'Squeals' on Pals
Who Took Money

Special to The Times.
RUSHVILLE, Ind., Dec. 15.—Prosecutor Albert Stevens has announced that affidavits had been filed in City Court against thirty men who were named in a confession of John G. Hokey, an agent here for the traction company, who lost $375 in gambling at a soft drink parlor Sunday afternoon.
Hokey confessed to the officials of stealing the money from the cash drawer and losing it in games, and in turn told on thirty men who were at the place and had a part in the games. Hokey is held on two charges, one for embezzlement and one for grand larceny. Of the thirty affidavits filed in Police Court the following have been arrested, charged with gambling, and were given a hearing today: Charley Sorrell, Albert Pea, John Beale, Jerome Garon, Charley Perkins, William Bennett, Chase Bennett, Leslie Downey, Fred Jones, Albert Sorrell and Gordon Bennett.

HOW AN EDITOR SLEEPS.
Here is a remedy for sleeplessness that is declared by a newspaper editor to have never failed him: He starts thinking of all the words he can remember that begin with A. When he has exhausted the A's he starts on the B's, and so on. At first he generally reaches the ninth and even tenth letters before being rewarded, but now he has not completed the A's before he is sleeping as soundly as a two-year-old.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

To be Moseley believes his fine bound pup is going to make a splendid varmint dog, as he trod a kitten on a fence-post this morning.

Slim Pickens has a new store shirt, and is preparing to don it as soon as he can get all the little pins out of it.

TREAT 'EM RIGHT

Do you ever think what important work your teeth perform? How are you treating them? Do you give them the frequent "overhauling" and prompt repairs of breaks or damage than an auto owner gives his car?
Haden't you better bring them to us this week for a careful and thorough cleaning? The accumulation of tartar down by your gums, or under the gum edges is what "paves the way" for the dreaded pyorrhea. Your brush can't remove this tartar but we can. Our charges for cleaning teeth are very reasonable.
