

Society

ONE OF SEVEN

CLUB FEDERATION DINNER PLANNED

Tables to Represent Months of the Year.

Quiet simplicity marked the wedding of Miss Marian McConnell and Harlow Amsbury of Detroit, which took place this afternoon in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. John McConnell, 200 Central avenue. The Rev. George Richardson of the Church of the Advent read the service. The program of instrumental music was played by Mrs. Frances White-Webber, harpist. Miss Renoir Bradbury of Muncey, the bride's only attendant, wore a blue georgette crepe dress and carried a colonial bouquet. Charles Hough of Chicago acted as best man. The bride wore an attractive gown of gray kitten's ear crepe with hat of the same shade and her bouquet was of tulips and lilies. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Amsbury, Frank Amsbury, Miss Addie Amsbury, Miss Harriet Amsbury, Champagne, Ill.; Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Bloomington, Ill.; Mrs. John Goebel and Mrs. T. W. Johnson, Ute, N. Y., and Mrs. R. J. Prendergast, Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Amsbury have gone for a trip and will make their home in Detroit. ***

The Caroline Scott Harrison chapter of the D. A. R. will hold a guest meeting in the Propylaeum Tuesday. The meeting will be in the nature of a memorial to Anne Parmalee Cunningham, founder of the Mt. Vernon Association. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Robert E. Wadsworth, Mrs. W. C. Winslow, Mrs. Benjamin D. Walcott, Mrs. Robert Beddoe, Mrs. Henry A. Beck, Mrs. Earl Eggle, Mrs. E. V. Graff, Mrs. John John C. Henley, Miss Nancy Newcomer, Miss A. B. Robinson, Miss Sallie Barbour, Mrs. Jessie G. Moore, Mrs. E. W. Warner and Mrs. Harry T. Eppes. ***

Miss Gladys Joly of Terre Haute will pass the weekend with friends in Indianapolis. ***

Service Star Legion, Hamilton Berry chapter, will hold a guest meeting in the Y. W. C. A. green parlor Tuesday. Women of the State Assembly Club will have a special guest. The honored guests will include Mrs. Arthur Wills, Mrs. Myron Williams, Mrs. Cora Young Wiles, Mrs. M. E. Van Briggle, Mrs. Jerome Vedder, Mrs. W. W. Winslow, Mrs. D. L. Woods, Mrs. George Wurthm, Mrs. H. L. Waterbury, Mrs. Thomas Welch, Miss Louise Wills, Mrs. O. L. Wilkins, Mrs. Oscar L. Watkins, Miss Nellie P. Young, Mrs. James H. Lovrie, violinist, and Mrs. Frank Edenharter, pianist, will give a musical program. Mrs. Elizabeth Bogert Scholfield will give a group of readings and Mrs. John Kolmer will present a group of numbers. ***

Myriads of red and white balloons, red hearts, crystal boulders and festoons of red hearts will hang from the Florentine room of the Claypool Hotel Friday evening for the winner party of the Altrusa Club. A program made up of various stunts was given, including a bomb orchestra; group of numbers on the French horn, by Miss Cornellia Tissel; acrobatic Altrusa Club songs, written by Mrs. Alice Altrusa; the roll call responses, consisting of valentines, in the form of puns taken off members, and the evening Dr. Mary Westfall, president of the organization, was presented with a cluster of roses by the club. Mrs. Mary Buehler and Miss Mayme Bass, who have returned from an executive committee meeting in Dayton, gave short talks concerning the National Altrusa Club convention, to be held in Dayton the latter part of May. ***

Miss Louise Dice entertained the Pals Club of the Irvington branch Library Friday afternoon at her home, 5505 East Washington street. The guests included Margaret Campill, Myrtle Butcher, Dorothy Oberlies and Louise Payne. Miss Dice was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Bertha Dice. ***

Miss Mary Dugan will entertain the Bide-a-Wee Club tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1530 South State avenue. Mrs. Frank Hatfield, 230 Harvard place, was hostess for the meeting of Pi Beta Phi Alumni Club today. She was assisted by the alumnae from Indiana Beta chapter. The subjects for discussion were "Our National Committees" and "Loan and Scholarships." ***

The Ke Wa Na Klub will meet tomorrow afternoon with Miss May Van Ness, 1712 East Twelfth street. ***

Mrs. Sarah A. Shields will talk on "Hats" before the members of the Woman's Rotary Club at the luncheon meeting to be held in the Florentine room of the Claypool Hotel. ***

Newcastle Autoist Killed at Crossing

Special to The Times
NEWCASTLE, Ind., Feb. 19.—S. Murphy, 55, was killed Friday night at Lewisville, near here, when the machine he was driving collided with a passenger car on the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern traction line. ***

Witnesses believe Murphy was blinded by the headlight of the traction car or lost control of his automobile, as he apparently drove directly into the on-coming car. He is survived by an aged mother, a brother and sister. ***

Meetings
The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Caledonian Club will give a Washington anniversary program Tuesday evening in St. Paul's Church hall. The program will include readings, music, including special numbers by the Caledonian orchestra and bagpipe selections, and a talk by Mrs. C. Ashjian on Armenian relief work. ***

A card party will be given by the Martha Washington Aid Society, Tuesday afternoon, in the Y. M. I. Hall in Fountain Square. ***

A charity card party will be given Wednesday night in the Talmud Torah building, McCarty and Union streets. ***

Ladies' Auxiliary No. 393, Order of the Eastern Star, will give a card party and dance in the Deinson Hotel Friday evening. ***

Alfarata Council No. 5 degree team will give a card party tonight in the Community House, 714 Greer street. ***

Naomi Chapter of O. E. C. will give a card party Thursday afternoon in Saks Hall. ***

Indianapolis Lodge 297, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, will give a dance Wednesday night in the Deinson Hotel. Mrs. Grace Carpenter is in charge of arrangements. ***

Temple Review No. 5, W. C. S. of Macabees, will entertain with a luncheon Monday noon to be followed by a card party in the afternoon. ***

Indianapolis Lodge No. 297, Ladies' Auxiliary, B. R. T., will give a card party tonight in Saks Hall. Mrs. Minnie O'Brien and Mrs. Mary Collier are the hostesses. ***

The Trabedore Club will give a card party tomorrow afternoon in Musicians' Hall. ***

Members and prospective members of Pidley Review No. 140, W. B. A., of the Macabees, will give a dinner and vaudville entertainment Feb. 24 in Castle Hall, 220 East Ohio street, in honor of Washington's birthday. The hours will be from 11:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Mrs. Laura Ashton is chairman of the dinner com-take-off on the plumbing business from the pen of Max Ehrmann, Indiana playwright.

STILL WITH US

Those participating in the reading will include Miss Edith Evans, Miss Mary E. Orvis, Edward Sothern, Lloyd Wayne, Douglas Doyle, Louise Layton and George Calvert.

The general discussion will be led by W. F. McDermott. A group of songs will be given by Miss Laurel Thayer, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Tracy.

Club Index

Olio Club—Friday. Hostess, Mrs. Nathan Masten, 122 East Michigan street. Miss Marcia Furnas will read a paper on the "New Era in Modern Poetry."

Friday Afternoon Club—Friday. Hostess, Mrs. Caroline Whitst, 224 North Delaware street. Assistant, Mrs. J. M. Paver. Mrs. I. T. Moore will talk on "Alaska," followed by general discussion by the members. ***

Household Economics Club—Wednesday. Hostess, Mrs. J. W. Burcham, 3519 College avenue. Assistants, Mrs. O. H. Jensen, Mrs. William Kennedy, Mrs. Fred E. Matson, Mrs. Norman K. Miholland. Mrs. Louis W. Brick will give a talk on "Textiles" and Miss Margaret Montgomery will give a review of lessons 17 and 18. ***

Independent Social Club—Tuesday. Hostess, Mrs. John Larsson, 5117 East Washington street. A regular business meeting will be held. ***

Inter Nos Club—Wednesday. Hostess, Mrs. Ralph Clark. A lecture on "Home Economics." Hostess, Mrs. J. E. May. Given by Mrs. J. F. Marks. Mrs. J. F. Mayor is in charge of the musical program. ***

Irvington Tuesday Club—Tuesday. Hostess, Mrs. John Larsson, 5117 East Washington street. The meeting is to be in the nature of a guest party. ***

Meridian Heights Inter-Club—Tuesday. Hostess, Mrs. Harry Yockey, 626 May Forty-Ninth street. Mrs. E. H. Culbertson will talk on "Wonders of the Southwest" and Mrs. E. C. Kubus will read a paper on "The Northwest." ***

New Century Club—Wednesday. Hostess, Mrs. Frank Miller, 2235 Normal avenue. A guest afternoon with a special musical program has been arranged for the meeting. ***

New Era Club—Monday. Hostess, Mrs. R. O. V. M., 1492 Pennsylvania Avenue, and Mrs. Minnie Duncan. In observance of Washington's birthday anniversary Mrs. Wolf will read a paper on George Washington and Mrs. Everett Vesta will talk on Martha Washington. Special patriotic musical numbers will be presented. ***

Zetathem Club—Wednesday. Hostess, Mrs. J. W. Walker, 2238 Broadway. Mrs. J. W. Walker will talk on the life of George Washington and Mrs. J. W. Jones will discuss Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln." ***

The regular fortnightly meetings of the Little Theater Society will be resumed at the Public Library again beginning with the meeting on Tuesday evening. As that date is a legal holiday only the Cropey auditorium, on the Pennsylvania street side, will be used. The program is to be in charge of Maude Anthony Swift, who will conduct the readings of two plays, one of which is a

CHAPLIN AND JACK COOGAN

Because of the big business done by Chaplin and Jack Coogan, the "Kid," this picture will be held over next week at the Circle. It is understood that this Chaplin picture has broken all attendance records at the Circle. Never has Chaplin appeared to a better comedy advantage than in this meeting.

Mrs. William Christian, chairman of the health committee, announced that a luncheon will be given Thursday in the Chamber of Commerce for the captains and lieutenants of the membership teams, which will close the drive.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

MOTION PICTURES.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health committee, gave her report.

Miss St. John appointed a committee to advise the organization to cooperate with the Taxpayers' League. The members include Mrs. Robert Huggins, Mrs. W. T. Barnes and Mrs. Jefferey.

Plans for night meetings of the league to be held in March for the benefit of the business women were discussed. The showing of the film, "When Women Work," for the program of one of the meetings was suggested.

Mrs. William Jefferey, chairman of the health