REDSKINS OFF ON FIRST LEG OF HOME TRIP

Games at New Orleans and Baton Rouge Will Close Southern Card.

THINGS LOOKIN' GOOD

Dr. Eddie Ash, Daily Times Sports Editor, CROWLEY, La., March 29.—Jack Hendricks, Indiana, and Crowley, Louisiana, are expected to meet in a two-game series with the Brooklyn Nationals Wednesday.

The Hoosiers broke training camp amid typical Southern aches and the baseball managers were urged to be patient. Hendricks is expected to be in the first game of the series, but he did not commit himself definitely regarding his next year's spring training plans because of business reasons.

Only one day of practice was missed and that was Monday, the new season began today before departing. The breeze became too frigid for a regular workout and to try the full season, Hendricks is in shape, Manager Hendricks assured a vacation proclamation.

Charles, a phenom pitcher, probably will draw the Triple pitching assignment for the first Brooklyn game in New Orleans Wednesday and it is expected that he will be in the line-up at New Orleans. Outfielder Bob Kinsella is expected to be in the line-up at New Orleans. Manager Hendricks desires to hurry Hendricks into the line-up at New Orleans, showing the improvement expected and it is expected that he will be able to bring back into action for another week.

Manager Hendricks failed to hear from Hendricks from Owner Powers of the Los Angeles team regarding his return to the club. Hendricks is expected to be in the line-up at New Orleans. F. C. Clemens, Kokomo, has been named matchmaker for the organization of the Kokomo Rubber Company, formed for the holding of wrestling and boxing matches. The company is expected to hold a gymnasium for holding the matches.

Mr. Clemens desires to hear from managers of wrestlers and boxers.

Larry McLean Was Own Worst Enemy: Career a Varied One

His Laughs at Discipline Cost Him Job, and, Finally, Life.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Larry McLean, killed in a season brawl in Boston recently, was a quiet character.

The old saying, "he was his own worst enemy," only too truly describes him in the sport game, applies in his case. Everybody who knew Larry liked him, and only his weakness for the merry-go-round life prevented him from being a better player.

McLean was a big man for his position, weighing over 200 pounds. He had a strong arm and could hit hard.

McLean was a natural hitter. In the winter of 1913, he was a member of the Boston team.

Famous Indian to Coach Boilermaker Gridiron Warriors

Dietz, Former Carlisle Star, Named to Succeed 'Butch' Scanlon at Purdue.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., March 29.—The glad news that Purdue has at last signed a football coach was set loose yesterday afternoon by Athletic Director Kellogg.

The new coach, William H. Dietz, although never having the publicity that has been received by several of the prominent mentors of today, has a good record to back him when he takes up his work at Purdue April 4, the opening of spring football practice.

He played on the Indian team in 1907, 1908, 1909 and 1910. The first and last years being a big factor in defeating Harvard. In each of those years, Carlisle lost one game. The three years following the Indians were again in the hands of Coach Warner in turning out strong elevens.

In 1910, 1911 and 1912 he took up the reins of coaching the Washington State University of Pullman, Wash. The first and last years being a big factor in defeating Harvard. TEX'S NEMESIS Eleventh-Hour Offers Set Back Indefinitely Naming of City.

NEW YORK, March 29.—An eleventh-hour change of offers for the Dempsey-Carpenter fight today resulted in further delay in naming the city.

Tex Rickard is in a quandary. He has until April 10 to name the city, but he has not yet decided on a name.

Two conferences today were scheduled to consummate the major portion of the promoter's plan.

Walter C. Percival, who says he represents a syndicate headed by Solly Joel, offered $500,000 for the match, which was scheduled to be held in Rickard's arena.

The business session of the board of directors of the Public Library building in Gary, a luncheon will be held at the Y. M. C. A. The visitors will be given an auto ride and the city will be taken through the steel mills.
