

INVISIBLE GUEST APPEAL STRONG

First Friends Sunday School
Boosts Relief Fund.

Members of the Sunday school class of the First Friends Church have provided for the entertainment of forty invisible guests at their holiday tables through the collection taken for the European Relief Council. This sum represents the gift of the children of the Sunday school to the starving children of Europe.

Albert Spicely and mother, Mrs. Laura B. Spicely, of 515 West Vermont street, have arranged for the entertainment of six invisible guests. Mr. Spicely turned over to headquarters a $50 Liberty bond, with cash to make it worth face value.

Mrs. Spicely indorsed to the fund the $5 Christmas gift which the Masonic Order gives to the widows of former members.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Beyer, 227 North Capital avenue, sent $20, saying they wished to invite two invisible guests.

Fails to Reach Spirit of Husband; Ends Life

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The investigation into the death of Mrs. Penelope Lee, widow of Dr. John A. Lee, noted yesterday on the sands at Long Beach, N. Y., had about ended today. The authorities were firm in the belief that the woman had committed suicide because of grief over her husband's death. It is thought she took poison. The contents of her viscera will be analyzed. Friends declared that Mrs. Lee had made repeated efforts to communicate with the spirit of her husband. Her failure to reach him is believed by her friends to have caused her to take her own life.

The Truth About Indianapolis

IN THE forty-one square miles which the city of Indianapolis covers there are 314,149 persons. Their occupations are diversified, their interests varied, but their one desire is to see Indianapolis develop. Often you have heard—"I didn't know this or that industry was in Indianapolis"—or "I never before realized that Indianapolis stores ranked so high in comparison with those in the larger cities." We have grown so fast in the last ten years that we have lost touch with the things about us.

We need an inventory of Indianapolis. And this is just what the Fletcher-American National Bank is going to do for you. Each Wednesday we will give you a compact, frank and interesting sketch of the city's attainments in industry, civics and merchandising. You may be surprised to know how high up the ladder of progress Indianapolis has already climbed.
