fear the ball-carrying ability of Galloway and the defensive work of Ogden, but these De Pauw stars were held in check to a certain extent last fall and the Scarlet followers believe their team has the stuff to repeat the stunt.

PEP PICKS UP AT OLD DE PAUW
GREENCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 16.—De Pauw football warriors began their last week of practice Monday afternoon behind barred gates at the old De Pauw stadium, where the annual game with Wabash, to be played on Washington Park, Indianapolis, next Saturday afternoon, will be held.

The grid game on the Tigers' schedule, but promises to arouse the most interest of any played thus far.

In downing the tackling dummy was stressed at Monday's practice. Coach Buss intends to greatly improve the tackling ability of his proteges before Saturday. All but one of the crippled members of the Old Gold squad were out in suits Monday afternoon. It is very doubtful if "Red" Adams, the only remaining cripple, will be able to play in the Wabash game.

He was urged to come to De Pauw this year by "Ted" Ogden, captain of the Tiger eleven, who also hails from Rochester.

Morgan, McCann, Mendenhall and Norris were the cripples who returned to the game Monday. They were suffering from injuries received in the tilt with Centre.

During the remainder of the week the Tiger squad will be sent through hard workout each evening, according to Coach Buss. In order to insure the team against injuries, no scrimmages will be held.

As usual the prospect of another Wabash game so close at hand has already aroused De Pauw students and followers. More pep is always instituted before a Wabash game than at any time during the football season. The great rivalry between the two schools is the only explanation that has ever been offered for this unusual manifestation of enthusiasm. Yellow ribbons bearing the words "Beat Wabash" were passed out to members of the faculty and student body at chapel time Monday by Dave Hogue, student athletic manager.

Practically all of the student body and many townspeople are planning to see the annual tilt. Special interurban cars will carry the fans to Indianapolis Saturday over the T. H. I. & E. traction line. The De Pauw band and drum corps will make the trip and lead the annual parade on arriving at Indianapolis.

Around the Big Ten

ILLINOIS.
URBANA—All of Illinois' regulars came through the Wisconsin game in good shape except Hellerstrom, who is expected to be in shape for the game with Ohio State, however.

CHICAGO.
CHICAGO—Gloom clouds the Midway as Stagg's crippled Maroons prepare for the final struggle of the year with Wisconsin. Chicago enters the final tilt with hope of winning because of injuries that have maddled the team.

NORTHWESTERN.
EVANSTON—Northwestern, heartened by its victory over Purdue, is working strenuously for the Notre Dame game Saturday, when the Fighting Irish will meet the Fighting Irish.

MINNESOTA.
MINNEAPOLIS—The crippled and battered Gophers lay down their arms for the season today in preparation for the game with Michigan. Hartig, a substitute, whose shoulder was injured Saturday was favorable, may replace Nolan at right guard.

WISCONSIN.
MADISON—The smashing victory over Illinois, a repetition of last year's triumph by almost the same score, has not caused Wisconsin coaches, players and fans to lose sight of the Chicago game next Saturday. Coach Stagg is expected to make a last-ditch effort to make amends for three defeats this season by upstaging the Badgers eleven in the final game. The Badgers emerged from the Illinois game in pretty good shape. No one was hurt badly, although every player was more or less shaken up.

IOWA.
IOWA CITY—Iowa began the final week of its football season Monday afternoon with a snappy signal practice, as Coach Jones did not wish to overwork his men so soon after the Minnesota game. Iowa made Ames next Saturday. Ames has a strong team which the Hawks cannot overlook as easily as many rosters hereabouts believe. Every Iowa man, despite the pounding battle against the Gophers, is in good shape.

MICHIGAN.
ANN ARBOR—Michigan's eleven underwent a light workout Monday afternoon at Ferry field, but most of the regulars were given a vacation. All of the players came through the Chicago game in good shape. Cappon, who was injured, is expected to be ready for the Minnesota game. Banks, who rose to fame in the Chicago contest, is the idol of the fans but it is quite certain that Jack Dunn will meet the Minnesota game at his usual position at quarter.

National Billiards

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Clarence Jackson of Kansas City won the second game in the preliminaries of the national three-cushion billiard tournament by defeating Hugh Hall of Toledo Monday, 50 to 38 in fifty-eight innings. Charles Martin of Chicago won from Jess Lean of Denver, 50 to 40, in eighty-three innings.

TO BATTLE FOR OLD WABASH

DALRYMPLE, CENTER, AND CAST, QUARTER BACK.

Here are shown three of the Wabash College grid warriors who will perform in this city Saturday, when the eleven representing the Scarlet institution goes to grips with the De Pauw Tigers, ancient rivals. The contest promises to be a thriller from the opening whistle, because whenever Wabash and De Pauw teams get together in any line of athletics, there is always something doing. Above are pictured Dalrymple, center, who must face the great Ted Ogden, De Pauw captain, and Cast, the youthful quarter back of the Scarlet clads, who has fighting spirit sticking out all over him in his first year at Wabash. BUTLER WORKS FOR 'Y' TILT

Page Boosters Confident of Victory Over Fast Chicago Eleven Saturday.

With a record of six straight victories over some of the strongest secondary college eleven in Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky, Coach Pat Page will pit his Butler C. C. A. L. champions against Chicago Y. M. C. A. College Saturday on Irwin field in the last game of the year for the Blue and White. The Chicago eleven comes here with an impressive record and Saturday's game should furnish a real test for the Pagemen.

Butler lost only one game this year, the first one of the season, with Wittenberg, Wittenberg has just won the Ohio Conference title for the third time in as many years and has not been defeated in all this time. They are recognized as the strongest team in Ohio outside of Ohio State, and a defeat suffered at the hands of them, especially in so hard fought a game as the Butler game, is nothing that should fill the Butler camp with gloom. It is expected that these two teams will clash again next year and the Butler warriors are going after the honor of marling their perfect record in a determined way.

To date Butler has played seven games and lost one. This is a wonderful record, considering that a year ago athletics at Butler were in a run-down condition.

Coach Page started his men Monday on a strenuous week of practice in an endeavor to iron out the defects that showed up in the Rose game, and little rest is in store for the local athletes before Saturday. Following Saturday's game the entire student body will flock to the Claypool Hotel, where the manager will hold a banquet in celebration of the season's success. Speeches by Coach Page, Manager Paul and all members of the team will be a big part of the program.

Thelma Darby Busy Annexing Honors in California Waters

Indianapolis Girl in Title Events Thursday—Holds Kellerman Trophy.

Thelma Darby, Indianapolis girl swimmer, is rapidly pushing her way to the top ranks of California swimmers, competing under the colors of the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

Miss Darby will compete in the biggest event staged since she reached California when she goes out for the honors of the 100 and 220-yard free style meets on the California A. A. U. championship card for Thursday. She has been returned the victor over the best swimmers in the State in minor meets and her many new admirers gained by these performances are backing her to make all her opponents bustle in the Thursday competition.

In a recent meet staged under the direction of Annette Kellerman, former world's champion woman high and fancy diver, Miss Darby won the Kellerman individual point total trophy by annexing one first, one second and one third place out of three starts. California's best swimmers opposed her in every event.

Miss Darby overcame a 10-second handicap to win the 220-yard free style, and a 17-second handicap in finishing third in the 100-yard free style.

Her best performance was made in the 100-yard back stroke event. She finished second here, only a few inches behind Dot Burman of Los Angeles, champion woman back stroke swimmer of the world.

The Indianapolis girl is working hard to be in condition for the national championship meets this year, and is confident that she will take her share of the prizes.

Way Down East
CAMBRIDGE—With every player on the Harvard squad in perfect physical condition, light practice is in order in preparation for the Yale game.

NEW HAVEN—The Yale football team, after a two days' rest, resumed practice this afternoon, directed by Tad Jones, in an effort to drive the team into shape to meet Harvard next Saturday. All the players reported in good condition and the entire squad was given a stiff drill.

COLUMBIA.
NEW YORK—Despite the crushing defeat received at the hands of Stanford, sawdust will be made in Columbia's line-up for Saturday's game at the Polo Grounds with Pennsylvania.
