agerstown Women Fight School Slump

Special to The Times.
HARTFORD, Ind., Feb. 18.—Women of Hagerstown who have been fighting the question of better schools for years have issued a statement today that the school property is falling in value and that the tax may be materially reduced by the control of the schools over the township trustees.
The women are circulating a petition to the school corporation. The school board plan will cause the tax on the township to be more than twice that of the township. The women claim the difference is caused by the fact that the two men appointed by the township board to control the school in town have been removed.

ouths Are Freed of Theft Charges

Special to The Times.
COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 18.—Frank Thomas, 21, and Claude Thompson, 24, of Indianapolis, were cleared of charges of highway robbery in the Harrison County Circuit Court Thursday by a jury after deliberating most of the day. The men were alleged to have been and robbed W. G. Bowers of Reynolds at that city in December. They were captured after a revolver fight with officers.

A pocketbook which was taken from Bowers when he was robbed was found in the possession of Thomas. The men were in the trial that they had found it after leaving Seymour. Thomas, who was wounded by the officers, denied the firing of the shot which struck Bowers at the same instant.

THREATENS TO GO BACK TO RAG PACK

Stormy Petrel Boston Financier Peeved.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 18.—Simon Swig, former rapscallion and stormy petrel of Boston's financial world, whose Tremont Trust Company has been closed by Bank Commissioner Allen, declared today he is "through with banking."
Swig said, if necessary to save the 40,000 depositors their $14,183,306, he would start all over again with a rag pack on his back.
The militant champion of "5 per cent interest" vowed he would expose the "conspirators" whom he blames for the closing of his bank and who he charges with seeking to encompass his ruin.
Use of unscrupulous and unauthorized banking methods is the reason given for Commissioner Allen's action.

FELONY CHARGE PUT ON HOWAT

Troubles Multiply for Miners' Leader.

PITTSBURGH, Kan., Feb. 18.—Another charge has been filed against Alexander Howat, district president of the United Mine Workers, and his aid, August Diney, vice president.
They are at liberty under $4,000 bond each after arrest on charges of violating the felony section of the Kansas industrial court law by calling a strike in the Maudie mine "II" in Cherokee County, Feb. 4. Preliminary hearing was set for March 1 at Columbus, Kan.
Howat and five associates are at liberty under $2,000 appeal bonds on their sentence to one year's imprisonment for contempt of court.

EASY TO MOVE REFORMATORY TO STATE FARM

movement that will result in a more drastic punishment of delinquents remains to be seen.
In reality it is a question of whether the penal farm will absorb the reformatory or the reformatory absorb the penal farm. The two cannot be operated together and retain the very distinct differences in their original characters.
$2,300,000 and the receipts from inheritance tax collections will amount to $500,000, or a total amount of $2,800,000. A tax of 12½ cents on each $100 of assessed valuation would amount to $1,720,250, making a total for the three sums of $1,079,750.
$300 A MILE FOR REPAIRS.
"This would be sufficient to allow an average of $300 for the repair and maintenance of each one mile of improved highway in the several counties of the State. After a few years this levy could be reduced.
"Our vehicle license law should be so amended as to provide for at least $1,000,000 additional revenue. Should this be done the State levy would be reduced from 12½ cents to 11 cents. I find that under our law the vehicle license is lower than in almost any other State.
"Provision has been made whereby the penal farm by the court that sentenced them.

Whenever, in the opinion of the penal farm authorities there is reason to believe that a prisoner will escape, he is "leg-ironed." This insures the permanency of his stay at the penal farm in so far as it is exceedingly difficult for a man to run away with a fifteen-pound weight on his ankle. Also it reduces his efficiency as a laborer about 50 per cent, and for that reason is not looked upon with favor by the authorities.
However, it is very unusual for the penal farm authorities to receive any inkling of a prisoner's disposition to escape. If he is sent to the penal farm as a result of a "frame up" before the court that sentenced him there, with the idea that he will escape, the local authorities take good care that the "frame up" does not become known to the penal farm authorities.
BELIEVES "UNGUARDED" PLAN MUST GO.
Mr. Tullington is of the opinion that this "unguarded" feature of the penal farm will have to be discarded if the reformatory is moved to the farm. He says a wall will be necessary and there will have to be some sort of segregation of the penal farm and reformatory prisoners at other times than when they are at work. He anticipates no difficulty in working the men together, and he says the additional labor obtained from the additional men will take care largely of the cost of erection of the new institution.
The heating plant of the penal farm, power house and water supply easily can be augmented to care for the increased population. The brick and the plant can turn out the material for the new buildings and the labor can be obtained to erect them.
The question of the consolidation of the two institutions is, of course, what effect it will have on the prisoners themselves, rather than what effect it will have on the State treasury. It is generally conceded that the consolidated institutions can be more economically operated than the two now are run.

THE MATTER FOR CONSIDERATION.
But whether the removal of the reformatory to the penal farm will result in lightening the burden of reformatory inmates and increasing the burdens of penal farm convicts is a matter for consideration.
A wall at the penal farm might result in fewer escapes. Transfer of reformatory prisoners there without a wall doubtless would result in more escapes. The two institutions cannot be brought together without the abandonment of the theory on which the penal farm was established, but advocates of the consolidation admit that the pure purpose of the penal farm have been, in a measure, abandoned. Others are not sure that it would not be best permanently to abandon them.

That there is a reaction from the so-called reform methods of dealing with delinquencies, brought about by the abuses of the honor system is well known.
Whether the consolidation of the penal farm and the reformatory is or is not a

OHIO OVERHEAD ONLY 5 PER CENT; INDIANA'S IS 39

State highway commission will receive for the year 1921 the sum of $7,356,725.11. I do not believe that the State highway commission will be able to construct new roads fast enough to use that sum.
"The tax levy made by the several counties shows an average of 14½ cents on each $100 taxable property. Add to this 14½ cents the State highway levy of 3.9 cents and we have a total levy for the two purposes of 18.4 cents, against the levy of 16.4 cents for the two purposes, as I have heretofore set out, or a net reduction of 2 cents."

Says Condition Will Keep Candy Price Up
The demand of the public for the best grade of sweets, an increase in the price of sugar and a tendency of other raw materials to keep the upward trend will prevent further reductions of the price of candy, J. A. Cox, who was re-elected president of the Indiana Confectioners' Club at the annual meeting at the Hotel Severin yesterday, declared.
Mr. Cox, who is vice president of Dilling & Co., Indianapolis candy manufacturers, was re-elected for the fourth time. A. Stern, Evansville, was elected vice president, and E. Wood Nichols, Indianapolis, secretary-treasurer. Directors chosen are Joseph Bellemier, Logansport; A. B. Mewhinney, Terre Haute; Edward Brom, Evansville, and Walter Helt, Ft. Wayne.
There has been a decrease in confection prices ranging from 15 to 50 per cent in the last six months, the manufacturers said.
