

CITY OFFICES PREPARE FOR LICENSE RUSH

New Permits Will Not Be Granted Until Monday.

37 KINDS ARE ISSUED

Preparations for the annual rush of citizens to procure city licenses, due to be renewed for the year 1921 have been completed at the office of City Controller Robert H. Bryson.

In view of the fact that tomorrow is a legal holiday, followed by Sunday, the controller's office will not start issuing the new licenses until Monday morning. It was announced by John Brennan, deputy city controller, in charge of the license division. The rush is expected to last for several days, since it will be impossible to issue all the permits to the thousands of applicants in a shorter time.

CHIEF CLASSES ARE VEHICLES

The city issues thirty-seven kinds of licenses. The chief classes are for motor truck and horse-drawn vehicles. During 1920 4,603 motor truck licenses have been issued. The number issued for each class of truck is as follows: Under one ton, 2,650; under two and more than one ton, 68; under three and more than two tons, 118; under four and more than three tons, 72, and under five and more than four tons, 25.

To owners of one-horse vehicles 2,926 licenses were issued this year; for two-horse vehicles, 1,548; for taxis and jitneys, 611, and for push carts, 138. A total of 5,221 licenses were issued in this category.

The licenses which must be renewed Monday and the price of each are as follows:

Milk, $2; restaurant, $6; ball rack, $2 per month; billiard and pool tables, each, $10; vending and slot machines, except candy, peanuts and chewing gum, $2; bucksters, for six months, $11; foot peddler, for six months, $4; junk peddler, for six months, $4, or for one year, $6; junk dealer, $101; second hand dealer, $11; pawn broker, $101; jitney or taxi-cab driver, $2; lumber yard, $31; auctioneer, $51; exhibition or moving picture, not more than 10 cents admission, $25, and more than 10 cents, $101; theater, $101; shooting gallery, $11; skating rink, $101; merry-go-round, $20; hotel or rooming house, $6; tree trimmer, $2; second hand auto dealer, $6; bicycle, $2; push cart, $3; one-horse vehicle, $4; two-horse vehicle, $6; motor truck, less than one ton, $3; motor truck, not more than two tons, and more than one ton, $9; motor truck, not more than three tons and more than two tons, $13; motor truck, not more than four tons and more than three tons, $17, and five tons or more and more than four tons, $21.

DOG LICENSES NOT DUE UNTIL JULY 1.

Dog licenses are not due until July 1. Licenses for dances, circuses and side shows can be taken out only for one day, as occasion demands.

The controller's office force has spent several days this week preparing the 1921 leases for city market standholders in advance.

The 1921 license plates for motor trucks, horse-drawn vehicles, push carts, etc., will be round discs painted white on a dark background. The 1920 design was rectangular, painted black on yellow.

RECEIVES FORMS FOR TAX RETURNS

Revenue Collector Has Blanks for Incorporations.

Collector of Internal Revenue William L. Elder announced today that several of the forms to be filled out by corporations preliminary to payment of income and excess profits taxes will be available for distribution on Jan. 3. The date when the other income tax blanks, including those for individual taxpayers will be ready has not yet been received from Washington. In order that the blanks may be issued on the same date all over the country the internal revenue department has ordered them held in collectors' offices until officially released. The forms, which will be available Jan. 3, are as follows: One thousand one hundred and twenty, which is a corporation return blank to be filed by all corporations for their current or fiscal years;

1120, which is a corporation war profits blank; 1120M, which is a report on depletion on mines and minerals; 1122, which is an information return of subsidiary or affiliated corporations; 1123, which is a schedule of taxable Liberty bonds, and 1126, which is a certificate of inventory to accompany form 1120.

EDINBURG SCHOOL TEACHER MISSING

Letters From Young Woman
Tell of Plans to End Life.

Special to The Times.
EDINBURG, Ind., Dec. 31.—A search is being made for Bessie A. Stanley, 27, teacher of domestic science and English in the high school here, as a result of letters received by her relatives and friends Monday, in which she stated she intended to drown herself.

Miss Stanley was last seen on the evening of Christmas day, when she left the Y. W. C. A. at Louisville, Ky., where she had stayed over night. At this place she mailed a letter to her brother, Ezra Stanley of Edinburg, in which she mentioned that she had planned to end her life, and referred to some details of a love affair.

On leaving Louisville, Dec. 23, Miss Stanley is said to have gone to Indianapolis to visit Mrs. Nell Thomas, at 418 East Fifteenth street, a former school chum. Mrs. Thomas not being at home, Miss Stanley secured a key to the home from a neighbor and stayed in the home over night, returning to Louisville Dec. 24, where she secured lodging for the night at the Y. W. C. A. The next day she took her departure from this place and since then no trace of her has been discovered.

Miss Stanley is described as being about 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighing about 105 pounds, with very dark complexion. When last seen she was wearing a blue suit trimmed in beaver. Her mother, Mrs. Samuel Shock, lives in Hagerstown.

Indiana National Bank

Founded 1857. Successor (in 1865) to the business of the Branch Bank of Indiana

To our many friends, whose loyal support has made possible our success for the past year, we extend the season's most cordial Greetings, with a hearty wish for happiness and prosperity through the year to come.

We solicit the accounts of those who are contemplating a change in their banking connection

This bank is conservative, as any institution ought to be that handles other people's money. We understand by conservativeness a due regard not only for our own interests but for the interests of all concerned and an unwillingness to take any action that is not dictated by experience and sound judgment.
