

TO CONFER OVER JAP CONTENTION

Effort to Keep Jap Cables Brings Grave Problem.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Japan's retention of the island of Yap cables will be the subject of a highly important conference between Acting Secretary of State Norman H. Davis and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee at the capitol today, it was announced by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee.

Behind Senator Lodge's announcement there lurks a delicate situation fraught with grave possibilities relative to the present and future relations between the United States and Japan.

While neither Lodge nor Davis would discuss the situation resulting from Japan's insistence that she be permitted to retain two cables running from the island of Yap, which she seized from Germany at the outset of the World War, it was learned authoritatively that both the State Department and members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee regard it as extremely grave.

When Japan took over the cables as "a war measure" one of them ran to Shanghai and the other to the Celebes. Since then Japan has diverted the first cable so that it now runs to Tokyo, as well as to Shanghai.

Considerable correspondence has passed between the State Department and Japan regarding her avowed purpose to hold on to the cables as part of her spoils of the war.

New Harmony Colony History Presented

Early history of the socialist community at New Harmony under Robert Owen and later under his son, Robert Dale Owen, was the subject of an address at a meeting of the Contemporary Club in the auditorium of the public library last night by Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedeker of Hempstead, L. I., a great-granddaughter of Robert Owen.

Excerpts from her novel, "Beth Way," dealing with the early life of the Owen community were read by Mrs. Snedeker, who declared the four principles on which the colony was founded were those of communal property, of equal pay for all work, of education at public cost and of freedom of speech.

Find Hooch Supply in Salvation Hotel

BILLINGS, Mont., Dec. 10.—Even the Salvation Army Hotel is not immune from the ramifications of local "boot-legging" activities.

A large stock of "moonshine" liquor was recently discovered by Adjutant Chase in the Salvation Hotel. Jack Hurlbert, a "transient," is being held on charges of having placed the illicit liquor under a bed he occupied.

Choir Boy Slayer Protests Innocence as He Meets Death

Chicago Youth Hanged on 19th Birthday for Slaying Saloon Keeper.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Nick Viana, the choir boy-murderer went to his death here today on his nineteenth birthday, without showing a trace of fear and protesting his innocence. He was hanged for participating in the murder of Andrew Bowman, a saloon keeper.

"It is no disgrace to die for my father, mother and sisters," the lad said, as the noose was adjusted. Viana declared that while he did not do the shooting, he would not tell who did, because of threats made against his family's lives if he turned State's witness.

The trap was sprung at 8:30. His neck was broken and he was pronounced dead five minutes later. Strong efforts had been made by clubs and social workers to save the boy's life. Jane Addams and other women protested, the hanging because of his youth.

The boy sang his last song for his mother when she visited him in the death cell shortly before midnight. As the mother parted from her son for the last time, she asked him to sing for her once more. The boy's voice, steady and clear, rang through the long corridors of the jail with Kipling's "Mother's Mine."

The aged and withered Sicilian mother held her son closely in her arms as he sang:

"If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Oh, mother o' mine, mother o' mine,
I know whose love would follow me still,
Oh, mother o' mine, mother o' mine,
Scores of relatives and friends who crowded the corridor and the jail courtyard, wept.

Sicilian madonnas with flaming shawls, their young ones tugging at their skirts, wailed.

5 ELECTROCUTED AT SING SING

OSSENING, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Sobbing relatives and a small crowd of morbidly curious gathered in front of the grim gates of Sing Sing early today to hear the details of how five criminals died the death decreed by law. Here are the last words of each:

Joseph ("Onions") Usoroff, 23—"Gentlemen, you see an innocent man die tonight. Warden, I thank you."

Howard Baker—"Well, boys, goodbye. Charles McLaughlin—"Well, goodbye, boys. God bless you all. I got the old snail on my face yet. A little tighter, please." (The last remark was addressed to the men strapping him to the death chair.)

Joseph Milano—"Goodbye, boys, I'm through."

James P. ("Bull") Cassidy—"I know I done wrong in every shape and form, and I pay for it now. Hello, warden, back there! I see you, old timer."

All five were convicted of murder.

ARRESTS FOLLOW DINNER PARTY

Police Connect Six Persons With Child Neglect Case.

A dinner, given by Mrs. Mary Rhine, 2333 North Illinois street, was followed by the arrest of six persons last night, when Lieutenants Jones and Woolley investigated what the police describe as "a drunken party."

Trouble is said to have broken when a woman hit Dorothy Rhine, 6, daughter of Mrs. Mary Rhine, and one of the neighbors, tiring of the "noise," called police headquarters.

Five of those arrested are charged with contributing to the neglect of a child, while Mrs. Rhine is charged with neglect of her child. The little girl was taken to the detention home and is being cared for by the matron.

The dinner party was given in honor of John Dunbar and a woman, the police say, he represented as being his wife. Liquid refreshments are alleged to have played an important part in the entertainment.

When the police arrived they found only Mrs. Rhine and a man giving his name as Ernest Hartrados, 31, who, when arrested, said he was a cook at Ft. Harrison. Both were arrested and the child was taken away by the police.

The same officers then visited a residence at 308 West Maryland street and arrested Harley Spiller, 28; Evelyn Spiller, 31; Fern Castle, 28, and John Dunbar, 35, all of whom are alleged to have been present at the "party."

U. S. MAY BECOME LEADER ON SEAS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The United States will be the major naval power in the world in 1925 unless Great Britain makes changes in her naval program, Secretary of Navy Daniels said today, commenting on press dispatches that Great Britain has deferred her program of capital ship construction until the entire question of naval strength is settled.

Secretary Daniels stated he was interested in reported agitation in England for a navy equal to the combined strength of the United States and Japanese navies. He said he would discuss this question with the House naval affairs committee next week, when he appears to take up the question of the American naval program.

Former Kaiser's Keep May Be Cut Short

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—The German Government is not disposed to continue its payments for the upkeep of the former Kaiser, it declared today.

The Reichstag stated the government has received protests from France and Great Britain on these expenditures, but has replied that the money must be considered as payment on private property.

California Woman Professor Tells Value of Prunes

Declares Fruit Is Cheap and Contains 60 Per Cent Sugar.

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 10.—Poor old prune, cursed by the regular boarder, long held out as the toothsome dessert by the boarding house keeper, punned about by the writers and made a joke of wherever its name is heard, it is still some fruit, according to Mrs. Agnes Fay Morgan, associate professor of household science at the University of California.

In a letter to Mrs. Robert J. Graham, market chairman of the Berkeley State Housewives' League, Mrs. Morgan puts the prune in a dress suit and he looks like a different fellow. She says:

"Prunes are a valuable addition to the diet for a number of reasons. In the dried state they furnish an economical source of energy, since they may contain as much as 60 to 85 per cent of sugar. They compare favorably with other carbohydrate-rich foods, as may be seen from the following brief statement of the costs and amounts of various foods required to provide the same quantity of energy, 1,100 calories, as is furnished by one pound of dried prunes.

"Prunes at 14 cents a pound, one pound is equal to:

"Fresh peaches at 10 cents a pound, seven pounds, costing 70 cents.

"Canned peaches at 20 cents a pound, five pounds, costing 100 cents.

"Oranges, at 70 cents a dozen, one dozen, costing 70 cents.

"Cranberries at 15 cents a pound, five pounds, costing 75 cents.

"Apples at 5 cents a pound, four pounds, costing 20 cents.

"Prunes are similar in most essentials to the other fruits listed, and the comparison of the economy secured by their use is therefore justifiable. The list might be extended to include other fruits, and such vegetables as eggplant, squash, lettuce, pumpkin, cucumber, asparagus, carrots, etc.

"The use of a reasonable amount in the dietary can be recommended for hygienic as well as economic reasons."

103 Navy Recruits in Week, Says Lieut. Orr

Lieut. Thomas E. Orr, officer in charge of navy recruiting for Indiana, reports one hundred and three men accepted for the navy in the week ending Dec. 8. About one-half of the number were from Indianapolis, and the remainder from the rest of the State.

This establishes a new high record for Indiana. Lieutenant Orr states that the greatest need of the navy now is ex-navy men to train the new recruits, and that the opportunities offered at this time to ex-navy men are especially attractive.

SKULL FRACTURED WHEN HIT BY AUTO

Woman, Believed to Be From Anderson, Seriously Hurt.

Mary Wilkerson, believed to live in Anderson, is in a critical condition at the City Hospital today as a result of suffering a fractured skull. She was struck by an automobile driven by Walter Whitney, 2336 North Pennsylvania street, last night, at Meridian and Ohio streets.

A bank book found in the woman's clothes indicated she lived at Anderson. When a street car struck an automobile at Meridian and Minnesota streets last night, five persons were injured.

There were eight persons in the automobile. George Northern, 18, of 1923 West Ohio street, driver of the automobile, was cut about the face. Mrs. Elsie Radar was seriously injured. Charles Northern, 18, and Martha Northern, 3, were cut and bruised, and Mrs. Viola Northern was severely bruised. All lived at the West Ohio street address. R. G. Daugherty, 2028 East Maryland street, was motorman of the street car that hit the automobile.

Charles Phillips, 230 South Noble street, tried to get off of a street car at Noble and Washington street and fell. His face was bruised and cut, but he was not seriously injured.

Girl, Won Through Wave, Seeks Lover

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—A Northwest-ern co-ed who refuses to reveal her name appealed to newspapers here today to help her find her affinity, "M. J."

"M. J." met her in a movie. The co-ed's French heel caught on a nail and was ripped off and "M. J." sitting behind her, offered to take the shoe out to be fixed while she watched the show. Before the picture was ended he returned with the shoe, then disappeared.

Miss Hazel Allbaugh, another co-ed, says the romantic co-ed has communicated with her affinity by thought waves.

"She says the comic courtship reached the stage where he proposed and she accepted," said Miss Allbaugh, "but she doesn't know where to find him and they can't give each other their names and addresses."

The initials M. J. were obtained from a fortune teller, Miss Allbaugh said.

Negro, Struck by Taxi, Taken to Hospital

John Holmes, 75, a negro, who was so seriously injured that he could not tell his name, was brought to the Terminal drug store, Illinois and Market streets, last night by a taxi driver who said he found the man after some one hit him with an automobile.

The taxi driver did not give his name and no person could be found who knew where the accident occurred. Holmes was taken to the City Hospital.

MAY NOT SEE IRELAND SOON

Widow and Sister of Lord Mayor Fear British Order.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Fear that the British authorities will not permit the return to Ireland of Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney and Miss Mary MacSwiney, wife and sister of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, is expressed by Miss MacSwiney.

She and Mrs. MacSwiney have testified regarding Irish conditions and the death of Terence MacSwiney before the unofficial commission on conditions in Ireland.

A protest to British labor on the refusal of British authorities here to issue passports to members of the commission who desired to visit Ireland and investigate conditions, was called by William P. Adamson, London, chairman of the Labor party in the House of Commons, by James P. Mander, a member of the commission, and president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor.

Four members of the Royal Irish constabulary will testify before the commission. It was expected that Mrs. T. Murphy of New York, who said she was a "personal victim of black and tans" in Ireland last summer, also will testify.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 9.—Joseph Daily, a homesteader, failed in his attempt at suicide but succeeded in crippling himself for life. He placed the muzzle directly over his heart but lost his nerve as he yanked the string, the charge of shot nearly blowing his left arm and shoulder from his body.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Sals if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Most forms of acid, which excite the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of swelling, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Sals from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Sals is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.
