

THEY HAVE TO SHAKE THE COVERS

To Find Lord Roberts in the Morning

A "feller" certainly needs a friend when he is grown up and is so small that they have to shake the covers in the morning to find out if he is still in bed. When they call Lord Roberts, who is "24" years old and is ten hands high and weighs only forty-eight pounds, they have to shake the bed covers. This morning he was mixed up with a pillow sheet, but he was in bed just the same. Although Lord Roberts is only ten hands high, he is a high-priced vaude-

MEET FLORENCE

Florence Murphy is the winsome young person who plays the "perfect" stenographer in "A Tailor-Made Man," at Engle's this week. As a first-class secretary, Miss Murphy takes down notes, types, makes appointments and never gets things mixed up. So convincing is her playing of the role that we think she should be able to make money as a stenographer if she should ever prefer that work to acting. Next week Miss Murphy will have a part in "Scrambled Wives," the fifth bill of the Gregory Kelly Company.

ville actor and is heading the bill at Lee's State this week. I am married," Mr. Carl Levi of the Lee's interests took me back stage yesterday afternoon. The "Lord" was calmly seated in a little rocking chair—one of those toy affairs which children use for doll parties. He was dressed in a cute little dressing gown. Although he is small in height and little in weight he is as polite as if he was of average height.

Mr. Levi presented him with a good cigar, and as the little gentleman puffed contentedly, the cigar appeared to be about half as large as he is.

"You ask me where I got the 'Lord' handle of my name," he said. "I will tell you. There was another Lord Roberts. He was a general and when he died I used his name as my professional handle."

"I wanted to grow up but I couldn't. Oh, yes, I love the girls. I am married," Lord Roberts fixed his gaze at "twenty-four" but as I did not care to act in bad form, I refrained from asking him if he voted for Cleveland the first time.

Lord Roberts is the smallest ilk in captivity and he is proud of his membership in that order.

"And I play golf," he confessed. His golf score like his age rather confused me. It seemed to slide, increase and then shrink as he discussed the favorite sport of the Presidents.

There is no joke to this. Lord Roberts lives in New York and is said to be very wealthy. He has been successful in business and can write a real check for a large sum any old time.

"And tell 'em for me that I sleep in a man's size bed. No cradle for me," he smiled as he drew off his bath robe and started to "make up" for his act.

Lord Roberts, Mr. Levi, acting manager of Lee's, and the other acts on the bill will give a special show Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the Times' carriers and their helpers at Lee's.—W. D. H.

HERE IS A HOUSE THAT JAZZ BUILT. Based on the theory that unhappiness oftentimes follows close on the heels of riches, "The House That Jazz Built," a domestic drama starring Wanda Hawley, opened at the Alhambra today and for the rest of the week.

The central figures are a young married couple whose matrimonial bark was sailing along gloriously with the young folk living in poverty and enjoying every minute of it until prosperity came. The husband is appointed counsel for a large corporation at a salary that enables them to move into luxurious quarters.

Surrounded by servants and urged by her husband to let them do all the work, she soon finds time hanging so heavy on her hands that she has nothing to do but seek recreation in jazz cafes. She not only grows up, but fat as well.

Soon her husband's affections begin to wane and he grows interested in another young woman whose mother keeps the home fires burning brightly and displays good taste in arranging things. He urges his wife to get a divorce, but instead she awakens to the seriousness of her situation and determines to win him back. The course she adopts proves to be a strenuous and in the end a very successful one.

The picture is an adaptation of Sophie Kerr's story, "Sweetie Peach." Some extraordinary results from an art standpoint were achieved in its direction. Forrest Stanley, Gladys George and a well-balanced cast appear in support of Miss Hawley.

Other program features will consist of a Hall Room Boys farce, the Fox News Weekly and the Sherwoods and their singing orchestra.

STAGE AND SCREEN. Mr. Stuart Walker at the Murat has a winner in "The Wolf" and George Gaul. Both the play and the featured player are hanging up a new box office record for the opening week of stock.

The children are having a great time of it at the Lyric this week as Fred's Circus is on view. Fred has some well-trained ponies and a bucking mule. The mule is the favorite with the kiddies.

Sybil Vane has every reason to be happy because she is making quite a favorite of herself this week at Keith's. She will be one singer who will be welcomed on her return next season. A fine triumph, Miss Vane.

The Rialto is continuing its new policy of showing good and moving to good results. The Broadway has a new movie and vaudeville bill on view today.

"Bayer" on Genuine Aspirin—say "Bayer"

Purify Your Blood and Stop That Maddening Itch

Poor blood, sometimes full of dangerous germs, or impurities that should be cast off, causes many of the itching skin diseases that drive the afflicted almost mad.

When your blood is run down and impure, your general system gets so weak you haven't the nervous strength to bear the maddening itch, itch of your affliction bravely. This is why skin disease sufferers are snappy and irritable, unable to accomplish anything, and almost beside themselves with frantic nervousness.

Strike at the root of your trouble, the dangerous poisons and impurities in your blood, which manifest themselves by causing your itching eruptions. Renewed your blood condition, and whatever skin troubles are due to it will leave you. For this work, S.S.S., the famous old vegetable tonic and alternative, is as good a medicine as you can find. Thousands have stopped their torturous itching with it.

Get S.S.S. from your druggist right now, and start taking it. Then write us a history of your trouble. We will gladly give you expert medical advice free. Address your letter to Chief Medical Advisor, 828 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

The Man Who Gambles With His Health Is the Worst Kind of a Gambler

The end of the money gambler may be financial ruin—the end of the health gambler may be death and financial suicide as well.

Money gambling is recognized as such a serious menace to the welfare of human beings that it is prohibited by the most severe laws, yet THE MAN WHO GAMBLES WITH HIS HEALTH COMITS A FAR GREATER CRIME AGAINST HIMSELF THAN THE MAN WHO GAMBLES WITH HIS MONEY.

When you go on from day to day in a weak, nervous, run-down condition YOU ARE GAMBLING just as much as the man who sits at the gaming table and loses his money on the shake of the dice box, only he is gambling with his MONEY and you're gambling with your HEALTH, YOUR FUTURE and perhaps even YOUR LIFE.

Your vitality and powers of resistance are below par and you are in condition to become an EASY PREY to almost any of the THOUSANDS OF DISEASE GERMS that inhabit the minute particles of dust that you inhale; that float in the very air you breathe, that may already be lying dormant in your body waiting and waiting for you to become weak enough for them to attack, just LIKE A HUNGRY WILD BEAST STALKS ITS PREY.

You would not stake the health of your children nor the life of your wife on a guess of the color of a card, nor the ownership of your home on a turn of the wheel of fortune, but you put your health and perhaps your all in the dice box of chance—you shake it a few times saying "I am weak," "I'm run-down," "I'm nervous," "I don't sleep well at night," "I get all tired-out at the end of the day, but I hope I'll get all right soon"—yet you hope—but out comes the dice perhaps all "loaded" against you—you were "framed up" before you took the box—you don't get all right, on the contrary you go on from day to day getting weaker and weaker. A simple remedy like Nuxated Iron might have saved you and put you right if you had taken it in time; taken it before you had any real organic disease; taken it when you only needed something to build you up and put more rich, red blood into your veins; but now it is too late for Nuxated Iron, perhaps too late for your doctor too—you gambled and lost as thousands do.

Any doctor will tell you, that the surest way to keep yourself from contracting almost any disease, from an ordinary cold, or tonsillitis to pneumonia, rheumatism, tuberculosis, or even cancer is to keep plenty of pure, rich, red blood in your veins and take care that you have the physical strength and endurance to develop within you those mysterious powerful "anti-bodies" that nature made to fight the millions of deadly disease germs that would take your life.

When, as a result of iron starvation, you get up feeling tired in the morning, when you find yourself nervous, irritable, your strength again and see how much you have gained. Thousands of nervous, run-down men and women, who are weak and ailing all the while, have surprisingly increased their strength and endurance in two weeks' time in many instances by this simple experiment.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using NUXATED IRON. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—NUXATED IRON. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. At all druggists.—Advertisement.

and easily upset; when you can no longer do your day's work without being all fagged out at night; or have pains across the back and your face looks pale and drawn; that you wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but take organic NUXATED IRON at once to help enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out, exhausted nerves.

In addition to organic iron, Nuxated Iron also contains a remarkable product, brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Robin, which represents the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force, FOR FEEDING THE NERVES, so that NUXATED IRON might be said to be both a BLOOD and a NERVE FOOD.

If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test
