

POOR MOMMER PEACHUM FAINTS
When Daughter Polly Marries for Love

Rogues they are, every one of them. There is not an honorable man or an honest woman" among the two dozen characters introduced in Mr. Gay's famous English ballad opera, "The Beggar's Opera," which was revealed last night at the Murat by the original London company which was brought to this country for the United New York tour.

The men are highwaymen, a lawyer, who aids in promoting and increasing the class of suitable candidates for the gallows, a jester whose "hospitability" is controlled by the size of the coin placed in his palm and the women are referred to as "jades," "wenches" and other terms applied in 1729, the time period of the opera.

The Peachums have a pretty daughter named Polly who is handy in snatching a watch and is useful to her "fond" parents in their trade of combining the practice of law with the gentle art of concealing stolen goods. They have "high hopes" for their daughter Polly. Marriage? No. What did they raise the

MARRIED

MRS. AND MRS. TOM MOORE.
Here they are, fans. Tom Moore, a movie favorite, and Renee Adoree, a well-known musical comedy actress, have been married. Soon after the ceremony the couple started work on a new movie, which will be called "Made in Heaven." It is only the title of the picture and not relating to Tom's marriage. It might turn out that way. We hope so.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into crop or worse. And then's when you'd glad to have a jar of Musterole at hand to give promote, sure relief. It does not blister. As first aid and a remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosty feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 5c and 6c Jars; Hospital Size $3.00

—Advertisement

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL
DEAFNESS AND HEAD
NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment (one-half pint) and add to it 14 pints of hot water and one ounce granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial. —Advertisement.

Question: What is "Overworked Nerves?"

Answer: Nervous Exhaustion
—Neurasthenia

Question: What are the symptoms? Answer: Almost as many as the victims. Question: Which symptoms predominate? Answer: Victim's ordinary duties cannot be successfully accomplished. The book-keeper can't add; the seamstress can't thread a needle; the man can't do his office work; the wife abhors her duties; the husband fails in his duties; all are irritable, peevish, surly and gloomy. The wife's "temper" flies off at the least provocation and unhappiness is ever present. All this is caused by deficient metabolic processes, which, simply stated, means that the "nerves" need food which is not replenished, as nature requires and the nerve force diminishes. Nerve Force is the power of your body; it is comparable to a motor car. Overworked nerves are just like a faulty motor. Repairs must be made. Cadomene is the "mechanic," food, and fuel that your nervous system needs. Two or three small tablets a day for your blood and nerves should quickly respond to this. Cadomene treatment. Cadomene tablets renew the Nerve Force, as no other medicine does. Try it. —Advertisement

STOP ITCHING SKIN

Zemo the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blisters, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Macheath utters a sigh and mutters, "Tis too much," as he is led to the gallows.

While the procession is on the playwright and the producer appear and demand that the condemned should be spared death, the ending being changed by the granting of a reprieve which permits Macheath to continue his existence on the globe where he has six wives.

The opera ends with the six wives, four of them with babies in their arms, dancing around a May pole.

I have tried in my own way to give you a picture of the play. The delicious fun, quiet buffoonery, rough wit and keen satire behind many of the delicious scenes in "The Beggar's Opera," as it is now being presented at the Murat with a most excellent company.

Sylvia Nels is the sweet and gentle Polly who shocks her dear mother by marrying for love. Mommer never heard of such a thing. Miss Nels has a sweet voice, not strong, but clear, true and splendidly controlled. Arthur Wynan plays Peachum with a fine understanding of roguish art. Percy Henning is Macheath and gives the character the needed humorous and easy way of dealing with the rôle. Fedora Roselli strikes dramatic note in the proceedings by being one of the "wives" of Mac-heath.

Probably the outstanding and sterling portrayal in the gallery of rogues is the Mrs. Peachum of Lena Matilda. Even the gin-soaked nose, very red one, ill-humored as effectively as the footlights. Her work is of the highest order.

The other members of the company are adequate and the general result is the singing of some deliciously old-fashioned songs in a way that the audience will appreciate. The company would be proud to obtain. The orchestra is small but splendidly trained and directed.

Opinion: If you enjoy a delicious evening do not pass up "The Beggar's Opera." Don't be frightened away from the Murat this week. Fear this is the last of the old-fashioned and too highbrow.

This is the stuff that does so much good to those who are tired and disgusted with the shoulder shaking demonstrations on the stage today.

At the Murat for the remainder of the week—W. D. H.

—

ON VIEW TODAY.

Other attractions on view today include Thurston, a magician, at English's; Mrs. Gene Hughes in "Contented

Peggy," at the Lyric; combination movies and vaudeville at Loew's State; vaudeville and movies at the Broadway; "My Honolulu

Girl," a musical comedy, at the Rialto;

"The Joy Riders" at the Park; "Isobel"

at the Circle; "The Road to Ambition"

at the Colonial; "The Price of Possessions" at the Indiana; "The Money

Worth While" at the Iroquois; "The

Worth While" at the Ohio and "The Road Demon" at the Regent.

KIWANIS TO GET CHARTER.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., March 9, 1921.—The newly organized Hartford City Kiwanis Club will receive its charter March 23.

Several visiting club members are expected to attend the banquet which will be served at that time.

—

ON VIEW TODAY.

Other attractions on view today include Thurston, a magician, at Eng-

lish's; Mrs. Gene Hughes in "Contented

Peggy," at the Lyric; combination movies and vaudeville and movies at the Broadway; "My Honolulu

Girl," a musical comedy, at the Rialto;

"The Joy Riders" at the Park; "Isobel"

at the Circle; "The Road to Ambition"

at the Colonial; "The Price of Possessions" at the Indiana; "The Money

Worth While" at the Iroquois; "The

Worth While" at the Ohio and "The Road Demon" at the Regent.

—

HE WAS IN BAD SHAPE

Any person who is suffering with rheumatic, rheumatism, rheumatoid, rheumatism, or other symptoms of kidney trouble can profit if he wishes from this:

"My kidneys were in such bad shape that I could hardly stoop down. Poler Kidney Pills made all right. Samuel Holt, Greenville, Pa." Sold everywhere.

—Advertisement

—

WHEN THE DAY IS OVER

When the household cares and the worries of everyday life have overcome you, and there is nothing in life but headache, backache, and worries, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by

Dr. Pierce fifty years ago.

Kokomo, Ind.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite

Prescription has helped me. I took it when I was ill and it helped me get well again in a short time. I have had the same trouble for years and I have had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have

had the same trouble for years and I have had the same trouble for years and I have