

RETURN OF SEAL LETTERS ASKED

Purchasers' Replies, Delayed by Mail Rush.

Indianapolis citizens have been urged to return their Christmas Seal letters to the Christmas Seal headquarters, in the Pythian building, in a statement issued by the 1920 seals commission. In former years experience has shown that costly methods of following up seal letters, which by inadvertence had not been returned, might be done away with if the general public were informed that the Anti-Tuberculosis Association could save much money for health work if those holding letters would return them with seal purchases prior to the Christmas postal rush. The commission's statement urged that all citizens who have not answered their Christmas Seal letters should make an effort to do so before next week.

A steady stream of large and small seal purchases is coming in to seal headquarters, but the number of letters being returned by the public generally is less than last year. If costly follow-up letters are used, some of the funds of the Tuberculosis Association will be diverted from health work, according to the statement, and officers of the tuberculosis organization hope this will not be necessary to any large degree this year.

Large contributors to the seal and health bond campaign have continued to raise the totals. The American Central Life Insurance Company, following its custom of long standing, has purchased 10,000 seals.

Pentagon lodge, No. 564, F. and A. M., acting on the advice of Dr. Clark E. Day, the new health chairman of the lodge, decided unanimously at a recent business meeting to purchase 10,000 seals, and the purchase has been made.

The Indianapolis Street Railway Company sent in a check for $25 for a health bond of that amount. The Mooney-Mueller-Ward Company, which always has made substantial contribution to the seal, purchased 5,000 seals for its Christmas mail. The Cole Motor Car Company, Bass, Knawitson & Graham and other companies have purchased substantial amounts of the little holiday stickers.

Man Is Run Over by Moving House

CHUGWATER, Wyo., Dec. 17.—Fred Royal, 45, sustained serious injuries here when he was run over by a four-room house.

The building, being transported across town on wheels, ran over Royal when the latter stumbled as he was crossing the street in front of the structure. It was necessary to "jack" the house up in order to extricate Royal.
