

CITY TOURNEY AND LEAGUE BOWLING GOSSIP, BASKET-BALL, BILLIARDS AND BOXING NEWS

Eastern Writer Selects Gipp and E. Anderson

International News Service Sports Editor Names Two Notre Dame Stars on All-American Mythical Eleven—Coughlin on Second Team and Kyle of Indiana Is Given Honorable Mention.

By JACK VEICK,
International News Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Football's greatest year! Nineeen-twenty will go down in gridiron annals as such and without exception.

No season in the history of the game has been so colorful. Few seasons that have gone by have developed a more brilliant crop of back players, and never before have the crowds at football classics been as large or public interest in the game as keen as it has been this year.

Football came back in fairly good shape just after the war, but the season of 1919 found its ranks filled with new coaches and players. The period given to the coaches to get talents up to speed and smooth-working elevens was all too short, and as a result the quality of the game suffered.

This year it was different. Coaches and players on solid ground once again and the grand old game came back with greater vigor than ever before. The new style of play—the open game—was seen at its best, and the players who were the best had a chance to shine more brightly than ever.

DIFFERENCE IN CRITICS' OPINIONS.

Picking all-American teams is a ticklish task and the opinions of those who do the picking differ. The selection of one critic or another can be honestly offered for what it is worth in the way of building up a combination of stars.

The elevens herewith presented by the writer have been chosen after careful consideration. Either of these two teams would undoubtedly be the winner. Each would combine experience with

Cobb Still Undecided Over Managing Tigers

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.—Ty Cobb passed through New Orleans yesterday on his way from the Pacific coast to his home in Augusta, Ga. And if he expects to manage the Detroit Tigers next season, Ty was noncommittal. He did not deny that President Navin had offered him the place.

"Sometimes I think that it would be better for me to remain in the ranks until I have played my last game, and then try managing," Ty said. "Other times I am tempted to take hold now. I haven't really reached any decision."

"Our club needs help, up and down, to be a good one. The fans might expect more than any manager could deliver in his first couple of years, and I am afraid it might work out that I couldn't stand them a pennant right off the reel."

Tech Officials Named

The faculty assignments for the basketball season at Tech have been made. Coach Black, who last year turned out the district champion team, has been given the job of coach of the team with P. D. Edwards as assistant. C. H. Cran- dall has been made coach of the second team, and Dale Young, Mile Burgess, Raymond C. E. Teters and H. W. Wilson, coaches of the three City League teams. Archie Eberhart has been appointed general manager of these City Leaguers.

The committee of officials consists of Fred Gorman, Archie Eberhart and Mile Burgess and the committee of awards of Fred Gorman, Buryl Black, Mile Burgess, Dale Young, Charles Wilson and P. D. Edwards.

SPORT GOSSIP AND COMMENT

International victories scored in the yacht races and the Olympic games by America probably will have another mate when the "two Bills" of tents get through in Australia the last of this month.

Olso State, which is seeking a good eastern team to open the new million dollar stadium in 1922, can open relations with the 1920 team.

Naval Academy, it is understood, and Notre Dame can go to the coast for a 20 and 31.

Even in Australia, the experts antedote an American victory and a return to this country of the Davis cup. Both Tilden and Johnston, especially Tilden, are at the top of their game now and it is doubtful if there are any two players in the world who can beat them.

Other Western teams have the luck or the quality of Notre Dame the East will be the best on the prospective big football invasion next year. Since 1909 Notre Dame has played fifteen games in the East, winning eleven, losing three and tying one. Since 1916, the Irish have not lost a game in the East. Yale and West Point are the only teams that beat them previous to 1916, while West Point, Pittsburgh, Penn State,

Players deserving especial mention in addition to the above:

Ends—Kane, Harvard; Harrick, West Virginia; Horner, Penn; Brown, Penn State; Snoddy, Centre; Minns, Cornell.

Tackles—Purcell, Nebraska; Faxon, Harvard; Harman, Pittsburgh; Scott, Wisconsin; Huffman, Ohio State; States, Iowa.

Guards—Tolbert, Harvard; Trett, Ohio State; Brader, Wisconsin; Hellstrom, Illinois.

Centers—Callahan, Princeton; Weaver, Centre; Stein, Pittsburgh; Depler, Illinois.

Quarter Backs—Murray, Princeton; Fitzgerald and Buell, Harvard; Carey, Cornell; Fletcher, Illinois; Workman, Ohio State; Devine, Iowa; Wray, Penn; Brady, Notre Dame.

Half Backs—Hartley, Nebraska; Holman, Cornell; Churchill, Harvard; Walquist, Illinois; Garrity, Princeton; Mohard, Notre Dame; Whittell, Centre; Gilroy, Princeton; Beck, West Virginia; Mayer, Cornell; Barron, Georgia Tech; R. Fletcher, Illinois; Elliott, Wisconsin; G. Devine, Iowa; Aldrich, Yale.

Full Backs—Strauss, Penn; Scheerer, Princeton; Hewitt, Pittsburgh; Kyle, Indiana; Wyna, Notre Dame; Hubka, Nebraska; Roberts, Centre; Sundt, Wisconsin; D. Whiting, Marietta.

superb driving power, strong defensive ability, a knowledge of the new style of play and an abundance of football sense.

Stars among the wingmen and linemen were scarce this year, when compared with the abundant crop of back field men who thrilled crowds all over the country with their remarkable and spectacular playing. But there were quite a few good ends, and plenty of seasoned and highly capable linemen.

Legends of Princeton, E. Anderson of Notre Dame, and the writer of the eleven, with the exception of the two from Cornell, Princeton, and Anderson of Notre Dame, were among the players who pressed the Princeton star closely.

Gipp and E. Anderson are speed, range and endurance. Both are great defensive players; both can get down under pugs and then be waiting to tackle the man who gets out. Both have the habit of forward pass and have the speed to go out and grab many a pass that may not be thrown accurately. At the same time, they are strong and durable, two whom are adepts, and backs who tried to circle their ends this season found that gaining ground around them was well nigh impossible.

And the star of the year, the star in handling passes. The ends named for the second eleven are not far removed from those two in all-round ability.

The backs, Kane, of Princeton and Gulick of Syracuse, are towers of strength in the line. Keck, in addition to being an all-round player, is fast on his feet, for a fast fellow, and sure and sure tackled. He is also an expert place kicker and did most of Princeton's kicking on goals from touchdown.

COUGHLIN OF BEST TACKLES.

Coughlin is a novice tackle of the kind who forces the opposition to give him a wide berth rather than send plays against his position. Like Keck, he is also fast on his feet and a truly wonderful player both on offense and defense. It is possible to score on a fumbled ball in the Pitt-Syracuse game and run half the length of the field for a touch down that saves. Syracuse, from defeat and was beaten in the tie to the other. Other great tackles are Sedgwick of Harvard; Coughlin, the great Notre Dame; Gipp, the crack quarter; and Workman of Ohio State are among the players who pressed the Princeton star closely.

Gipp and E. Anderson are speed, range and endurance. Both are great defensive players; both can get down under pugs and then be waiting to tackle the man who gets out. Both have the habit of forward pass and have the speed to go out and grab many a pass that may not be thrown accurately. At the same time, they are strong and durable, two whom are adepts, and backs who tried to circle their ends this season found that gaining ground around them was well nigh impossible.

And the star of the year, the star in handling passes. The ends named for the second eleven are not far removed from those two in all-round ability.

The backs, Kane, of Princeton and Gulick of Syracuse, are towers of strength in the line. Keck, in addition to being an all-round player, is fast on his feet, for a fast fellow, and sure and sure tackled. He is also an expert place kicker and did most of Princeton's kicking on goals from touchdown.

GULLICK OF BEST TACKLES.

Gullick is a novice tackle of the kind who forces the opposition to give him a wide berth rather than send plays against his position. Like Keck, he is also fast on his feet and a truly wonderful player both on offense and defense. It is possible to score on a fumbled ball in the Pitt-Syracuse game and run half the length of the field for a touch down that saves. Syracuse, from defeat and was beaten in the tie to the other. Other great tackles are Sedgwick of Harvard; Coughlin, the great Notre Dame; Gipp, the crack quarter; and Workman of Ohio State are among the players who pressed the Princeton star closely.

Gipp and E. Anderson are speed, range and endurance. Both are great defensive players; both can get down under pugs and then be waiting to tackle the man who gets out. Both have the habit of forward pass and have the speed to go out and grab many a pass that may not be thrown accurately. At the same time, they are strong and durable, two whom are adepts, and backs who tried to circle their ends this season found that gaining ground around them was well nigh impossible.

And the star of the year, the star in handling passes. The ends named for the second eleven are not far removed from those two in all-round ability.

The backs, Kane, of Princeton and Gulick of Syracuse, are towers of strength in the line. Keck, in addition to being an all-round player, is fast on his feet, for a fast fellow, and sure and sure tackled. He is also an expert place kicker and did most of Princeton's kicking on goals from touchdown.

COUGHLIN OF BEST TACKLES.

Coughlin is a novice tackle of the kind who forces the opposition to give him a wide berth rather than send plays against his position. Like Keck, he is also fast on his feet and a truly wonderful player both on offense and defense. It is possible to score on a fumbled ball in the Pitt-Syracuse game and run half the length of the field for a touch down that saves. Syracuse, from defeat and was beaten in the tie to the other. Other great tackles are Sedgwick of Harvard; Coughlin, the great Notre Dame; Gipp, the crack quarter; and Workman of Ohio State are among the players who pressed the Princeton star closely.

Gipp and E. Anderson are speed, range and endurance. Both are great defensive players; both can get down under pugs and then be waiting to tackle the man who gets out. Both have the habit of forward pass and have the speed to go out and grab many a pass that may not be thrown accurately. At the same time, they are strong and durable, two whom are adepts, and backs who tried to circle their ends this season found that gaining ground around them was well nigh impossible.

And the star of the year, the star in handling passes. The ends named for the second eleven are not far removed from those two in all-round ability.

The backs, Kane, of Princeton and Gulick of Syracuse, are towers of strength in the line. Keck, in addition to being an all-round player, is fast on his feet, for a fast fellow, and sure and sure tackled. He is also an expert place kicker and did most of Princeton's kicking on goals from touchdown.

HOPPE OFF IN LEAD.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Willie Hoppe, 182 billiard champion, is in the lead today in the second annual championship tourney at the Hotel Astor. He is leading one win and has no defeats against him. Weiker Cochran lost to 270 to 400, after defeating Jake Schaefer, 400 to 328. Play was resumed yesterday.

OFFER MADE URBAN.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.—Capt. Luke Urban of the Boston College team has been offered a coaching position at the Hotel Astor.

Georgia Tech have offered the Harvard team the use of the baseball diamond and the gymnasium during its stay at Atlanta, which will be from four to five days, according to plans, and the team will be played with Georgia Tech, University of Georgia and probably Oglethorpe University.

INDIANA DAILY TIMES

Butler and Dental Machines to Clash on Irvington Court
Rival Teams Boast of Strong Line-ups for Annual Scrap Tonight.

BOWLING

TONIGHT'S SCHEDULE.
SINGLES AND DOUBLES.

7-15 p.m.—
Alley—Doubles. Alley—Singles.

6-15 p.m.—Dersch—Singles.

7-15 p.m.—Reynolds—Singles.

8-15 p.m.—Colvin—Singles.

9-15 p.m.—A. Trelit and R. Sargent—Singles.

10-15 p.m.—H. B. Miller and W. Winkler—Singles.

11-15 p.m.—L. Ostheimer and F. Westover—Singles.

12-15 p.m.—Gargin—Singles.

1-15 p.m.—Doyle—Singles.

2-15 p.m.—Dersch—Doubles.

3-15 p.m.—Colvin—Doubles.

4-15 p.m.—Miller—Doubles.

5-15 p.m.—Hornberger—Doubles.

6-15 p.m.—Burke—Doubles.

7-15 p.m.—Kirkhoff—Doubles.

8-15 p.m.—Ochiltree—Doubles.

Tourney Leaders

SINGLES.

Dersch 652

Monroe 629

Reynolds 624

Colvin 618

A. Trelit and R. Sargent 610

H. B. Miller 609

W. Winkler 608

L. Ostheimer and F. Westover 588

Gargin 581

Doyle 577

DOUBLES.

Atkinson-Barmussen 1,102

Dersch-Monroe 1,123

Colvin-Magel 1,109

Miller-Blue 1,105

Hornberger-Horn 1,091

Burke-Horn 1,094

Kirkhoff-Bush 1,091

Ochiltree-Hargit 1,073

Hargit 1,072

Doyle 1,071

Wabash Five Billed to Afford Em-Roes Merry Time Tonight

Crack Players Will Be Seen on 'Y Court in Opposing Line-ups.

NEW DECISION BY COURT IS HELP TO GAME

With Reserve Clause Sustained Work on New Agreement Is Simplified.

TO AID IN DISCIPLINE

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Baseball took a new lease on life today.

The decision of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, reversing a verdict won by the Baltimore Federals and sustaining the reserve clause, is the biggest boost the game has had in years.

As a result of the verdict the work of the joint major and minor league committee, which meets here Saturday to review the government of the game and adopt a national agreement, has been greatly simplified.

"The verdict is going to prove a great boon for the game," said John Heyder, president of the National League, today.

The league, the Blue and White, will be the pivot man. He is a celebrity in baseball, and the game is to be the pre-game favorite.

Everybody knows that without the reserve clause we could not operate.

The reserve clause is a good one, the Blue and White are expected to receive a stiff tussle, although the locals seem to be the pre-game favorite.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the Blue to the line-up.

Local fans will be interested in the addition of the