Indians Home, Ready to Burn Wide Pennant Trail

Chief Jack Brings Back Classiest Squad of His Indianapolis Career—Everything Rosy for Big Exhibition Games, Then the A. A. Struggle—Covington Will Be Ready for Opening Game.

LOYAL FANS TENDER PLAYERS GREAT RECEPTION

By EDDIE ASH,
Daily Times Sports Editor.

Tanned by southern sunshine and in the best shape of any team Jack Hendricks ever brought out of Dixieland, the Indians of 1921 landed back home today, ready to meet three big league clubs and the Butler College line in exhibition games as a final tuning up for the start of the American Association season here April 13.

Leaving Indianapolis March 2, the Hoosiers pitched camp at Crowley, La., there later, and then to the Gulf of Mexico, where they worked out in that city and other Dixie points. It can be said that nearly every member of the squad is in shape to go at his best pace.

Covington is the only player badly cut, and his injury will be healed in about ten days. The Hoosiers made a fine impression during their long stay in the South and their record speaks for itself. They won two games and tied two with the Philadelphia Athletics, lost two close ones to the St. Louis Cardinals, defeated two college nines, lost a hard-fought contest to Babe Ruth and company, broke even with the Brooklyn Nationals, and won two in a two-game series and closed their Dixie training schedule with a victory over a strong semi-pro team.

That the defense of the Tribe is going to be air-tight was demonstrated by their extra inning battles engaged in, in which the Indians did not lose a decision. In two of the extra round affairs the Hoosiers finished with the score knotted, and in the third they defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers in eleven innings.

Manager Hendricks believes he has the best infield roster of any minor league team and big league managers who saw the Indians in the South agreed with this opinion. Covington, Sickles, Schreiber and Baird make up the inner works, with Louisa and Cleveland utility men, and of this number it is believed that both Covington and Baird will hit in the clutch. Cleveland, third base but hardly will beat the veteran and steady batsman, A. A. outfielder Hendricks expects to see both Red and Kissella slug the ball in the 300 class.

Shiners has been improving gradually, and no doubt will be a big factor in the season ahead. Morrison and Van Dyke, rookies, have been making strong bids for the starting position. Morrison will make the grade and be retained for developing purposes. Behind the bat, the team has a strong enough. Both Gossett and Dixon are

Tiger Diamond Men Prepare for First Game on Home Lot

Rose Poly Contest Expected to Retrieve Saturday's Defeat.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., April 5.—De Pauw baseball men are working hard in preparation for their first home game, despite the loss of their only veteran twirler, Joe Glascock, who was declared ineligible on the eve of the first contest, played with Purdue at Lafayette Saturday.

Rose Poly is scheduled to meet the Old Gold nine here Saturday. The game scheduled with Franklin to be played there April 7, has been cancelled, as well as the return tilt scheduled for June 4, because there were more games on the Old Gold card than the rules of the university would allow.

Coxes Buchheit and Joseph were convinced by Saturday's game that the members of the De Pauw diamond squad have real ability and are striving this week to develop it. Although Saturday was the first time Mark Bills ever appeared in the pitcher's box in a real game, there is little doubt in the minds of the coaches but that he will develop into a steady curve tosser, while Joe Fournier is expected to do the best work of last year's regulars.

Manager Riskey, knowing that he was overworked last season, expects him to be one of the best hurlers in the big league this season. The infield also became complicated with the refusal of Milton Stock to report. Horroby was transferred to third base and has been doing well and Fournier is getting a chance to show his stuff. Fournier is back on first base and Lavan is still at shortstop. Eight catchers started the spring season, but only three

Other positions on the nine practically have been named, at least for the time being. Slutz is on the receiving end, Captain Elwyn is looking good at first, along with Fournier, who is being selected to face Fisher's position in the right garden slot as he will be the only utility pitcher. The other two gardeners are tended by Davis and Krumbeiner.

At present Coach Buchheit is looking for a dual track meet for April 22. If a meet cannot be scheduled for that date the Tiger relay team probably will attend the Drake relays at Des Moines. Tiger tennis fans began playing elimination contests today to select the four men who will represent the De Pauw net team to be played at Illinois University, April 30.

There are others who were implicated and who have not yet been implicated. Attorney Short told Judge McDonald, who called for a reduction in bonds for the new indictments against the players, that the amount of $24,000, Judge McDonald reduced them to $7,500 each.

Purdue Nine After Wabash Scalp in Revenge for Two Trouncings in Net Game

FIVE ROUNDS OF PATIENCE

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—For nearly five rounds last night Rocky Kanas, the Buffalo lightweight, waited for a chance to put over his promised knockout of Bob Ward. With the fifth exactly two minutes gone, the chance came. Rocky asserted his right with terrific force under Ward's heart, and as the St. Paul pug staggered under the force of the blow, Kanas sent in a left hook to the jaw, and Ward went down.

Jack Josephs, of Minneapolis, defeated Johnnie Noye of St. Paul. Babe Warming, of Portland, defeated Benjie Vogel of Milwaukee in ten rounds.

NEW YORK, April 5.—(Strangler) Lewis of San Jose, Cal., world's heavyweight, was defeated by a meeting champion, Monday night boxer Peewee of Ravenna, Neb., with a bar and arm lock after waiting 1 hour 34 minutes and 32 seconds.

The side chancery, or headlock hold, was barred and at times the champion seemed to be at a loss without the use of it. It was announced that Lewis will meet Stanislaus Zyzosko of Poland in a Polish match with the end of this month, the net proceeds of the contest going to the suffering poor of Ireland.

Peewee was the aggressor for the better part of the bout, but the superior strength of Lewis, who weighed 222 pounds to the challenger's 185, finally made itself felt.

CLINE SUSPENDED. NEW YORK, April 5.—Suspension of Irish Cline, Harlem welterweight, and Johnny Keyes, manager of Willie Spivey, said side business was announced Monday in a statement by the Boxing Commission and the License Committee. Cline was suspended pending a hearing, as a result of his disqualification in a bout at Rochester last night. Cline was suspended pending a hearing for an assault on Samuel Goldman, Pete Herman's manager, following the recent Herman-Spivey bout.

HERMAN WINS IN SEVENTH. FREEPORT, N. Y., April 5.—Pete Herman, former bantamweight champion, defeated Johnny Solberg of Brooklyn here last night, the referee stopping the fight in the seventh round. Solberg had been floored several times.

BOGASH-O'GATTY MATCHED. NEW YORK, April 5.—Louis Bogash, Bridgeport welterweight aspirant, will meet Jimmy O'Gatty in a fifteen-round bout tonight at the Pines. Champion Jack Britton has promised to meet the winner.

LOTS OF TIME. COLUMBUS, O., April 5.—Earl Caddock won the 400-yard race for 2 hours 10 minutes last night before he pinned George Kotsanaros, Columbus. Caddock used a head scissors and arm lock.

FREAK AND FIND FOR CARDS

By SID KEENER,
Sports Editor St. Louis Times.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—One genuine find and one baseball freak have been brought in by the St. Louis Cardinals this season. The find is Arthur Rivera, a 21-year-old right-hand pitcher from the Texas bush and the freak is George Toporcer, New York semi-professional, who plays second base and wears glasses.

Both have clinched jobs on the team. Penitent prospects for the Cards swing about the improvement in pitching and the chance of finding these regulars out of the new material.

Besides Al Walker from the Southern League and Bill Pertica from the South Pacific Coast League are fine pitching prospects.

Walker, a lean right-hander with a "smoke ball," has made the grade, but Pertica has not entirely passed the test. Jessie Haines is expected to do the best work of last year's regulars.

Manager Riskey, knowing that he was overworked last season, expects him to be one of the best hurlers in the big league this season. The infield also became complicated with the refusal of Milton Stock to report.

NEW YORK, April 5.—R. H. Frazer, president of the Boston American League club, confirmed here the statement of St. Paul's first baseman, who has been suspended from the team for a month, that he had been offered a contract by the Boston Americans for $25,000 a year.

Two former and present members of the team were expected to oppose each other on the mound. Wagner was to do the hurling for St. Paul, while Sherman was to pitch for the Bostonians. The latter was expected to use the same line-up against Wabash that he used in the De Pauw game.

First will be behind the bat. Struck on his head by a second baseman and Murphy on his head by a third baseman, the shortstop position. In the field, Gum, White and H. H. Fawcett were expected to be placed. Stanwold's grove was to be placed. Stanwold's grove was to be placed. Stanwold's grove was to be placed.

SPRING INJURIES MAY WRECK HOPES

NEW YORK, April 5.—Training trips have been unusually hard this spring on some of the pennant contending clubs in the major leagues.

Injuries and illness encountered on spring training have brought to light some interesting figures on reserved strength that may prove a big factor in deciding the pennants.

The two New York clubs have swallowed extra doses of hard luck. At one time three of the regular Giant infielders were out of the game and McGraw's lack of capable substitutes was strikingly apparent. Frisch, Rapp and Bancroft will start the season, but Rapp and Bancroft will be bound to show the effects of illness. If anything happens to Frisch who in his brief career is making a strong bid for the "mixed" honors, the Giants will be in a bad way.

The Yankees haven't been so unfortunate and Miller Huggins is much better off and may be as good in the early part of the race. Of course, the Babe couldn't have his shoes filled by any one on the bench, but Roth will not be missed.

The Cleveland Indians will be hit badly by the fact that the small bone in Bill Wambagans' arm turns out as badly as feared.

This speaker hasn't any substitute able to fill the shoes of a really great second baseman, whose absence of a month or so at the start of the season might give some of the other contending clubs a big lead.

MOBILE, Ala., April 5.—Bill Wambagans, Cleveland American League infielder, and one of the big factors in that club's victory in the world's series championship last year, has a crack in a small bone in the lower right arm and it is said he will be out of the game for at least four weeks.

Wambagans sustained the injury while in practice in Houston Sunday. Upon his arrival here today an X-ray examination was made and this was said to have disclosed the fracture.

OFFERED DODGER BERTH. BOSTON, April 5.—Tom McCarthy, baseball coach of Boston College, has been offered a contract with the Brooklyn Nationals to become assistant to Wilbert Robinson, team manager. F. A. Reynolds, graduate manager of athletics for Boston, said the institution would accept McCarthy's resignation, provided a $12 man could be found to take his place. McCarthy's contract with the college has a year to run. He has been coach of the nine for two seasons.

CORRIDOR GETS AWAY. LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 5.—Johnny "Red" Baker, former member of the Cubs, left Monday for Oklahoma City, Okla., where he will join the St. Joseph club. Baker had been offered a conditional release from the St. Paul Association club yesterday morning.

KAUFF OUT. LANCASTER, Ohio, April 5.—With the recovery of Benny Kauff, famous outfielder of the New York Giants, National League baseball team, from a siege of diphtheria, the quarantine was lifted from his home here Monday. He will join his team this week, he said.

SAINTS IN EVANSVILLE. EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 5.—The St. Paul Saints, who have been doing their spring training at Dawson Springs, Ky., left Monday for Evansville, Ind., to play exhibition games with the local Three-I League team.

CUBS HEAD HOME. YUMA, Ariz., April 5.—The Cubs today were heading east on a practice game tour. They play Wichita, Kan., at Hutchinson tomorrow.

TO VISIT ROUSH. CINCINNATI, April 5.—Directors of the Cincinnati ball club met yesterday and announced that they had not changed their minds concerning the team's trip down to Oakland, Ind., where Roush lives, when the team plays a make-up game, and have a talk with him. It is understood that Roush has demanded a three-year contract at an increase over the $5,000 paid him last year. The directors said the increase is impossible, but they may agree to a three-year contract.

BAKER MUST WAIT TURN. CHICAGO, April 5.—The application of J. Franklin ("Home Run") Baker, formerly with the New York Americans, for reinstatement to organized baseball is still waiting a hearing before the National League baseball commission, headed by Judge Landis. The hearing is expected to be held on July 21, at which time Mr. O'Connor's statement was made in connection with reports that Baker had refused to furnish information and would remain suspended.

There are so many applications before the commissioner, Mr. O'Connor said, that each one has to be considered in the order it is received. Baker's application has been held up and in the meantime he has been requested to give an

HAWTHORN WILL TRY NEW COURT

Stone Dust Experiment Expected to Do Away With Rain Troubles in Tennis.

An experiment with stone dust courts will be made this year by the Hawthorn Tennis Club, according to a decision by the club directors Monday. Last year's rainy weather hampered outdoor play because the clay courts do not dry rapidly enough, and the club decided to follow the example of the West Side Tennis Club, Chicago, which has pioneered with stone dust courts. It is planned to build two courts of stone dust and try them out this year. If they are as fast as the other Hawthorn courts and stand the wear and tear as well as the clay, besides drying more rapidly after showers, the club will take up the question of making all its courts of powdered stone.

President Ed J. Wuenesch announced that other improvements will be made, including work on the clubhouse, grading of the grounds and revision of the drainage system. A practice court with a blackboard against which ambitious players may develop their service is anticipated.

Mr. Wuenesch also announced a new policy of the club as regards membership. In the future this membership is to be limited to 100, this action being necessary because the eight courts of the club will not care for more players comfortably. Last year the roll was 137 members. All the old members will be eligible, but no new ones will be admitted if 100 old players return. The directors plan to adhere to this policy until the club is ready to build more courts. Junior members and women members are included because their memberships will give them the courts in the earlier hours of the day. Old members are urged to renew their memberships at once if they wish to play this year.

First Tryout of A. B. Cs Shows Men in Good Form

The A. B. Cs had their first tryout yesterday at Northwestern park and sixteen regulars and recruits went through a four-hour practice under the watchful eyes of the Taylor brothers, coach and player, playing manager, says he is well pleased with his bunch. Report from last year there are ten more men on hand, although most of the members of the team have not reported as regulars who have been playing ball in California, Cuba and Florida. These men are thoroughly seasoned slugs and are expected to be a big factor in the team's success.

WITH THE AMATEURS and SEMI-PROS by Charles Logan

The Sunday School League will meet next Thursday night at the
