

SLAIN CROESUS' CONSORT TO WAR

months or even years of battling in the courts. This element Clara Smith Hamon specifies as the "missing will."

When the estate of the oil magnate and politician was adjusted in Oklahoma and Texas recently, it was announced that Mr. Hamon had died without leaving a will. But hear what Clara Smith Hamon said to me:

"There was positively a will. I believe it still exists. I am trying to convince myself positively that it is going to be found."

The Hamon estate, it is estimated, is valued at more than $15,000,000. If the woman's suspicions are correct and the will is found and made to stand in court she will become possessed of a fortune of something like $4,000,000.

WALKED THROUGH HELL FOR YEARS.

"It's not myself that I am thinking of," she said. "It's of my family. I've walked through hell for ten years with only an occasional glimpse of earthly peace. I guess I could continue on like this were it necessary. We become insured to suffering."

"But father, mother and Jimmy, they at least are entitled to something of what I helped to make—the fortune of Jake Hamon."

If these sentences suggest a hard-mouthed mercenary woman, then the writer is not fulfilling his obligations as a reporter.

For the woman spoke softly, pitifully. She wept when she mentioned the aged father and mother, waiting, praying in their El Paso home and her 19-year-old brother sitting beside us in the park.

Pig Found in Park

A pig, which was not a "blind pig," was discovered in Brookside park last night. The pig was white and weighed thirty-five pounds. H. Melvin, 2017 Massachusetts avenue, found the pig, took it home and telephoned the police that the owner could have it by calling at his house.

ESCAPES POMP TO MOURN AT GRAVE

Queen of Greece Heaps Flowers on Bier of Son.

ATHENS, Dec. 22.—The pomp and grandeur of a triumphal return to rule in Greece were forgotten momentarily here when a heart-broken mother wept over the grave of a favorite son.

Queen Sophie was the mother. Even while delirious crowds swarmed about her carriage, giving every sign of joy at her return, the queen's mind appeared elsewhere. At her first opportunity she and the King visited Tatol burial ground to heap wreaths and flowers on the grave of their son, Alexander, late King of Greece.

The King announced he will go to Smyrna within a fortnight to assume command of the Army. He has promised the public in a speech at the palace that he will continue the expansionist program and protect the redeemed and liberated territories.

Ask Disbarment of Lafayette Lawyer

Special to The Times. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 22.—A committee of lawyers in the Superior Court here Tuesday recommended that I. A. E. DeMers be disbarred from practice here and that proceedings be instituted against him.

DeMers, it is charged by the investigating committee, has been guilty of unprofessional practices. He has been practicing about a year and was formerly a cook.

DUNKIRK OIL FIELD ACTIVE.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Dec. 22.—Further activity will be seen in the oil field north of Dunkirk within the next two weeks. A Cincinnati company is to bring three rigs into the field. Considerable activity is on there and several good wells have been brought in.
