OFFICERS FIND PRIZE SOBBIST

Chester Surface Located at Salem.

Special to The Times.
GREENSBURG, Ind., March 3.—Sheriff Harry Braden has gone to Salem in answer to a telegram received by the local manager of the Western Union, stating that Chester Surface, the man who passed $4,000 in a safe at the Indianapolis Western Union office recently, had been arrested there and was being held awaiting word from local authorities.

Surface passed the worthless check here recently when a sob story was put up by him that a car was in arrears, awaiting a surgical operation, and had to have the money to cover the costs. The local manager accepted the check in payment of the transfer. It is understood Surface lives in Indianapolis and that he recently deserted his wife and child, who still reside there.

Lafayette Woman Hurt Here in Spill

Miss Catherine Wallace of Lafayette was cut and bruised when an automobile in which she was riding with her mother, Mrs. Mamie Wallace, driven by Henry Brockenhough, chauffeur, turned over at Meridian and Forty-Sixth streets. The automobile collided with an automobile driven by Mrs. Thomas C. Dow, 4835 North Illinois street.

Mrs. Isabelle Jackson, 18, 83½ Ordern street, was cut and bruised when she was struck by an automobile on Pennsylvania and North streets. She was sent home. The police did not learn the name of the driver of the automobile.

Mrs. Anna Harbison, 43, 2848 McPherson street, was injured when she fell from a street car at Twenty-Ninth street and Cornell avenue. She was sent home in a taxicab. Her injuries are said not to be serious.

Mary C. Cross, 47, 107 College avenue, was slightly injured when hit by an automobile driven by Leopold Tuteur, 614 East Twenty-First street. The accident was at Fifteenth street and Central avenue.

Werneck Fined $100 on Speeding Charge

Joseph Werneck, 23, 805 North Illinois street, drew the stiffest fine for speeding since the new scale was made by Judge Walter Pritchard in city court yesterday. Werneck when he was fined $100 and costs.

Werneck was arrested Feb. 13 by William Brooks, motorcycle officer. In court Werneck said this was his second offense.

Charles Blake, 252 South Rural street, was fined $30 and costs on a charge of speeding.

Three 13s in Row Bring Man Bad Luck

The figure 13 proved especially unlucky in the case of an owner of an automobile with license No. 1313. The owner is Medus Gavelle, 1331 North Pennsylvania and was arrested yesterday evening at Illinois and Washington streets by Trafficman McCarty, who recognized the number as that of a car whose owner had been ordered to the office of Traffic Captain Claude Johnson at two different times, but failed to show up.

Officer Rader arrested Gavelle Feb. 27, when he violated the parking ordinance and had to be arrested to see Captain Johnson. On Feb. 25 Officer McCarty arrested Gavelle for turning in the middle of the block and he again failed to report.

CASE MARCH 19

Marion County Bond Jumper
Goes to Shelbyville—
Other Trials Set.

Special to The Times.
SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 3.—The Marion County Criminal Court will make an effort to put Edward Stevens, alleged eggman, who failed to appear in the Marion County Criminal Court some weeks ago, on trial on March 19 on a charge of grand larceny. Stevens gave a cash bond in Marion County and was released from jail when he failed to appear for trial before Judge James A. Collins. Stevens is under a $1,000 cash bond here.

Carl Bernauer, who has received favors from Judge Collins of the Marion County Criminal Court, will go to trial March 21, according to the new court calendar. He is charged with murder and grand larceny of a vehicle stealing. Bernauer venzed the murder charge to this county and is in jail here.

Many cases referred to this county from Marion County have been set for trial during the March term of court, which opens Monday, March 14.

Hearing of the complaint of Edward Stevens against Leo K. Fesler, auditor of Marion County, and other Marion County officials, for an injunction, is set for March 16; the complaint which was sent here in November, 1918, seeks to enjoin the county officials from paying more than 40 cents a day for meals served to prisoners in the Marion County jail.

Washington Hocks' home has been brightened by the arrival of a new phonograph, which came yesterday. Wash says one beauty about a phonograph is that it doesn't have to practice just as it begins to sing and play.

New Candy Factory for Shelbyville

Special to The Times.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 3.—Artificial candy, incorporating the latest in the secret of State for the Crisp Candy Company, a new manufacturing concern for Shelbyville. The concern has a capital stock of $10,000. The company succeeds the Fairland Candy Company, which has been operating since a damaging fire in its plant last year.

Chris Stachowski was elected president of the company; Harry L. Lawson, vice president; H. A. Montgomery, treasurer, and Edwin Soler, secretary. Harry A. Ulrich, manager and owner of the Fairland concern, has been appointed superintendent of the new company.

Twenty-five girls will be employed at the plant here when it is opened.

When your personality is radiated as it is in Moorefield's photographs—then the prints are highly appreciated and enjoyed by your family and your friends. Come today for a sitting.

START MARCH 7

Young men and women thoroughly qualified for good office positions have probably been least affected by changing business conditions. There have been some readjustments, but the demand for such help is quite active. Bookkeepers, stenographers, accountants, and secretaries, help to handle the more vital affairs of business. Their connection taken on more the individual basis, however, is the best way to find a place. BUSINESS TRAINING. Now is the time to attend BUSINESS COLLEGE. If anything interfered with your starting February 28, don't wait, but be on hand next Monday, March 7. See, write or telephone Fred W. Case, Principal.
