

EDUCATORS OF STATE TO SEEK WORKING COIN

Bend Efforts for Legislation to Make More Effective Operation.

SESSION FOR SATURDAY

Efforts of Indiana educators are turned today to the seventy-second session of the General Assembly to obtain legislation which will relieve the shortage of money for higher educational institutions of the State. The condition of the State's schools was outlined at a banquet held Monday night in the Claypool Hotel, attended by 400 citizens from various parts of the State. A second meeting will be held Saturday in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction when suggested bills for presentation to the Legislature will be discussed.

Representatives from the various teachers' associations, the County Superintendents' Association, the City Superintendents' Association, the Child Welfare Association and the League of Women Voters, will attend the meeting Saturday. It is expected a definite legislative program will be outlined at this meeting, and the persons who attended the meeting Monday night will be expected to lend their efforts to having the bills passed by the General Assembly.

SEVEN INSTITUTIONS ARE REPRESENTED.

Heads of seven of the State's higher educational institutions were present at the meeting in the Claypool Hotel, and the needs of the various schools were definitely set forth. The presidents are: Dr. William Lowe Bryan, Indiana University; Dr. W. E. Stone, Purdue University; Dr. W. W. Parsons, Indiana State Normal; W. P. Dering, Oakland City College; W. A. Mills, Hanover College; L. McIntosh, Wabash; I. J. Good, Indiana Central College; Alfred Hughes, Evansville College; Thomas C. Howe, former president of Butler College.

The talks given by each speaker left no opening for controversy to the fact that Indiana has slipped steadily backward in the last few years in regard to education. The theme of each speaker was that during this time when the State should devote every cent and every minute possible toward the education of its younger citizens, it is falling, and that steps should be taken without delay to halt the backward movement and place Indiana again in the ranks of the foremost educational States of the Union.

It was agreed by those attending the meeting that at least $3,000,000 will be required. This is necessary, they said, if Indiana schools are to compete with the higher educational institutions of Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan and Illinois.

MILLION EACH IS REQUIRED.

Approximately one million dollars each will be required to meet the expenses of Indiana and Purdue Universities, and the Indiana State Normal School will require nearly as much, according to statements of the heads of each school. Heads of those schools not supported by legislative appropriation gave their promise of active support of any program that might be adopted in obtaining relief for Indiana's schools. Forty-one salaries at the Ohio State University are in excess of the highest salary paid at Indiana University, according to a statement of Dr. Bryan. The Indiana University head stated that during his term as president of the institution, ninety-eight professors have left the school, a loss which the institution could not afford to suffer. A continuance of such resignations could result in nothing but deterioration of the faculty, said Dr. Bryan.

Other speakers were Elwood Haynes, the automobile manufacturer of Kokomo; L. C. Huesman, Indianapolis; Mrs. DeMarchus Brown, Indianapolis; Hene Orme, Marion County, and others.

It was predicted and a feeling of confidence prevailed that Governor-elect Warren T. McCray would, on his inauguration, take up the fight for the schools of the State and insist on the adequate appropriation for their maintenance.

EMPLOYEES GET STOCK OFFERING

Oil Concern Offers $12,500,000 on 50-50 Basis.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—A $12,500,000 melon has been set before the 150,000 employees of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana today in the form of an opportunity to acquire that amount of stock on a "fifty-fifty" stock purchasing plan.

Under this plan, as announced by R. W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors, each employee who has been with the company one year or more may subscribe for stock equal to the amount of his annual salary. Payments may be made at the annual rate of 20 percent for five years. The employee pays 50 percent of the price and the company pays the other 50 percent.

The annual pay roll of the company amounts to approximately $25,000,000 a year, which would mean that if all employees buy all the stock they are permitted to buy, the company will be forced to pay out approximately $12,500,000.

Stockholders of the company will be asked to approve the plan on Dec. 9. It is expected that other units of the Standard Oil organization will adopt similar plans.

Taggart Spent $3,825 in Race for Senate

A total of $3,825 was spent by Thomas Taggart, defeated Democratic candidate for United States Senator, during the campaign, according to Mr. Taggart's certified expense account now on file in the county clerk's office. Of that amount Mr. Taggart contributed $3,500 to the Democratic State Central Committee.

stigators desiring to save their friends. The warning was disregarded. Sinn Fein sympathizers took part in the sessions as usual and without a sign of nervousness.

The Liverpool fires and the threat of incendiaries in London was reflected in a great rush for fire insurance. Lloyd's reported an unprecedented demand for policies.

BUSY WITH TORCH IN CITY OF CORK

DUBLIN, Nov. 30.—A fresh wave of incendiaries rolled over southern Ireland today following the orgy of bloodshed near Wilmichael when seventeen cadets of the auxiliary police (black and tan) were ambushed and fifteen of them were killed outright and one fatally wounded. The remaining cadet is missing.

The Sinn Fein Club at Cork was burned to the ground. The Cork fire brigade refused to fight the flames unless given police protection. Fire broke out in the Cork city hall and later a jewelry shop was burned.

A short time after the blaze was extinguished in the city hall another fire was set in the same building, and it was destroyed with a loss estimated at $1,000,000.

Shooting broke out in Cork, while the
