

SHERIFF ACCUSED IN MURDER TRIAL

Aided Defendant's Plea of Insanity, State Charges.

Special to The Times.
RUSHVILLE, Ind., Nov. 19.—During the trial of Fred Dunn, who is charged with first degree murder for killing his wife, Cordella Dunn, Sept. 13, the State charged Sheriff E. M. Jones with aiding the defendant in his plea of insanity.

Jones testified that Dunn had an epileptic attack in jail Thursday just before he was brought into the courtroom, and no one was apprised of the fact except the defendant's attorneys.

The State openly accused the sheriff of assisting the defendant to feign a wild appearance, by allowing his face to remain unshaven for several weeks and in permitting him to wear old clothes.

Dr. Richard Poole and Dr. Charles A. Cook of Indianapolis, testified Thursday on behalf of the defendant.

They were members of a commission that judged Dunn insane in 1907. Both physicians testified concerning symptoms of epilepsy and the probable effects that the disease might have upon a person.

The case probably will go to the jury tomorrow.

Rejects Proposal

Special to The Times.
HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Nov. 19.—The city of Hartford City has addressed a letter to the Union Traction Company rejecting the company's offer to change the paving material around its tracks here from brick to asphalt.

The letter also charges the company with attempting to evade the terms of its contract with the city. The offer, the city contends, was not made in good faith.

Who Wants Cemetery?

Special to The Times.
HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Nov. 19.—A cemetery on the George William farm, near this city, known as the Willman Cemetery, is going begging for an owner. Willman insists the city bought the place twenty-five years ago and has requested the cemetery be cleaned up. No record of the deal can be found, however, and the city has declined to have anything to do with the cemetery.

SOCKS COST 25,000 RUBLES.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—A dispatch from Rear Admiral Newton A. McCully, the representative of the American Government at Sebastopol, says that on Oct. 8 in the Crimea 75 cents was worth about 25,000 rubles, which amount was paid for one pair of cotton socks.

London Report Tells of Japan-U. S. Pact

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Daily Express today printed the following cablegram from Hugh Byas, its Tokyo correspondent:

"The main lines of the Japanese-American agreement are nearing final settlement. Japan agrees absolutely to stop immigration to America. America grants full citizenship to the Japanese already there. Minor points, such as land ownership and dual Japanese nationality will be adjusted upon the general principles of the settlement. There is every prospect that the dangerous questions have been disposed of."

Board to Get Opinion on Amusement Park

J. Clyde Hoffman, attorney for the board of park commissioners, will present to the board next week a legal opinion as to whether the board may exercise its right to prohibit objectionable buildings or business within 500 feet of park property in the present controversy over the establishment of an amusement park at Twenty-Ninth street and Schumann avenue. Residents are objecting to the amusement place on the ground that it will depreciate their property.

The park board owns a small plot of ground within 500 feet of the proposed amusement park, but this plot is the site of an oil loading station and the board does not know if it can exercise its jurisdiction since the plot is not used for strictly park purposes.
