SHOWERS AGAIN HALT INDIANS' REGULAR CARD

First Battle With Champ Saints Prevented on Account of Wet Grounds.

OTHER TRIBE GOSSIP

Wet grounds interfered with the playing of today's scheduled game between the Saints and Indians when it was decided at noon to postpone the contest rather than attempt to play on the soggy grounds. Hope was held out for a time this morning, but when the sun refused to show itself the Washington Park officials declared hostilities off until Friday.

Owner Smith and Manager Hendricks returned from Cincinnati today minus any new talent, but still hopeful of something materializing shortly. Arrangements were made with the Cincinnati Club for the return of Pitcher Clint Ruge to Indianapolis and the possibility of a deal with the New York Giants was launched in a conference with John McGraw. Rain prevented the Reds and Giants meeting yesterday and Manager Hendricks was unable to locate Ruge to talk over the terms for his return here.

John McGraw talked encouragingly to Owner Smith regarding the possibility of obtaining a pitcher or utility infielder for the Hoosiers.

Attendance at Washington Park games is expected to pick up, now that the two-time champion Indians are in town. Baseball crowds here have not been up to what they should be, considering the fact that the Indians are in first place, but it is believed that the presence of Mike Kelley's boys will create some of the old-time enthusiasm. Other cities in the circuit are drawing big attendance and the situation here has got American Association officials guessing.

The postponement Wednesday robbed the Indians of a chance to get an even break in the record. The day after yesterday gave the Tribe pitching staff a chance to rest and also worked to the advantage of Sicking and Heinline, who are nursing bruised fingers.

Don't forget to attend these St. Paul games. The Northmen are becoming as dangerous as of old. Also that speedy boy, A. Duke Relford, former Indian, is wearing a Saint outfit and if the Dukelets gets in the games here he is bound to try to pull some future stuff. Duke gave good service at the Indianapolis ball club and was an all-around star when in his prime.

Affable Mike Kelley, St. Paul manager, comes out with the prediction that this year's A. A. race will be the warmest for many seasons. He has his own team stepping along at a lively clip at present, but says the pennant fight is not going to be a walk-away for any club.

Vet Charlie Hall is still active in the capacity of Lieutenant with Regular Kelly in addition to taking his regular turn on the mound.

Big League Stuff

Babe Ruth got out of the lock-up where he spent a "day" for speeding. Just in time to tense a base on a hit out of him and help the Yankees turn a defeat into a victory against the Cleveland Indians yesterday.

The Yankee-Indian finish was played under protest by Manager Speaker of the Cleveland club after Baker singled in the ninth. Speaker claimed Baker had swung at the pitch previous to a third strike, but Umpire Wilson called it a ball.

Singles by Mulligan, Faber and Collins in the tenth inning gave the White Sox their game against Philadelphia.

George Mogridge southpawed the Tigers into submission at Washington.

Lee, Ellerbe and Patsy Collins of the Browns broke up the game at Boston with singles in the ninth.

The Phillies were three runs better than the Cubs in a slugfest here.

McQuillan, Braxton, Watson and Morgan, brave pitchers, were mauled by the Pirates who regained the lead in the National League.

Pertica of the Cardinals held Brooklyn to five hits and won easily.

Ontario Shooter Beats Arie in Feature Event

ST. THOMAS, Ontario, June 8.—Sam Sutton, Port Huron, Ontario, won the international trap-handicap trophy-shooting championship at the thirty-second annual tournament, which closed here Wednesday. Sutton was handicapped at eighteen yards.

Not only did Sutton win the grand international handicap, but he tied Mark Arie, Champion of the world, a record trapshooter, who led the American team to victory at the Olympic games at Antwerp last year, for high score. They both made ninety-eight shots. Arie, being a professional, was handicapped more heavily and was expected to shoot from the twenty-two yard line.

Playfellow, Brother of Man-o-War, Goes Big

NEW YORK, June 8.—Playfellow, full brother of the noted thoroughbred, Man-o-War, was a comparatively obscure horse until Wednesday, when his owner, J. P. Jackson, announced that he had declined an offer of $100,000 for him. The thoroughbred, once called a false alarm and a disappointment, in two races galloped into fame and suddenly has become one of the most talked of horses on the turf.

Playfellow is a year younger than his famous brother and was bought for $1,800 as a yearling.

CHICAGO LIKES GLEASON KIDS

Youngsters, Filling Shoes of Scandal Players, Get Loyal Support.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Chicago has forgotten the former White Sox idols who brought the world championships to this city, and a group of comparatively inexperienced rookies, playing on a team losing more games than it wins, are becoming greater heroes to the city's fans than were the men who once won games almost at will, but fell into disgrace through the alleged sell-out in the 1919 world's series with Cincinnati.

Joe Jackson, Happy Felsch, Chick Gandil, Svein Riberger, Buck Weaver—these former White Sox players, who were in newspaper headlines nearly every day—now are mentioned in Comiskey Park only when a fan expresses his approval of some that follow's got it all over former star whose place the rookie was taking.

The Sox rookies came into the league facing the handicap of having to try the shoes of some of the greatest players the game has ever known. None of them has become a fan favorite, but every one of them has won a big place in the Chicagoans' heart by hard work, and a few of them have even won the approval of some that follow's got it all over former star whose place the rookie was taking.

Hagen Remains Only Hope of Yank Golf Forces in Scotland

Hutchinson and French Go Down to Defeat in Big Pro Tourney.

HAGEN DEFEATED.
GLEN EAGLES, Scotland, June 9.—The last American player to survive in the professional golf tournament here passed out this afternoon when Walter Hagen of Detroit was beaten by P. G. Bessie, three up and two to go. Hagen collapsed at the finish. The Detroit professional had won his match in the morning.

GLEN EAGLES, Scotland, June 9.—Edward (Ted) Ray, of Oxford, Watford, holder of the American open golf championship, defeated Ernest French of the Youngstown (Ohio) Country Club, two up and one to play, in the thousand-guinea professional tournament here today. French is captain of the invading American professional team.

Walter Hagen, of Oakland Hills Country Club, Detroit, won his match against Josh Taylor handily, four and two. Abe Mitchell of Northfordale, defeated Jack Hutchinson, of the Glenview Country Club, Chicago, by a score of three and two. The result of these matches leaves Hagen the lone hope of the American team.
