

SAYS 'GO TO JAIL IF NECESSARY'

Farm Head Advises Strong Measures to Get Justice.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Asserting that he understood "that Federal agents are already going over Kansas, Iowa and other States trying to get evidence necessary to the indictment of men who are asking farmers to hold their crops," Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union, through a statement issued today appealed to members of his organization to stand together and not sell their products at present "unreasonably low prices."

"Show that you have the moral courage to go to jail if necessary," Mr. Barrett advised members of the Farmers' Union. "The word seems to have been passed around that farmers were to be taught a lesson—they were getting troublesome."

The farmers' answer to claims of over-production, Mr. Barrett said, should be: "We will simply lessen production. From every part of the country comes the promise that this policy should be adhered to until the country wakes up to the fact that it must either go on short rations or pay you wages high enough to live on."

Efforts of the farmers toward cooperation, Mr. Barrett said, had met with strong opposition from the first. He charged that "deliberate efforts" had been made to prevent them from buying collectively.

"For seven long, weary years," the Farmers' Union President added, "the farmers of this country had placed over them a secretary of agriculture not in real sympathy with and with little understanding of the needs of agriculture, and who now as secretary of another department is being used apparently as a willing and eager tool to enforce deflation of farm products."

French Say Money Used for Propaganda

PARIS, Nov. 25.—Most of the 200,000,000 francs in gold paid monthly to Germany by France, under the Spa coal agreement, since last July has been diverted to propaganda purposes and to pay British creditors, according to information received in French official circles.

These payments, made in return for deliveries of promised coal, it was agreed by Germany, would be used to buy food to ameliorate the condition of the coal miners so that they could be physically able to maintain the output, and also to buy raw materials.

It is asserted, however, that this money has been used for propaganda abroad, and a large part of it has been paid through the British clearing-house in Berlin for eventual delivery to Germany's British creditors.

Mary Garden Billed in Civic Music Series

Afternoon of Dec. 12

Prima Donna of Chicago Opera Association Attraction at Second Sunday Concert.

Mary Garden, prima donna of the Chicago Opera Association, will appear in the second Sunday afternoon concert in the Civic Music Series at the Murat, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 12.

MARY GARDEN.

It was in the Richard Strauss opera "Salome" that Mary Garden startled the musical world by both singing and dancing in the opera.

Until the very night of the opening performance people doubted the truth of the widely-advertised announcement that Miss Garden would dance the difficult and bewildering "Dance of the Seven Veils." In one performance of "Salome," given during the regime of Heinrich Conried at the Metropolitan Opera House, and during the various productions of the Straussian chef d'oeuvre in certain opera houses of the continent, the various prima donnas to whom the role "Salome" had been entrusted, never dreamed of doing more than struggling with the almost insuperable difficulties of its vocal and histrionic essentials. Invariably they left the rounds of the taxing dance to the Prima Ballerina.

But Miss Garden is not a woman to be daunted by difficulties or to do things by halves. She snapped her fingers at the counselors who would have kept her from experimenting even with the dance, and having resolved on its performance, concentrated upon acquisition all her patience and energies.

The world knows the tale of how easily she accomplished a feat impossible of consummation by any of the operatic "salomes" preceding her. To Mary Garden it was a necessary part of the role, and in her hands it seemed a Bagatelle.

In her Indianapolis concert Miss Garden will be assisted by Gutta Castani, Russian cellist, and Isaac Van Grove, pianist.
