

MISCELLANEOUS—FOR SALE

MR. HOWE TOSSES HIS HAT INTO RING

Former Head of Butler College Announces Candidacy.

Formal announcement that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor was made today by Mr. Thomas C. Howe, former president of Butler College. Mr. Thomas C. Howe is the candidate whom the Indianapolis News directed the Jewett-Lemcke faction of the Republican party to support in whom this faction indorsed a week ago.

The usual fuss about the man refusing to enter until the "people" demanded him, and about the office seeking the man, accompanied Mr. Thomas C. Howe's final "decision" to run.

to the Republican Party, and he was elected to the House of Representatives in 1890 at which a resolution urging Mr. Howe to run was adopted.

It was in reply to this resolution that Mr. Thomas C. Howe, former president of Wesleyan College, wrote the following letter:

"To the People of Indianapolis:
"I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor. I seek this place as an honor and a responsibility of which I am proud to accept."
"Indiana is my native State. For more than thirty-six years Indianopolis has been my home, and its people are among the best in the world. I believe it has a future of marvelous growth and influence. To become its executive means to be its chief servant, and I should esteem it no other distinction more."

"If my party should honor me with its to arrive to the utmost and in the interest of the whole people to do the duty of the high office to which you call me.

"THOMAS C. HOWE."

Mr. Thomas C. Howe has large manufacturing and other business interests here and elsewhere in the State. In fact, Jewett-Lemmon regarded the leaders of the "colored" movement as having turned into line with stories of the great wealth of Mr. Howe.

The candidate served as one of the Marion County delegation in the House of Representatives of the State Legislature during the 1903 session.

Court Asked to Fix Policy Beneficiary

Unable to obtain an agreement among

The complaint states that Mrs. Modest H. Hoobier, nee F. Hoobier, and Mrs. Jessie Hoobier, his widow, each claim the money due and that children of the deceased have filed claims.

The following are named as defendants: Mrs. Jessie Hoobier of Muskogee, Okla.; Mrs. Nellida Hoobier, Mrs. Elmer Buchanan, Mrs. Ollie Darter and Mrs. A. J. Nail, all of Marion, Ind.; and Herbert L. Hoobier, now in the United States Navy and stationed at San Diego, Cal.

Leutenant Jones and a squad visited a house at 41 Frank street, today, following the report that a supply of liquor had been delivered there. They arrested Mr. and Mrs. John Winter, charging them with operating a blind tiger. The police allege they found eight cases of bottled in bond whiskey buried under a pile of straw in the rear yard of the house.

The owner of the house and wagon must do some explaining before he can get his property back. Patrolman Wilson says that the horse and wagon were found in the back alley near the 1900 Silver street. The trio ran when they saw the policeman and when the officer reached the wagon he found a complete whisky still. The still is at a police headquarters and the horse and wagon are at a lively barn.

Marooned by Fire

BOSTON, Feb. 21.—Fire at today destroyed the Neponset avenue car barn of the Boston Elevated Railway, burned thirty-eight of the latest type cars and marooned thousands of commuters coming to the city from Dorchester, Waltham and Quincy. Elevated officials estimated the damage at $520,000.

Fifty persons, mostly women and children, ran to the street, scantily clad today when fire broke out in the basement of a six-story dwelling.

Falls Down Elevator Shaft; Hurts Serious

Special to The Times

held Memorial Hospital here, following injuries received when he fell down the elevator shaft at the Y. M. C. A. building.

Mr. Vogelsong opened the door of the elevator shaft at the second floor and failed to look for the elevator, which was at the third floor. He lost his balance and fell to the basement, a distance of four feet.

It was stated at the hospital that, although Mr. Vogelsong was conscious, he suffered greatly from injuries which consist of four broken ribs, a four-inch scalp wound and two fractured vertebrae, which caused partial paralysis of the lower limbs.

Greensburg Claims the Oldest Mason

GREENSBURG, Ind., Feb. 21.—Greensburg is laying claim to the honor of being the home of the oldest Mason in the State. The Rev. James B. Lathrop, born near this city Nov. 24, 1825, and therefore past 95, was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason by Franklin Lodge No. 107 of Franklin, on Aug. 19, 1851, and has been a Mason for more than 40 years.

He carries his age well and is a familiar figure on the streets of this city. He is a retired banker, but takes active interest in the various movements, both civic and religious, which tend toward the betterment of the community.

Says He Assumed Name for Wedding is asking an annulment of her marriage with Clyde Guley, alias Harry Whitely. She alleges that Guley married her under the assumed name and practiced a deceit upon her. That he is a deserter and wanted by the United States, but he changed his name to obliterate his identity.

GLASS MAKER GOES TO BELGIUM.
HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Feb. 21.—Octave Jacquemin of the Libbey-Owens Sheet Glass Company of Charleston, W. Va., a former Hartford City glass manufacturer, who is widely known over the State, will sail Feb. 26 for Brussels, where he will supervise the building of a big plant for his company.