Heinie Groh to Be Sent to Giants in Money-Player Deal

Cincinnati Reds to Get Men and Coin for Holdout Star.

CINCINNATI, June 2.—Heinie Groh appeared at President Herrmann's office Wednesday and signed his contract for the remainder of the season, thus ending his long and persistent holdout. He signed up at the club's terms, but his salary will not begin until he is released by Commissioner Landis. It will be at the rate of $10,000 a year, but will amount to considerably less than that figure, as he has already lost seven weeks pay.

Heinie signed only on the understanding that he will be traded at once, and the deal has already been fixed up with the New York Giants, to which he will report the moment he is released. He has made application to Judge Landis, and will doubtless be eligible within a day or two. Whether any penalty will be inflicted on him for holding out will not be known until the commissioner is heard from.

The trade with New York will involve a sum of money not nearly so large as $10,000, which was offered for him last December and two players. One of these players is a catcher, who will be used in a secondary trade with an American League club. The names of these players cannot be given out at once, for Judge Landis has held that no deal can be made for a player who is under suspension. The trade, however, is arranged, and will be consummated the moment that Groh becomes eligible.

Heinie will not play with the Reds, but will join the Giants as soon as he can. It is expected that McGraw will send him to third, his unfortunate place he is on the Raps, who is fielding well, but not hitting much. Heinie went to Redland yesterday morning as soon as he had signed his contract, put on a uniform and practiced with the Reds for an hour. He is in good shape, and will not need very much work to be ready for regular play.

STAR OF NATIONAL LEADERS

The playing of Rabbit Maraville, shortstop on the Pittsburgh Pirates, leader of the National League for championship honors, is a feature and a big factor in the victories of the fliers of the bone and cross bat. His hitting and fielding have been sensational.
