Miss Genevieve Hughes, 22 Whitliff place, is to be hostess for the Mu Phi Epsilon dinner-musical Tuesday evening. The program will include a group of Chopin and Schumann numbers by Miss Mildred Casey, pianist, a Mendelssohn group by Miss Elsie Holzworth, violinist, and two modern songs by Miss Isabelle Cannon.

Miss Jeanette Harvey, 4167 Washington boulevard, will depart Feb. 23 for Paris, France, where she will study art.

Bills pending in the Legislature relating particularly to Indianapolis will be the subject for discussion at the luncheon meeting of the City Club, to be held Saturday in the Chamber of Commerce. Robert E. Tracy of the bureau of municipal research for the Chamber of Commerce, will outline the bills in a brief talk. Mrs. Mary Stubbs, chairman of the public service committee, will preside.

A delightful colonial tea was given by the senior two class of the City Normal School this afternoon in the assembly room of school No. 10. The guests included members of the faculty, the city school board and various school officials and teachers, together with the senior one and junior classes of the normal. An interesting program was given by the young women dressed in quaint old-fashioned costumes. Groups of patriotic and old-time piano numbers were played by Miss Louise Swan, and familiar songs were sung by the class in chorus. Following the program tea was served, candies bearing red tapers, tied with red, white and blue tulle, and flags decorating the serving table. Tied with red, white and blue tulle, and flags decorating the serving table. Tied with red, white and blue tulle, and flags decorating the serving table.

Members of the American War Mothers Chapter having birthdays in January and February will be hostesses for the birthday party of the organization to be given in the home of Mrs. Jonas Joseph, 1313 North Meridian street, Tuesday. The regular business meeting of War Mothers will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the public library. Mrs. Ella Aker will preside.

Mrs. Donald Thornburg, Huntington, is the house guest of Miss Dorothy McIntosh, 2173 North Meridian street. Miss McIntosh entertained this afternoon with a "bridge" at the Columbia Club in honor of her guest.

The Alliance Française will meet at the clubrooms, 29 North Meridian street, Wednesday evening. The program will be under the direction of Eugene Wagner, assisted by Miss Lyle Harter, Miss Kathryn Mead and Hugh Deacon.

Mrs. Roy Kennedy, 5811 Julian avenue, will be hostess for the luncheon meeting of the Beta Beta chapter of the Alpha Chi Omega to be held tomorrow. A musical program will be given in the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Yoris Tobin. Assistant hostesses will include Mrs. Clarence Weaver, Mrs. J. S. Milligan, Mrs. F. B. Walker, Miss Arline Webster and Miss Fay Silver.

Mrs. A. H. Johnson of Carthage is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Weaver, 3116 Broadway.

Miss Lenore Burdick, 2335 Ashland avenue, was hostess for the annual "spread" of the Beta Sigma Chi Sorority last evening. The table was attractively arranged with a centerpiece of red roses and red hearts marking the covers. The guests included Miss Edna Little, Miss Lenore Hickman, Miss Lucille Little, Miss Wilma Taffinger, Miss Charlotte Dietz, Miss Margaret Gray, Miss Mildred Brunson, Miss Olive Lamb, Miss Iva May, Miss Mary Miller, Miss Louise Miller, Miss Lillian Brenton, Miss Ruth Griner, Mrs. Robert Mann, Miss Deon Rhinehart, Miss Harriett Nichols and Miss Florence Joyce.

Delta Psi Kappa Sorority of the American Gymnastic Union will entertain tomorrow evening with a dinner-dance at the Athenaeum. Miss Charlotte Sargent, president, is in charge of general arrangements.

Mrs. Eugene Arms of Oxford, Mich., formerly Miss Frances Hill of this city, is the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hill, 2104 Park avenue. Mr. Arms will join Mrs. Arms for the week end.

More Smallpox at the Jail in Kokomo

KOKOMO, Ind., Feb. 18.—Ebel Lowrey, a colored juvenile delinquent, convicted of the theft of a sable coat from the E. J. Apperson home some time ago, but who was admitted to the Girls' School as a victim of smallpox at the county jail. She is the second victim of the disease there, the first being Walter Purvis, another juvenile delinquent. Health authorities believed they had the disease under control. Removal of the prisoners to the pest house under guard is being considered, to free the jail of the scourge which was infected by a tramp lodged over night. Twelve of prisoners for State offenses will be delayed on account of the situation.

COLUMBUS HOME BURNS. COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 18.—The home of Frank Richards, at Taylorsville, was destroyed by fire Thursday. The origin of the fire was not learned. The house had been recently equipped with a lighting plant, furnace and water system. The loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. But then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister. As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 45c and 65c Jars; Hospital Size $3.00

KOKOMO, Ind., Feb. 18.—John Pullen, whose exciting escape from a posse thrilled the county a few months ago, and who furthered his escape by impressing automobile drivers to carry him at the point of a revolver, was implicated in the robbery of the Paul Wickersham grocery by the testimony of Clyde Perry in police court. Perry's room being searched, a meat knife was found hidden in a stovepipe, and bacon located, all of which was identified by Wickersham. Perry was able to convince the court that Pullen and a stranger had occupied the Perry home while Perry and his wife were at Flora, a fact unknown to them until their return, when Pullen and his companion had disappeared. As there was no evidence connecting Perry with the robbery he was acquitted.

Two One-Act Plays Presented by Club

Two one-act plays, "The Dear Departed" and "Fourteen," were ably presented by the Players' Club last evening in the Odeon.

The plot of the former play is built around one Abel Merryweather, who is supposed to be dead but appears in flesh and blood, very much alive, to settle the division of his property among his heirs. The role of Abel was played by George C. Calvert in excellent fashion. Miss Josephine Shaw, as Mrs. Slater, and Mrs. Frank B. Fowler, as Mrs. Jordan, took the parts of his two daughters, with Mr. Fowler, as M. State, and Joseph H. Daniels, as M. Jordan. Mrs. Donald Morris

Protests Against Train Annullment

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Feb. 18.—The Chamber of Commerce wired a protest today to the public service commission regarding the annullment by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company of two passenger trains on this division. It is asked that the company be forced to set out why the order was issued.

The Euphonia Inner Player Does This

—It reproduces the artist's touch
—It can be played by hand
—It can be played by combined power and hand
—It can be played by power (electricity) alone
—It plays with all the feeling and expression of the player himself
—It is not an ordinary player, but a means of reproducing music as the artist plays it.

Carlin's have a complete display of all models of the Euphonia. Ask to hear this marvelous miracle piano. Priced from $700 to $1,250.

"New Tailored Suits Arrive at Port Ayres for a Short Stay"

We'll admit the prophecy—but, when a prophecy is founded upon facts it's pretty apt to come true.

There are several reasons why we feel sure these beautifully tailored suits will sell as fast as they are shown. First, the fabrics—

Tricotine and Serge

and oh, what lovely quality; so unusual in suits at the prices we have named. Then the styles—

Modes of the Hour

Entrancing—Fascinating—Chic

whatever you will. And varied enough to make choosing a mere matter of selecting the model best suited to your individual requirements. Tastefully tailored—beautifully trimmed—silk lined. And the prices—
