

MAN UNMOVED BY TESTIMONY

Clinton Man Remains Cool as Jury Hears Evidence.

Special to The Times.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 11.—The main trial, restful and unexcited, Frank McDonald of Clinton, who is on trial here for the killing of Amanda Rayce, also of Clinton, sat through the first day of the trial Friday, eating candy and chewing gum, indifferent of what the outcome of the trial might bring him.

McDonald is charged in the first degree of killing three runaways into the body of Mrs. Rayce, and then stabbing her eight times with a knife, in the shoulder and back, on March 1, 1919. Only once did he show any signs of nervousness. When the gun with which he did the killing was submitted as evidence, he moved uncomfortably in his chair and then gazed blankly at the floor.

His aged mother sat by him throughout the day, seemingly to be engaged in deep thinking. His father who sat on the other side of him, paid particular attention to the testimony of the State's witnesses.

One of the State's star witnesses, Mrs. Anna Sodova, daughter of the murdered woman, was the first to take the stand. She testified that she saw McDonald shoot the woman, and was held over until the afternoon session, at which time she told of the relations of her mother with that of the slayer and the part of the shooting that she witnessed.

Dr. C. M. Ragin, coroner of Vermillion County, was the next witness for the State to take the stand, who stated that he found the body of the murdered woman on a bed in a pool of blood with her clothing torn and her waist buried about the chest. He said three bullets were extracted from the body. On investigation he found that one bullet was fired from in front and two from the rear. Right stab wounds were found, five in the shoulder, two in the left arm and one in the back.

Miss Jenkins, the young woman who captured McDonald, told of the chase he made after McDonald.

The defense has entered a plea of temporary insanity. A man court reporter has been substituted for a woman and women and children will be barred from the courtroom.

After more than 150 names, one of which was a woman, had been selected, and five days had elapsed since the first call of the juryman, twelve men were finally selected.

Court will convene again Monday.

Seance in Light at English's Tomorrow

A spiritualistic seance on an open, well lighted stage is a distinct novelty, and yet this is what is promised by Dr. Alex. Hume, a cosmopolitan exponent of spiritualism, who will appear at English's this Sunday night. In connection with the seance it is said the eminent medium will give demonstrations of his spiritualistic theories in broad light. The problem of piercing in any way the veil that separates the natural from the spiritual world is one that persists in forcing itself upon man's attention. Dr. Hume is said to have been successful in Philadelphia and other cities in demonstrating his unusual powers. He is said to be a pastmaster of supernatural visions, slate writing, remarkable tests of the human mind. A test which has caused a great deal of comment is called "Katie King" materialization and similar phenomena.
