

BEVERIDGE IN GRANT COUNTY FOR TWO TALKS

Speaks at Taylor University and to Kiwanians at Marion.

'WISDOM OF PROVERBS'

Special to The Times.
MARION, Ind., May 9.—The every-day wisdom of the proverbs for young men and women formed the theme of two addresses of Albert J. Beveridge, former United States Senator, in Grant County, yesterday. Mr. Beveridge spoke in the afternoon at Taylor University, Upland, and in the evening addressed a meeting held in Marion under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club.

"The Proverbs are not dull admonitions," said Mr. Beveridge, "but as brilliant as the stars. The beauty of the language of the Proverbs is so exquisite as to make them entertaining reading regardless of the golden truths they present."

"If young men and women would spend ten minutes every evening reading the Proverbs they not only can not go wrong," but they will surely prosper if they have anything at all in them. Of them even the Sage of Israel can not make silk out of a sow's ear, but he can preserve whatever silk there is in every human character."

Mr. Beveridge said that the Centurion of Capernaum, the Centurion at the Cross and the Centurion of Caesarea were one and the same man.

"I do not stand alone in this opinion," said Mr. Beveridge, "nor do I deserve credit for originating that idea. Dr. James Crawford of Philadelphia, in a convincing brochure two years ago, marshaled the evidence that proves the identity of these hitherto supposedly different centurions."

Taken together, the accounts of this Roman captain is a charming story of the brave, kind-hearted, broad-minded soldier—a perfect picture of an officer and gentleman. We first see him deeply troubled about his servant who was desperately sick, grievously tormented as the Centurion declared; and seeking out Jesus and imploring Him to heal the afflicted servant. When Jesus said He would do so, the Roman officer exclaimed: "Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed." The Centurion explained that he was a man under authority having soldiers under me; when I say to this man go, he goeth; and to another come, and he cometh, and to my servant, do this, and he doeth it."

"Jesus was deeply touched and told His disciples that He had not found such faith, no, not in Israel; while to the Centurion He said, 'Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And St. Matthew adds that 'his servant was healed from that moment on.' Luke tells us that this officer was highly esteemed by the Jews because he loved our nation and was a helper of the Jews. This reveals, as by a flash, the gentle character of the officer. The Jews hated the Roman army, the Germans hated the German army, or the Germans themselves now detest the French army of occupation."

"Next the Centurion appears on Calvary, commanding the Roman soldiers in charge of the executions. He is now on military duty and therefore stern and efficient. But again the big-heartedness and nobility of the man comes out when he exclaims of the crucified Savior: 'Truly this was the Son of God.' Certainly this was a righteous man—this of a convicted man just punished by crucifixion and in the midst of a howling mob."

"Finally the Centurion is found at Caesarea, to which town his company of Roman soldiers had been transferred—this particular company was called 'Italian band,' we are informed. He is now described as a 'devout man,' who gave much time to the people and prayed to God always. Here Cornelius, as the Centurion was named, had a vision which, heaved, led him to a wonderful spiritual adventure which ended in his conversion, baptism and reception into the church. This Roman Centurion was the first Gentile to become a Christian and he received into church fellowship. It was because of this that Peter was led to avow that 'God is no respecter of persons.' Up to this time the 'Christian appeal had been to the Jews—the lost sheep of the House of Israel; but thenceforward on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.'

"Thus, with a sweet-natured, generous, large-minded and wealthy Roman officer, began the spiritual conquest of the non-Jewish world by the followers of Jesus, the Christ."

Had Bottle 'Mule' Tied in Sleeve; He Kicks, but in Vain

There was one bright spot in the city where the "lid" is supposed to be on and it was a gay party at the Bungalow, Brigston boulevard near Fall Creek, when Captain Ball, Sergeant Dean and Patrolmen Whitefield and Sparks arrived at 2:30 a. m. today. A piano expert was pounding out the latest version of the "Blues," and more than a hundred negroes were eating, smoking and drinking (drinks said not to have a kick), but the police have been suspicious since they arrested a bootlegger with a twenty-pocket vest and fourteen half pints of whisky in the pockets at the notorious road house.

Therefore, when they noted a swelling in the right coat sleeve of William Fitzgerald, 34, negro, they investigated. Fitzgerald, who is known to the police as "Black Child," lives at 718 Chicago street. Captain Ball found a bottle of "white mule" whisky tied in "Black Child's" sleeve. The captain pulled the bottle out and handed it to Patrolman Whitefield. Then "Black Child" kicked. He proved he was a real kicker, and kicked the evidence out of Whitefield's hand. The "white mule" sailed through the air and hit on the Bungalow floor, but the evidence failed to brea and Fitzgerald and the evidence were sent to police headquarters. He was charged with operating a blind tip.

LINER DE LUXE DAMAGED BY FALL

Largest Aircraft Meets With Accident at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 9.—Work of repairing the $75,000 air liner owned by Alfred W. Lawson, which crashed to earth here Sunday on her maiden voyage, was begun today. Repairs to the aircraft, it is estimated, will cost $10,000. Lawson expects to have the machine ready for a second flight in two weeks. Although four persons were in the liner when it fell, none was injured. The fall of the machine is attributed to the fact that the field was too small to permit a proper "take off."

The liner is the largest aircraft of its kind in the United States, and was built for transcontinental passenger and freight service. It has a capacity of twenty-six passengers and can carry 6,000 pounds of mail and freight.

Three-Year-Old Is 'Mugged' by Police

DENVER, May 9.—Although he is only three years of age, Paul Everett Collins has been "mugged" by the custodian of the Rogers' gallery at Police Headquarters and his fingerprint record taken under the Bertillon system. But Paul is no criminal.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Collins, who recently adopted the child, brought him to the City Hall and asked that the records be made as a precautionary measure in case Paul is ever kidnapped. The foster parent said they feared someone might attempt to take the boy away from them and had the records filed at the County Recorder's office.

The fingerprint expert of the Denver Police Department said he had "mugged" many hard-boiled criminals, but this was the first occasion in the history of the department that he had been called upon to record an "infant in arms."

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., May 9.—Attorneys for Ross Graham, of Columbus, Ind., filed a motion in the Shelby Circuit Court today, to quash both counts of the indictment against Graham, in which he is charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Irene Winkler, 17, following injuries she received last October in a highway accident in this city. Arguments on the motion were heard by Judge Blair today and the matter taken under advisement.

The accident that resulted in the death of Miss Winkler occurred when an automobile in which she was riding, turned over. Why That Bad Back?

IS a lame, aching back keeping you miserable? Do you long for a moment's rest from those sharp, stabbing pains that torture you from morning 'till night? Are you "all played out" and without strength or vigor for the day's work? Then you should find out what is causing the trouble and lose no time correcting it. Most likely, it's your kidneys!

You have probably been working too hard and neglecting proper rest and exercise. Your kidneys have slowed up and poisons that well kidneys should have filtered off, have accumulated in your system. That then, is the cause of that nerve-racking backache, those piercing pains and annoying headaches, dizzy spells and bladder irregularities. Help the kidneys before the trouble gets worse. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These are Indianapolis Cases:

Shelby Street	Woodlawn Avenue.	West Vermont Street.
Mrs. A. Bany, 1113 Shelby street, says: "I had an awful time with my kidneys and the cause I attribute to overtaxing my strength when house cleaning. My back started to ache and it nearly killed me with pain. There seemed to be a terrible pressure on my head after retiring at night. I wasn't able to do much of anything about the house. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me more relief than anything I ever used. Three boxes cured me and I am pleased to give Doan's my indorsement."	Chas. W. Hardy, locomotive fireman, 612 Woodlawn avenue, says: "Whenever my kidneys get out of order or my back gets to aching I resort to Doan's Kidney Pills. I have been a locomotive fireman since 1909 and the constant rough riding on the engine has a tendency to bring on kidney troubles. I have many a time missed a trip on account of the pains across my back. I would be dizzy by spells and my kidneys would not act regularly. As soon as I feel any of these symptoms coming on I get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and use them until the trouble becomes corrected."	Mrs. W. A. Epperson, 1943 W. Vermont st., says: "I was suffering from a run-down condition. My back ached night and day and I was bedfast for five weeks. I was almost a nervous wreck and the pains in my back would startle me. I had blinding dizzy spells and everything would turn black before my eyes. My kidneys didn't act regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. My hands and feet were cold and numb and seemed to have no life in them. As soon as I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills relief followed and I kept getting better right along until I was cured of the attack."
