Heirs of Eccentric Rich Man

One of the most amazing stories brought to light in New York has been revealed in the death of Calvin Amory Stevens. Stevens, a millionaire, lived as a recluse in the heart of New York's financial district, while his wife and daughter lived in a beautiful mansion in Brooklyn. Complications have now resulted over the will, which is missing. It is estimated he left a $15,000,000 estate. A few days before his death, his daughter Katherine eloped with Richard Fagan, a 20-year-old Dartmouth University student. Mrs. Fagan is 18 years old. The illustration shows Mrs. Stevens, his widow, his daughter Katherine and Calvin Stevens de Souza, his 5-year-old grandson, who are expected to share in the fortune left by the eccentric millionaire.
