CHAMP TO BE EASY FAVORITE OVER BRENNAN

Physically, Big Fellows Stack Up Even, but Dempsey Carries the Wallop.

BY JACK VIECKO,
International News Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Jack Dempsey and Bill Brennan, who met in a fifteen-round decision bout at Madison Square Garden a week from tomorrow night, are the most evenly matched fighters from a physical standpoint who ever squared away for a championship battle.

Both are rugged, big-boned and wonderfully muscled. Dempsey stands 6 feet 1 1/2 inches, Brennan towers to the same height. The champion weighs 188 to 190 pounds in fighting trim, while the Chicago boy scales 190 in condition.

Dempsey has a reach of seventy-eight inches. Brennan's reach is one inch shorter. In almost all other measurements from chest expansion of forty-five inches to elbow and one-half-inch ankles, the rivals are a stand-off for each other.

The measurement of fighting ability, however, gives Dempsey a decided advantage. Two years ago, in Milwaukee, the cyclonic lad from St. Louis knocked Brennan out in five rounds. That was before he was champion and since that time he has improved to a marked degree, though he was close to his top form nearly a year before he met Jess Willard.

Next Tuesday a week Brennan will get his chance to retaliate. Like Dempsey, he is an improved fighter and he believes he has a good chance to drop the birds with one well-timed punch—get even with Dempsey and annex the world's championship.

As a big majority of fight followers fail to coincide with Brennan in this belief, Champion Dempsey, who is entering a heavy favorite, but Brennan has a chance—the chance of any fighter has of slipping over the edge of a punch.

The rival heavyweights settled down to a week of real work today. Both worked out before big crowds at their training quarters and from now till next Sunday they will keep it at hammer and tong.

Willard predicts that the bout will draw a record house. A gate of $200,000 will surprise the promoter.

Tickets for the fight will range from $3 to $25 and the New York State Boxing Commission, in conjunction with Willard, announced today that extra precautions are being taken to keep the pastebards out of the hands of spectators. Only a limited amount of tickets will be distributed through licensed ticket agencies.

WILLARD HOME IS QUARANTINED
LAWRENCE, Kan., Dec. 6.—The home of Lawrence Willard, heavyweight champion of the world, was today under strict quarantine, when two of his children became ill with diphtheria. The children, a boy and a girl, are said to be seriously sick.

The quarantine will not materially affect Willard's training plans for a bout next March 17 with the winner of the Dempsey-Brennan match, he said.

Mr. Willard's children, the former champion added, "and I will spend most of my time with them. My farm, however, will be brought to all my training here and I'll continue light work."

Amateur Bouts at I. A. C.
See Defeat of Champs;
Orme Mixes in Feature

A pair of champions went down in defeat on the high-class amateur boxing card staged at the Independent Athletic Club Saturday night. Leslie Treber of Marion, State welterweight champion, lost a decision to Frank Sarrar of the I. A. C. and Henry "Red" Edwards of Marion. Treber defeated Sarrar and McCullough defeated Edwards in the final round of the State tournament staged at the I. A. C. last fall.

Leslie Treber, the third champion to perform on the card, won his battle with George Mulholland of the I. A. C. after the judges had seen the bout on an extra round before they were able to hand down a decision.

The real feature of the evening was the Orme-King affair. Both are I. A. C. lightweights. Besides being a strong lad in good kick in either hand, Orme Saturday night proved himself the sharpest boxer on the I. A. C. roster. He had nothing to worry about in his bout with King.

And, with him, both lightweights of the local club, opened the bill with a lively bout, Moran having somewhat the better of the argument in the first four rounds. Thorburn and Curran, I. A. C. welterweights, staged the next match, the decision going to the former. Another scrap between local welterweights, Martin and Bridges, went to Bridges after a split decision.

All bouts were scheduled four-round duration.

Ex-Collegians Challenge
Willis Rowland, manager of the Ex-Collegians, colored football team, desires to match his eleven with the Indianapolis Club, winners over the Ferndale Sunday in the game advertised for the city independent title. The ex-collegians have played and won four games this season and have been scored on and Manager Rowland believes they are entitled to consideration. He suggests the team meet in a post-season match and percentage of the gate be donated to the Community Chest. He can be reached at 42-185.

Wabash Captain

"BUTCH" BURNS.

The Em-Roe basketball team will not be losing time if they keep an eye on Capt. "Butch" Burns of the Wabash College, who when the teams clash on Saturday night will be a factor in the game. "Butch" is the kind of a leader that gets everything out of his men and, at the same time, he does more than his share of the Wabash work, both on defense and offense. He plays the power guard position and is a wonder at bustling up the smartest teamwork, or can shoot a basket from any angle of the court if given half a chance.

The Wabash squad, by the clean-cut 33 to 19 victory over Manchester Saturday night, showed that it is in good shape for early season action and should make the fast independent players step at full speed in their first game here this season.

WIGGINS ENGAGES IN BIG BOUT
TOLEDO, Dec. 6.—Chuck Wiggins of Indianapolis and Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul will clash here tonight in a feature bout over the scheduled twelve-round contest. The scrap is attracting keen interest here and a packed arena is expected.

The trained principals are two of the leading light heavyweight boxers and the winner of tonight's scrap generally will be the recognized champion of the class. Ollie Peckard will referee and the bout will be for a decision. Gibbons, who lost his bout with Jack Edwards of Marion, Treber defeated Sarrar and McCullough defeated Edwards in the final round of the State tournament staged at the I. A. C. last fall.

Wiggins, the third champion to perform on the card, won his battle with George Mulholland of the I. A. C. after the judges had seen the bout on an extra round before they were able to hand down a decision.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 6.—Physically today reported that the Notre Dame star football player, Gipp, is continuing to improve.

RIVERSIDES DISBAND
After defeating the Eastern Outlaws, 19 to 7, in a fast game Sunday the Riverside A. C. eleven disbanded for the season. The Riversides will put a basketball team in the field this season.

Navy vs. Princeton
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 6.—Princeton and the Annapolis midshipmen will clash on the gridiron of Farragut field at the Naval Academy on Oct. 15 next. Announcement to this effect was made today by Commander Douglas L. Howard, director of athletics at the academy.

Alleged Connection of Dubuc With Crooks Is Cause of His Release
TOLEDO, Dec. 6.—Jean Dubuc, manager of the Toledo club in 1920, has been given his unconditional release by Judge Roger Bresnahan, in announcing the release stated it was for the best interest of all concerned. Bresnahan is the chief manager of the Toledo club, a big league caliber to lead the Mud Hens in 1921.

It has been suspected for some time that Dubuc would not return next summer because his name was connected with the recent exposure of crookedness in the 1919 world series.

Because of his connection with the New York Giants at the time, and because of his friendship for Hal Chase and Helme Zimmerman, Jean was the target for the finger of suspicion.

Stallings at Rochester
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 6.—C. T. Chapin, president of the Rochester International League Club, last night announced the sale of the club to George T. Stallings and Walter E. Haggood, former manager and press box manager, respectively, of the Boston Braves.

Stallings and Haggood declared they are alone in the purchase of the Rochester baseball property. Stallings will manage the club and Haggood will sever his connection with the Boston club, will be business manager.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKET GOSSIP

Local high school fives will start in earnest this week on their 1920-21 schedules. Manual and Shortridge each has two games carded and Tech, although playing only one contest, it is with Franklin, last year's State champs, and one of the most formidable contenders for the same honors again this season. The result of this battle will show local fans just where Tech stands in this year's race. The contest will be staged on the local Y. M. C. A. floor Saturday night.

Coach Morrison's Manual goal-getters, refreshed by their overwhelming victory over Columbus Saturday night, will stack into Russellville Wednesday at the Manual gym, and on Friday will go to Seymour for a game with the high school quintet of that place.

Shortridge will take a "young trip" this week up in the northern part of the State. The north sliders will play Logansport Friday night and on the following evening will take on Wabash. The football season just ended has left a big mark on Shortridge to settle with Wabash, and the Blue and White returners are of the opinion that Saturday's game will provide an excellent opportunity to even things up.

The Franklin-Tech game may be said to be one of the big features of the year that will be offered to local fans and Tech followers. Although the Tech toppers have lost every contest played this year, and to the contrary, the results of these early contests worry them. The line-up that will represent Tech will be different from that which has played the games to date. Several football men have been practicing every night with the basketball team.

Frankfort is another team in the northern part of the State that is looking good at this stage, and it will take a speedy appreciation to stop them. To date they are undefeated in their recent victory over Rochester being convincing evidence of their strength. Wingate has a team this year that appears to be going as good as their famous one of last season that won the American championship excitingly in Indiana and along with Cray the Middle West. They will bear a lot of watching this year and many are already picking them as the coming champs. Martinsville and Bloomington also appear unusually strong this year, although they have not looked the class of the above-named ones.
