

LABOR TO GIVE VIEWS IN RAIL WAGE CONTEST

Front Line Trenches Filling for Opening Bombardment Tomorrow.

WALSH TO AID WORKERS

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Labor's verbal bombardment of capital, wherein it charges Wall Street is behind railroad owners in the latter's attempt to abolish national working agreements and reduce wages, will take concrete form tomorrow when representatives of 2,000,000 railroad employees will give their answer to the railroad owners.

Armed with what is termed by rail union leaders as the "inside information" on the financial situation, Frank P. Walsh was speeding here today from New York to attend tomorrow's hearing before the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission. Walsh is expected to go before the board with B. M. Jewell, president of the railroad shippers' union, and help labor in its stand against capital.

That the issue between the railroad owners and employees is to be the big showdown between capital and labor is becoming more apparent than ever. The American Federation of Labor is ready to go to the mat with capital in the present fight and has indicated to the railroad owners that it will be the champion of organized labor in whatever step is taken. It has sent here as its agent, W. Jett Lauck, official statistician for the Federation. Lauck will arrive with Walsh and will be on hand to furnish ammunition for the labor leaders when they appear before the board tomorrow.

Financial kings of the country may be called to the Senate to give their testimony. It was said, has assembled exhaustive data on incomes of the country's leading financiers and will ask that some of them be summoned to testify.

Those whom Walsh is expected to ask be called included J. Pierpont Morgan, Elbert H. Gary and John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

ROTARIANS HERE PICK DELEGATES

Plans for Evansville Trip Made at Luncheon.

Plans for the introduction of a bill to provide for a Riley memorial hospital in Indianapolis were completed today at a conference between Governor Warren T. McCray and members of the Riley Memorial Association who met in the Governor's office. The bill will be introduced in the House, possibly by Senator A. Davis of Jay County.

It is proposed to have the hospital conducted under the direction of the board of trustees of Indiana University and that it be built near the grounds of the Robert W. Long Hospital. While complete details of the bill were not given out, it is understood they will follow closely the proposals of the memorial association. The hospital would be financed by popular subscription.

Parents Say Missing Girl Now Is Married

Parents of Lucille Fuller, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cook, 16 East Pratt street, notified the police last night that they had received a telegram stating that their daughter was married Monday afternoon at Jeffersonville, to Oscar Thorsen, 1633 College avenue.

The girl, a member of High school students, disappeared Friday evening. The police were notified when she failed to arrive at a bank with some money and also failed to appear at a downtown store with a fur coat that was to have been repaired.

Vines came to visit the Mexican colony in Indiana Harbor last September and was forcibly taken to Crown Point by Banderas, where he obtained a license and was married to her.

She was kept imprisoned in the third story of a building by Banderas, but later climbed from a window and made her escape. Her husband did not appear to contest the divorce action.

According to the police, she had been arrested and convicted several times on charges of operating a blind tiger.

3 FINED IN RACE BETTING CHARGES

Prosecuting Witness Claims He Lost $800.

William Fleisher and Thomas Donnelly, proprietors of the restaurant and soft drink parlors at 46 South Capitol avenue, and Fred Ulrich, proprietor of a restaurant at 128 West Market street, were each fined $10 and costs and sentenced to serve ten days in jail on charges of keeping a gambling house by Judge Walter Pritchard in city court yesterday afternoon. The charges grew out of a complaint made by the prosecutor by Richard Wake, 616 Adeline street, who claimed that he lost approximately $800 in bets on race horses in the last eighteen months. The cases were appealed.

According to Wake's testimony he would visit one of the two places and place a bet of $1 to $100 on horses he had seen on horse racing. He was told he had to get paid. He said the defendants would take the money and telephone the bets to a third party. He testified the highest amount he ever won at one time was $30, and when asked the amount he had won altogether he said "about $100." The defense claimed he made no mistake toward the most but, he said, he felt that he was not getting a square deal.

When Wake tried to persuade the three defendants to settle with him for money he had lost on horse racing, he was told he had to get paid. He said the defendants' places of business were closed.

The three men, their ownership and denied accepting bets from the prosecuting witness. Ulrich and Fleisher denied the accusation of ever having been arrested before on any charge, but when Donnelly testified he said he had been arrested and convicted several times on charges of operating a blind tiger.

Three North Side Homes Are Robbed

Harry Sargent, 2182 North Meridian street, reported to the police that his home was entered by a burglar last night. Jewelry valued at $60 and about $5 cash were stolen.

Mrs. J. W. Fudge, 2236 North Meridian street, reported that a burglar ransacked every room in her home while she was away. She was unable to say what was stolen.

R. H. Jones, 15 East Twenty-Second street, said a burglar who forced a rear window at his home took $20.
