A delightful luncheon musicale was given by the Indiana Woman's Assembly Club today in the Spink Arms in honor of Mrs. Warren T. McCray and Miss Lucille McCray. Raymond F. Ball, accompanied by Mrs. Gwendolyn Moess, sang a group of Irish numbers, including "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Mother Machree" and "Molly," and Miss Dorothy Haines gave a group of readings from "Seventeen." Friday afternoon the club members will be guests of Mrs. U. S. Lesh, for the matinee at Keith's theater.

Dr. Virgil B. Rorer of Meridian Street M. E. Church will be the speaker for the meeting of the Caroline Scott Harrison Chapter of the D. A. R. tomorrow afternoon in the Propylaeum. Mrs. Arnold Spencer, soprano, will give a group of numbers. Mrs. Charles A. Eppert is chairman of the hospitality committee. With Mrs. Frank B. Wynn in charge of program, and Mrs. John Paul Ragsdale and Miss Dorothy Knight composed the music committee. Mrs. Edward J. Hodges, first vice regent, will preside.

Miss Mildred Spaulding will entertain the Pale Club Friday evening at her home, 5737 Bonna avenue, with a "spread." An informal program of music will follow the dinner.

Sigma Delta Phi will meet tonight in the Y. W. C. A., room 2. Miss Jane Head, president, will be in charge of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frenzel, 1637 North Illinois street, accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Miller and Miss Caroline Sweney, have departed for Cuba, where they will pass several weeks.

Members of the Jewish Council of Women will receive informally tomorrow evening for Glenn Frank, associate editor of the Century Magazine and well known lecturer, who is to speak at the temple on "The New Order vs. the Old." Mr. Frank's talk will be the fourth of a series of evenings given by the educational department of the council.

Miss Charity Dye, 1134 Broadway, will be hostess for the meeting of the Pioneer Mothers' Memorial Association tomorrow afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Deltrick and Charles H. Schaefer was solemnized this afternoon in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Deltrick, 1517 Wave street, the Rev. Father J. M. Dorney officiating. The house was attractive with pink roses and baskets of apple blossoms, a bank of palms and ferns forming the altar. The program of wedding music was played by John Koser, violinist, and Mrs. Koser, pianist, who used the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" for the processional. Miss Lucille Wiley, in sand-colored georgette crepe over French blue satin with arm bouquet of pink roses, was maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer will be at home at 1517 Wave street.

Dr. and Mrs. Luckenbill, who have been passing several weeks in Miami, Fla., have returned to their home, 1902 East Washington street.

Mrs. J. F. McCall, 3333 West Michigan street, entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club at her home today with luncheon followed by a program, including the election of officers. Responses were "favorite recipes." A musical program was presented under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Munday.

NEW MATRON AT COURTHOUSE. Mrs. J. F. Sellers, 623 Troy avenue, today began her duties as matron of the courthouses. She succeeded Mrs. Emma Swiggett, resigned.

Women Told About Taxation Problems

"Taxation" was the general topic for the meeting of the Local Council of Women held yesterday in the Propylaeum. Alfred F. Potts of the Taxpayers' League, told of the objects and accomplishments of the league, and E. P. Brennan explained the manner of levying Indiana taxes and various methods connected with taxation.

A resolution concerning the fact that milk has not gone down in price to conform with the lowered cost of production, and asking the women of Marion County to cooperate in lowering the cost of this necessity, was presented by the investigating committee of the W. C. T. U. and acted on favorably by the Council.

A musical program, including a group of songs by Miss Mildred Daugherty, accompanied by Miss Helen Smith, closed the program. Mrs. S. R. Armitan presided.

League to Observe Inauguration Day

A program in celebration of inauguration day will be given by the Indianapolis League of Women Voters in the assembly room of the Chamber of Commerce Friday afternoon. Maj. C. F. Thompson of Ft. Benjamin Harrison will speak on "What It Means to Be an American."

A number of short sketches of the lives of past presidents will be given by a group of club members, including "George Washington," Mrs. W. F. Barnes; "Abraham Lincoln," Mrs. Felix T. McWhorter; "Ulysses S. Grant," Mrs. Ovid Butler.

Are You Fat? Just Try This

Thousands of overfat people, have become slim by following the advice of doctors who recommended Marmola Prescription Tablets, those harmless little fat reducers that simplify the dose of the famous Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If too fat, don't wait for the doctor's advice. Go now to your druggist or write to the Marmola Co., 412 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., and for one dollar procure a large case of these tablets. They reduce two, three or four pounds a week without exercise, dieting or any unpleasant effect whatever. If too fat, try this today.—Advertisement.

Man Killed, 2 Hurt When Ditch Caves In

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.
RICHMOND, Ind., March 2.—William Benjamin, 65, was suffocated; William Hartman suffered a fractured leg and William Gard was injured about the chest when a slide of earth buried them in a trench they were digging in the yard of the Preble County Infirmary, near Eaton, Ohio.

Benjamin was buried under ten feet of ground and was dead when his body was recovered two hours after the accident. Hartman was removed to Reid Memorial Hospital, in this city. Benjamin is survived by a widow and son. The men lived in Eaton.

Pledges Support in Propaganda Fight

A resolution pledging the support of Cercles Francals to the American Legion in its stand against the series of German propaganda meetings to be held in all parts of the United States during the next two months was passed by the club at the meeting held last evening in the Women's Department Club parlors.

Miss Jeanne Badaire, French instructor of Arsenal Technical High School, gave a short talk on conditions in Alsace Lorraine. Miss Badaire passed the summer in France.

It was decided by the organization to hold the meetings regularly in the Department club. J. H. Nicolas, president of the society, presided.
