DERBY SERIES
NEXT ON CARD
OF TRIBESMENIndians Ready for Annual
Feature Trip to Home of Colonels.

BASEBALL, BOXING, RACE

Continuation of post-season winter tour forced the postponement of the series wind-up game between Colonels and Indians. It looked like the middle of winter at Washington Park this morning and Managers McCarthy and Hendricks were both glad when hostilities were declared off.

Tomorrow the Hoosiers beat it for Louisville for the annual big feature series in the Colonels town. Games are carded there Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday, but baseball will not be the only attraction for players and fans. On Friday night Joe Lynch, bantam champion, will defend his title over the twelve-round route with Pal Moore of Memphis and the scrap is expected to be a thriller. Moore is rated one of the leading contenders for the midwest crown and it is almost certain that he will give Lynch a terrific fight. On Saturday the ball players get a vacation to take in the Kentucky Derby, the classic of the turf.

The feature boxing match, Derby and baseball form a great drawing card and hundreds of Hoosiers are planning to camp in Louisville for the weekend. The Indians sports always remain over a day following the Derby, in order to witness the Sunday ball battle between the Indians and Colonels. The rooting is terrific at these games, and on several occasions in the past fanfests between the rival rooting sections was narrowly averted.

The Indians are facing a long road trip and the task is going to be heavy. After meeting the Colonels in their home town, the Tribe will hop for four days northwest to play at St. Paul and Minneapolis. Then the team will visit Milwaukee and Kansas City before returning home to tangle with the Colonels again, starting May 25.

The pitching staff needs bolstering in a hurry and there were signs today in training that the Indians will visit Milwaukee and Kansas City before returning home to tangle with the Colonels again, starting May 25.

LONDON, May 3.—Joe Beckett, heavyweight champion of England: "I never have seen Dempsey. However, I have heard that he is a great fighter and a hard hitter. I know what Carpenter can do, but I think if Dempsey is as fast as he is said to be he will win. It should be a great contest. I hope to be there and see the fight and challenge the winner."
