MANILA HONORS GENERAL WOOD

Guns Boom Salute as President Harding's Emissary Enters Harbor.

MANILA, P. I., May 4.—High honors were paid Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood upon his arrival here today with W. Cameron Forbes, former Governor-General of the Philippines, on board the transport Warren.

When the big naval vessel steamed into the harbor a seventeen-gun salute boomed forth from the forts and naval vessels in the harbor. Admiral Strauss, commanding the Asiatic fleet, Gen. Randall Kerran and Charles E. Yeater, Vice Governor of the islands, each accompanied by an aide, boarded the transport at the breakwaters to greet the emissary of President Harding and his party.

A large crowd gathered at the pier but admission was only by card. The pier was gaily decorated and as General Wood stepped ashore between the ranks of the Philippine army, the Philippine band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

After being tendered the courtesy of the port, escorted by the 21st Infantry, the party proceeded in automobiles to Malacanang Palace, while with their headquarters during their stay here.

Both Wood and Forbes will rank as Governor Generals while here.

OPERATE ON STAR TO RID BOW LEGS

'You Can Buy Color, but Legs, No,' Says Prima Donna.

CHICAGO, May 4.—Short skirts and bowed legs make a poor combination. So Mrs. Edna Hodges, wife of Jimmy Hodges, and prima donna in her husband's musical company, is having her legs straightened. Her legs were broken by Dr. Max Thorek at the American hospital here.

For six weeks Mrs. Hodges will be forced to stay in bed and another six weeks will be spent on a wheel chair. Mrs. Rebecca Newcomer of Williamsport, Pa., mother of the patient, was with her daughter during the operation.

"I am going to give my husband the surprise of his life when I get out of here," she said. "I am going to get my pictures taken in a one-piece bathing suit."

A nurse told Mrs. Hodges she had lost color during the operation. "You can buy color—but legs, no," Mrs. Hodges declared.

INDIANA COAL DEALERS OPEN 3-DAY SESSION

Public Invited to Attend Meetings and Listen to Addresses.

EXPERTS WILL SPEAK

Several hundred coal men, the van of the 600 to 800 expected at the fifth annual convention of the Indiana Retail Coal Merchants' Association, arrived in Indianapolis today for the sessions which will be held for three days at the Elips Smith tabernacle.

The popular conception of "coal barons" was conspicuous by its absence. The "baron" idea doesn't fit the earnest, business-like group of men who are gathering here to discuss most seriously how they can help prevent another coal shortage and higher prices this winter. In an effort to awaken the public to the danger of a coal famine, the speakers here to discuss most seriously how they can help prevent another coal shortage and higher prices this winter. In an effort to awaken the public to the danger of a coal famine, the speakers here to discuss most seriously how they can help prevent another coal shortage and higher prices this winter.

CONVENTION OPENS WITH EXPOSITION. The convention opened at noon with the "Better Business Exposition" at the tabernacle, a complete display of coal appliances, devices for handling, etc. Many of the machines are designed to improve the economical handling of coal and are in line with the dealers' desire to hold down cost of operation at his end. It is pointed out that there is little chance of reducing operating costs at the mines because the wage scales of miners will continue until April 1922.

DEFENDS MODERN AMERICAN GIRL Italian Professor Says She Is Satisfactory Product.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—There is nothing wrong with the modern American girl. There is nothing wrong or immoral about her short skirts and cigarette smoking.

Such is the conclusion of Dr. Bruno Roselli, first Italian exchange professor, now teaching at Vassar College. He came to the defense of the modern American girl in an address to the first American convention of the American Waldensian Aid Society here today.

"It isn't fair to compare the American girl of today with the Abigails and Patience in the New England churchyards," Professor Roselli said. "The modern American girl is a product of her time and her environment. She is a satisfactory product of her time and her environment."

"I can speak particularly of the young American college girl," Roselli said. "And I can honestly say that I find her a far more satisfactory product than her European sister. She has commendable courage of her convictions and is beautiful physically and mentally. Too often the student of continental Europe is a dried-up and embittered girl."

FOREIGN TRADE, MEETING THEME

Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, who is chairman of the council. PRICES NOT TO BE STABILIZED PRESENT YEAR

Economic Survey of American Bankers' Association Shows Trend.

INTEREST RATE STEADY

PINEBURST, N. C., May 4.—Complete stabilization of commodity prices may not be expected this year; the prospect for summer retail trade is "fair to poor" and interest rates will remain stationary this year, according to the economic survey drawn up by John S. Drum, president of the American Bankers' Association and submitted at today's session of that organization.

Drum's report was drawn after a voluminous amount of material in answer to a questionnaire had been obtained from 1,000 men, prominent in industry and finance throughout the country. The report shows business conditions as of April, this year.

Other conclusions developed by the survey are:

1. Sentiment almost unanimous in favor of repeal of excess profits tax.
2. Considerable majority in favor of sales tax.
3. Great majority opposed to cancellation of allied debts to United States.
4. The situation resulting from cancellation of contracts is very serious in industrial States, although less serious than in the fall and winter of 1920.
5. Manufacturers and exporters are relaxing their efforts in making sales to foreign countries.

THE NECESSITY of Good Teeth

A FIRST-CLASS workman will not attempt to do good work with poor tools. Practical experience tells him that good tools in good condition are a necessity to produce work that will be satisfactory. It's a simple reason that poor, uneven, partly decayed teeth will produce a digestion that causes ill health. To improve the condition of your teeth will not only improve their usefulness but improve digestion and health.

PAINLESS EXTRACTING That teeth can be extracted painlessly is proved by the testimonials of our friends and patients.

You are welcome to use my name in recommendation of your work in extracting teeth. I experienced no pain.

Panama Considers U. S. 'Ultimatum'

PANAMA CITY, May 4.—"Full consideration" was being given by the Panama government today to the latest note of Secretary of State Hughes, warning Panama to turn over to Costa Rica the territory granted to Costa Rica under the Loubet and White awards. President Porras of Panama said he would have no statement to make until the contents of the note had been fully digested by the administration and by leading citizens who were being called into consultation. This city is quiet and the people have apparently lost all interest in the Panama-Costa Rica dispute.
