Omit Washing Your Face But Never Your Teeth

So many are alert to eternal cleanliness because it is considered a friendly act to remind an acquaintance that the face is smudged. But who is to remind you, or notice that your teeth are neglected? An unclean mouth poisons the stomach, and often leads to chronic disease. Keep your mouth in condition by having your teeth examined regularly.

"I neglected my teeth for years. They were extracted without pain by the People's Dentists. I give this recommendation that others will not delay the work which is so necessary to good health."—Mrs. Marie Lles, 3340 E. Washington street, city.

SOUTH AFRICA AT FEVER HEAT ON SECESSION

Imperialists Claim Support of Labor Against Division From Empire.

'CLASS WAR' IS ISSUE

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The political campaign in the union of South Africa, with African secession from the British empire as the leading issue, has reached fever heat and the whole country is in a whirlwind of excitement, said advices from Capetown, Pretoria and Durban today. The balloting will take place tomorrow.

Followers of General Smuts, leader of the imperialists (anti-secessionists) insist labor will support the imperialists on some issues, notably the continuation of South Africa as part of the British empire, but will oppose other planks of the imperialists' platform.

Secession from the British empire is the chief plank of the Nationalists, led by General Herzog, who desire South Africa converted into an independent republic.

Labor leaders declare that whether South Africa remains in the British empire or not they will make "class war" a live issue in the country.

Block Western Girl's Attempt at Suicide

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Dazed as though from drugs, a young woman was saved by the police early today just as she was about to jump into East River at Ninety-Second street.

She was stylishly dressed and later was identified at the city hospital as Lillian J. Wilhelm of Travis, Mich., a music student.

The police said they found a silver table knife protruding from the girl's sleeve.
