

GOODRICH AND M'CRAY GUESTS MADISON C. OF C.

Governor-Elect to Attend Meeting of Republican Members of Assembly Here.

COMMITTEEMEN NAMED

Governor-elect Warren T. McCray and Governor James P. Goodrich are in Madison today as guests of the Madison Chapter of Commerce. During their visit they expected to inspect the South-eastern Hospital for the Insane at Madison. They were accompanied by Madison residents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson and John W. Holtzman.

The Indianapolis party was met by a reception committee consisting of James Scott, Ben H. Doddridge, W. P. Miller and Joseph L. Schofield, members of the Madison Rotary Club. Escorted by citizens of Madison, the party was to also visit the new State park, Clifty Falls, and were to be guests tonight at a banquet in commemoration of the acquisition of the park by the State. The Rotary Club will have charge of the banquet.

Mr. McCray will return to Indianapolis in time for the meeting tomorrow of the Republican members of the Legislature. The meeting has been called by the Governor-elect and by the Republican State Committee. Sessions will be held in the morning and afternoon. One of the sessions will be addressed by Mr. McCray.

NO PROGRAM FOR MEETING.
No program has been laid down for the meeting, officials of the State committee explaining that they merely issued the call as a method of meeting the desires of members of the assembly who wished to get together.

It is certain that candidates for the speakership of the House of Representatives and for president pro-tem of the Senate will be active in the meeting and it is possible that some idea of their relative chances may be obtained. Members of the assembly are expected to discuss policies to be pursued when the Legislature meets next month.

CROTHERSVILLE MAN ON COMMITTEE.
Mr. McCray has announced the appointment of an additional member of his committee named for the purpose of investigating educational needs and reporting to the assembly. He is Representative Sherman Hall, Democrat, of Crothersville.

Mother and Twins Saved by Operation

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—A Caesarian operation performed in the Washington Park Hospital Monday saved the lives of a mother and a pair of twins. The mother is Mrs. Edward J. Mason of 1212 East Seventy-second street. Dr. Richard Singer, who operated, said one of the twins, a girl, weighed eight pounds, and the other, a boy, five pounds six ounces. The Masons have four other children. Twins have been born in the families of both the father and mother.

Ah, Smiths Are There!

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The "well known Smiths" have regained their numerical supremacy in New York nomenclature, it is revealed by the city's new directory issued today. Fifty-two columns of Smiths, with about 120 names to a column, are listed.

Bakin' Poor Business

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 14.—The three largest bakeries here will make profits in 1920 amounting approximately to 20, 23 and 10.5 per cent on their respective investments, according to Alvin C. Reis, investigator for the State market commission, who submitted a report dealing with local bread prices to the common council today.

Shot Puts Speed Into 'Peeping Tom'

Morton E. Lindamood, a contractor, living at 2231 North Olney street, gave a "peeping Tom" a surprise last night. Lindamood heard a noise at a window and, securing his revolver, went outside of the house and fired one shot at the prowler. A second shot was not necessary, for the prowler ran so fast that he was out of range.

Coal prices have been slashed from $1 to $3 per ton here. Improved car movement and better terms at the mines are given as the cause.

Allen to Continue in Junior Office

The appointment of F. Don Allen to continue as secretary of the Indianapolis Junior Chamber was announced today by Mr. McCray and returned to Indianapolis in time for the meeting tomorrow of the Republican members of the Legislature.

The secretaryship is the only office in the Junior Chamber, aside from honorary offices, that is appointive.

Rob Window Washer of $1,800 and Diamond

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 14.—"The roll contained $1,800 in twenties and fifties," said Charles Roth, a window washer, to the assistant chief of police, in describing his meeting with three sportily-dressed men here. One of them flashed a pistol in his face while the others rifled his pockets. Besides the money, a $140 diamond ring was extracted from the clothing of the window washer.
