Committee to Ask Poet to Re-nounce War.

MILAN, Dec. 3.—A parliamentary committee has gone from Rome to Florence to attempt to persuade Gabriele D'Annunzio to renounce his declaration of war against Italy. This committee was empowered to enter into "peace negotiations" with D'Annunzio in an effort to induce him to cease resistance against the government troops and the fleet blockading Fiume. Warlike preparations have continued at Fiume for forty-eight hours. D'Annunzio's declaration of war against Italy, unless the Italian government backed down, was to be effective today.

MOVE TO GUARD SENATE AGAINST CABINET DRAFT

Here it will effectively set at rest the charges hurled all over the country during the campaign of a "senatorial oligarchy" running the executive as well as the legislative branches of the Government in case Harding was elected.

Of all the names of Cabinet possibilities that have been mentioned since Nov. 2, there are only two which are considered in Washington virtually certain of appointment.

These are ex-Senator George W. Sutherland of Utah and ex-Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts. Only the posts to which they will be appointed remain in doubt, according to Harding's friends here.

Senator James E. Watson of Indiana went to Philadelphia to confer with Senator Penrose, ostensibly over financial legislation.

Daughterly will leave Washington tonight for Norfolk, where he will meet Senator Harding on his arrival from Panama. Edward B. McLean and Senator Davis Elkins of West Virginia will also go to the port to welcome the Harding party.

LONG LIST OF SYMPTOMS

North Carolina Lady Was Nervous,
Weak and Suffered Greatly,
But Relief Soon Came After She Took Cardui.

Asheville, N. C.—Mrs. J. A. Studer, of 45 Woodrow Avenue, this city, recently made the following statement:

"I was in a very run-down condition after . . . I wasn't able to go. I was nervous, weak and couldn't do my work."

"I felt like, at times, no matter what happened, I couldn't get up a spark of interest."

"I was depressed, blue, and continually on the lookout for something to happen."

"I couldn't sleep, to do any good, and had to force myself to eat when meal time came."

"I suffered some pain in my back and sides, but the worst trouble was weakness and depression."

"I decided to try a tonic. My sister had gotten such fine results from Cardui, I began using it."

"Soon I noticed I would get hungry, and sleep at night, and this, of course, was a great help."

"I grew less nervous. The depression left me and soon I was well and strong."

"I enjoy good health, thanks to Cardui." Ask your druggist about it.

side that comes to life only in the presence of the four walls and you."

"You know him at his worst, not his best, before you sell your soul and become ever afterward his slave. For once you give it to him you can never get it back again—no matter how hard you try."

"A woman only has power—real power—once with a man, and that is when he is madly in love and wants all she's got to give. Once given, the charm is broken—for him the battle is won."

est towns in Indiana—not a drop of evidence anywhere. Two of the investigators already have returned to Indianapolis.

But the black-headed press agenting of the arrival of the Federal men had the effect of waking up some of the local authorities. To be specific, it woke up the county authorities, for the city authorities are still soundly slumbering and are apparently the only ones who do not know the town is in the throes of a sensation.

Judge William A. Bond of the Wayne County Circuit Court ordered an immediate investigation by the grand jury to determine whether all the reports about law violations were true. The grand jury still is in session and has returned a few more or less unimportant indictments. Then there were rumors that officials—meaning city officials—would be indicted. There is no particular indication that this will be done, however.

Immediately after the opening of the investigation prosecuting attorney Freeman began the submission of evidence. He turned his attention almost immediately to the drug stores and there was started a learned investigation into the percentage of alcohol in certain medicines. Real red "licker" and "licker" of the white variety was almost lost sight of. It appears, as a result, that within another week Richmond households will be unable to buy an ounce of flavoring extract.

This is all that has thus far been accomplished. Richmond's position is unfortunate. It has no city administration. This is literally true. Mayor W. W. Zimmerman stays close to his home and admits he knows little, if anything, about what is going on. General dissatisfaction is being expressed and numerous stories are being circulated.

Inquiry was made for the mayor at the City Hall and the visitor was told he could be found at his home, that he only came to his office sometimes in the morning. Mayor Zimmerman, who is a physician, was found at his home.

"I don't know anything about booze in Richmond," he said. "There might be some here, but I don't know. I believe if the police saw any they would bring it in. I don't know anything about the investigation of law violations or whether there were any law violations."

MAYOR TELLS OF HIS ILLNESS.

Having stated what he declared is "everything I know about this business," the mayor began a discussion of an illness which he said he suffered during the war.

"I worked hard during the war and I got 'in bad' physically," he said. "I got so I couldn't sleep. I didn't get any sleep for weeks. Then I saw another doctor and he said I would have to take something. I took some stimulants and other things. I had never used liquor in my life. I kept getting more nervous and after six months the doctor told me to double the dose. Now the papers and the people are criticizing me for doing that."

So Richmond's mayor knows nothing about the booze investigation. The Federal officers, largely as a result of promulgated publicity, apparently have accomplished little. The county grand jury is investigating the alcoholic content of certain patent medicines. And the newspapers are spreading black ink.

That dragging, wearying backache, that to many women regularly suffer from, is quickly eased by a little Sloan's Liniment.

But it is good for all the family. Apply it, without rubbing, for all kinds of aches and pains, from the sharp neuralgic twinge to the dull, tearing ache of rheumatism.

Then there's sciatica, lumbago, sore muscles, stiff joints. Keep a bottle handy, for you never'll know when you will need it.

Largest size is most economical. At all druggists—35c, 70c, $1.40.
