Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Addison will entertain tonight with a bridal dinner at their home, 1835 North Talbot avenue, in honor of their daughter, Miss Ruby Addison, and Leon E. Harker of Dover, Ohio, whose marriage will take place tomorrow at the home of the bride. The guests will include Miss Louise Gottlieb, who is to be Miss Addison's only attendant; Ralph G. Harker of Dover, Ohio, brother of the bridegroom, who is to act as best man; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Harker, Miss Beulah Morgan from Dover, and James Riley Small of Chicago.

Mrs. Jessie Potter of Detroit is the guest of Mrs. Carl Dow, 4335 North Illinois street.

The Christmas party of the New Century Club is to be held tonight in the home of Mrs. Melville L. Moon, 2402 North Talbot avenue.

Charles E. Rush, city librarian, and Miss Carrie E. S. Scott, supervisor of children's work in the Indianapolis Public Libraries, have gone to Chicago to attend the regular mid-winter session of the American Library Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Brayton of Atlanta, Ga., are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lemon, 1115 North New Jersey street.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wiegand, 133 East Nineteenth street, departed yesterday for California, where they will remain during the winter.

Mrs. Irma Houser and daughter, Juliet, are passing the holidays with Mrs. Houser's mother, Mrs. J. L. Straub, in Evansville.

Mrs. Edward Geis, 807 East Sixteenth street, is passing the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Grace Reining of Chicago.

Mrs. Homer L. Cook, 3346 Washington boulevard, will be hostess for the Mystic Tie Club meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Allen T. Fleming, 1509 West Twenty-Sixth street, will receive informally tomorrow afternoon for her daughter, Mrs. John H. Williford, whose marriage took place Monday. A matinee party for Mrs. Williford is to be given Friday by Mrs. E. P. Brennan.

The Christmas party of the Writers' Club was held in the home of Mrs. S. E. Perkins, 1011 North Pennsylvania street, last night. Miss Pauline Cornich sang a group of songs written by Mrs. Cord Young Wiles, including "Sing Ho, A Merry Christmas," "My Dolly Hung Her Stocking Up," and "A Christmas Wish." Wiles is a member of the organization. George E. Wysong, columnist, accompanied by Miss Ruth Schaefer, played several numbers, and original Christmas stories were read by Mrs. F. L. Dyer, Mrs. George Scribner and Miss Sue Howe. The hostess was of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Wanda Feldman of Dayton, Ohio; Miss Estelle Hudson, Miss Mabel Cosler and Miss Marion McGarron of Chicago; Miss Rita Ball of Dayton, Ohio; Dr. Kyle Mayhall of Edinburg, Ind.; and William Schilke of Cleveland. The chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Stutz, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Stout, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stutz, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roehler.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Efronymson, 1072 Park avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter Esther to Joseph Baernkopf of New York City, which was solemnized quietly last night. Mr. and Mrs. Baernkopf have gone on an Eastern trip and will be at home after Feb. 1 in New York City.

Alumni and active members of the Masons Club of the Emerson Manual Training High School gave a holiday dance in the gymnasium of the school last evening. Christmas greens, programs and favors were all in keeping with the Christmas season. The chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. E. Kemper McComb, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Morrison, and Mrs. Idie Rehm.

Several hundred guests attended the Christmas ball given last night in the Riley room of the Clarendon Hotel by the local Pan-Hellenic Association for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the organization. Mrs. A. R. Craven, president of the club, directed the arrangements assisted by Mrs. James M. Murray, Mrs. Donald U. Bridge, Miss Cleo Frazer, Miss Bertha Loring, Mrs. R. W. Rawlings, Miss Edith Harshman, Mrs. F. C. Kelle, Mrs. F. V. Paris, Mrs. Walter Palmer, Miss Helen Trent, and Mrs. Raymond Anderson.

Vehicle License Case Is Sent to Danville

A change of venue has been granted in the injunction case of the State of Indiana against William S. Frye, transfer man, in which the State seeks to restrain Frye from operating motor trucks in this county until certain license fees under the motor vehicle law are paid. The case will be heard in the Hendricks Circuit Court at Danville, Ind., the change having been taken from Judge Harry Chamberlin.

Hoosier's Case Before Governor of Georgia

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 29.—Governor Hugh M. Dorsey today has under consideration an application for the extradition of Felix Miller, a young man just released from the Federal prison, wanted in Indiana, where he is charged with violating a parole from the Indiana State prison.

Miller's attorney contends that he was forcibly removed from Indiana to the Federal prison here, therefore he did not violate his parole.

S. C. Vial is here as an agent to carry Miller back to Indiana.

Christian greens, California pepper berries, Southern smax and floor bassinets of distinctive were effectively arranged throughout the Woman's Department Clubhouse last night, making a gay background for the dancing party given by Miss Emmiebell Stutz, Miss Amy Irene Smith and Miss Helen Cosette Smith.

Among the guests were Miss Emily Blodget and Miss Sue Howe. The hostess was Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

(Note—Each of these household problems has been worked out by the author, who has not only taken a course in scientific housewifery and dietetics at Columbia University, and written and edited women's news papers and magazines, but is a practical housekeeper for real but is a practical housekeeper for real.)

1. Is there any other instance of seedlessness in fruits as a result of cultivation beside that of the naval orange? 2. What is the best way to test a cake? 3. What is the best way to label jars in which food materials are kept? (These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.)

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. Turkeys were probably first so called in England under the popular mistaken idea that they were imported from Turkey, though, as a matter of fact, they were introduced from North America. 2. Some people prefer chickens, turkeys, etc., cooked without stuffing, which draws

What to Do With That Money

Buy a Corduroy Robe

Now that you didn't receive a corduroy robe for Christmas, there's nothing left to do but come down and buy one yourself. They are so inexpensive that but 95¢ added to the five dollar bill Uncle George gave you will sum up the entire outlay.

These corduroy robes are in the coat and straightline styles with two pockets, and large collars and revers. The colors are rose, Copenhagen blue and wisteria. Only $5.95—special.

—Ayres—Negligee section, third floor.

assure mother that Baby Dimples is still warm and cozy though tumbling about in the jolly new snow.

Fleece lined jersey leggings, button up warmly about the waist and for every day wear are in brown and black. White leggings are reserved for outings when tots are the cunningest. The sizes include from 2 to 6 years and are priced, $1.50.

Knitted leggings are chumby and not too heavy to be burdensome. The plain knit are priced at $2.25; those of the better lynx knit at $3.00; while the hand knit leggings are marked at $3.50. All are in the white. —Ayres—Children's store, fifth floor.

Two New Candies

Two Delicious Confections

Small Blacks—A Man's Candy! and women like them, too. They are a hard candy with a delicious coffee flavor—each piece wrapped separately.

Small packages at 12¢

In medium size cans, 60¢

In large cans, $1.20

In a lot of Indianapolis business offices you'll find a can of "Small Blacks."

MILK CHOCOLATE, BY THE POUND

Put up in 1/4-pound bags, at 15¢

It's as fine milk chocolate as is made. If you like chocolate—you'll "fall" for this.

—Ayres—Candy, street floor.

Aprons!

A Reduced-Price Sale

There's one fine group of sprightly, serviceable models, reduced now to $1.69, which is very little for these aprons; we claim to know.

Included are some gingham in fine plaids and a perfectly splendid quality of percale ones in just the right sort of printings.

As to style—an apron's first duty being to protect the frock beneath, what more can we say in praise of these than to add that they are made (c)overall!
