

TROOPS CALLED
TO STOP RIOTINGGeorgia Rail Trouble Assumes
Serious Phase—Engineer
Shot Five Times.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 6.—Three companies of infantry were rushed to Fitzgerald, Ga., early today following rioting there last night between employees and former employees of the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic Railroad.

W. T. Reid, engineer of an A. B. & A. train, is at the point of death after having been shot five times.

Warner Jordan and Sam Whittle, striking employees of the railroad, were arrested following the shooting. They are charged with having shot Engineer Reid and are held at Fitzgerald.

George Dewey Post
Wins Three Prizes

First prizes of $40 for being first in three classes in the Fourth of July parade were awarded to the George Dewey Post of the American Legion. It was announced today. The post had the most men in line, the most men in uniform in line and the best general appearance. The Colored Y. M. C. A. post took second prizes of $30 in all three classes and Indianapolis Post No. 4 took all the third prizes of $10 each. The Bruce Robinson post got honorable mention of having all its men in the parade in uniform.

Admiral Robert E. Cooney, Maj. Gen. George W. Read, E. U. Griffin, Charles W. Moore and Dr. C. H. McCaskey selected the winners.

Failed to Give Road,
Milford Man Fined

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 6.—Laymon Norris of Milford was found guilty Tuesday of failure to give part of the public highway to a passing vehicle and was required to pay a fine and costs of $50 in court here. The case was tried a week ago and taken under advisement. Norris failed to give passageway on the road to Claude Fix, farmer, and as a result an accident occurred, causing Mr. Fix to suffer serious injuries.

'Flying Squadron'
Is Out to Collect
U. S. 'Chicken Feed'

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Uncle Sam today started to collect the "chicken feed" being held out on him.

A force of 250 revenue officers directing 2,000 deputy collectors are out to collect delinquent sales taxes. Under the head of sales taxes, come the extra pennies on ice cream and soda water, the luxury and semi-luxury levies.

The "flying squadron" of revenue officers now is paying particular attention to New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Atlanta, New Orleans, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Dallas, Denver and San Francisco.

As soon as this force concludes its investigation in those cities, it will be transferred to Philadelphia, Birmingham, Louisville, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Ft. Worth, Houston, Texas and Salt Lake City.

who have been the guests of Miss Anna Lee Rambo, 314 South Illinois street, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Rorer and daughters Elsa and Julia, 284 Central avenue, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rorer and daughter Miriam of South Bend, will go to Turkey Run for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Weise, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willis and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hancock have returned from a motor trip to Lake James, where they were guests at the Hancock summer cottage over the Fourth of July.

Mrs. John R. Anderson, 1300 Woodlawn avenue, accompanied by Miss Frances McCready, Miss Marie Lawhorn and Miss Gertrude Lawhorn, motored to Ft. Wayne, Ind., where the party will be the guests of Mrs. Carl Barnes.

PLANS NEAR COMPLETION.
HARTFORD CITY, Ind., July 6.—Plans for the new Blackford County Hospital are to be completed July 10, the architect announces. The date for receiving bids for the work will be announced immediately afterward.

BIG DIAMOND
THEFT ON TRAINJewel Merchant Robbed of $175,000 Worth of Gems.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The theft of $175,000 worth of diamonds on a Pennsylvania railroad train between this city and Trenton, N. J., was reported to the police today by Joseph Haskell, a jewel merchant of 65 Maiden Lane.

Haskell was on his way to Pittsburgh, the first stop in a selling trip through the Middle West. The diamonds were loose and were carried in a small handbag.

He said that after boarding a train at the Pennsylvania station he handed his suitcase and the handbag to a porter to put under his seat while he stood on the train-shed platform smoking a cigar. He went to the smoking car when the train pulled out and it was not until Trenton was reached that he thought to reassure himself that the precious stones were safe. He reached under the seat and found the handbag gone.

Trace of Mooresville
Man Lost in This City

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 6.—Mrs. Nellie Morrison of this city has sent an appeal to the police of Indianapolis, to institute a search for her husband, Harry A. Morrison, 33, who disappeared from his home here last Saturday.

According to information given authorities, Morrison left Mooresville in a taxicab driven by a man called "Shorty." They drove to Martinsville, it is said, and later it was learned "Shorty" took the man to the Claypool hotel, where further trace of him was lost.

31 Fires in 6 Months

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 6.—Thirty-one fires occurred in this city during the six months' period from Jan. 1 to July 1, according to the report of Fire Chief William Frigley, which was submitted to the city council at its meeting last night. Ten of the fires were caused from defective flues.

The property loss for the period was $2,863, while the risk involved in the fires was $224,125 on which insurance carried amounted to only $141,000. The cost of maintaining the department for the time was $403.77 for equipment and $5,218.50 for salaries.

Son Married on Day
His Parents Hold
50th Anniversary

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 6.—An unusual event was celebrated here last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Neu Sr., who observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary. At the same time their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hurst of Indianapolis, celebrated their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary while the marriage of Louis C. Neu, a son, and Miss Viola Tomlinson of Indianapolis was performed at the home.

Guests for the celebration numbered more than a hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. Neu Sr. were married at Hope, Ind., fifty years ago, and their daughter was married here twenty-six years ago. The elder couple are among the best known residents of this city, where they have resided since 1881. They are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Hurst of Indianapolis and Mrs. O. W. Neu of this city; three sons, William A. Neu Jr., Edward Neu and Louis Neu, the latter living at Indianapolis.

Mr. Neu Sr. has been prominent in lodge circles of the State and is a former officer of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, which he assisted in founding here. Mr. Neu is engaged in the hardware business.

Fruit Prospects Are Poor in This State

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 6.—Fruit prospects in Indiana are extremely poor, according to H. H. Swaim, secretary of the Indiana Horticultural society, who is in his headquarters in South Bend. In reply to inquiries made of orchardists throughout the State, he learned that growers of apples and other tree fruits will be lucky if their yield is ten per cent of normal. Early frosts are said to have been largely responsible for the poor yield. Similar conditions exist in Ohio, Illinois and Missouri, he says, but in Michigan a one-fourth crop is expected.

Negro Fires Gun in City Park; Fined $1

Herman Taylor, negro, 17, 900 North Capitol avenue, arrested on the Fourth of July by Patrolman Rubush in Ellenberger Park on a charge of shooting in the city limits, was fined $1 and costs when he appeared in city court yesterday afternoon by Judge Walter Pritchard. The officer said Taylor was shooting a revolver in the park.

Clifford Malone, 15, and Cornelius Johnson, 15, both negroes, arrested with Taylor on charges of carrying concealed weapons and shooting in the city limits, were transferred to the Juvenile Court.

Mutiny Reported
on American Ship

ROME, July 6.—The American consul at Naples is investigating a mutiny on board the American steamship Pocahontas, which has just arrived from New York. The captain of the steamship reported that the crew mutinied and damaged the machinery. A steward committed suicide during the excitement.

3 WAIVE HEARING;
BONDS ARE FIXEDWomen and 2 Men Charged
With Stealing Auto.

Ruth Mack, 18, 1033 South Keystone avenue, Fred Linville, 1113 North Keystone avenue, and Harold Elliott, 724 Madison avenue, all charged with burglary and vehicle taking following their arrest a week ago, waived preliminary hearing on the charges in city court yesterday afternoon by Judge Walter Pritchard. The Mack woman's bond was fixed at $3,000, $2,000 on the burglary charge and $1,000 on the vehicle taking charge. Linville's bond was fixed at $7,000, $4,000 on the burglary and $3,000 on the other charge. A $2,000 bond was fixed on each of the two charges against Elliott.

It is charged by Detectives Coleman, Gollins and McGinn, who were investigating, that the trio stole an automobile from David Willis, 1215 Newman street, more than a month ago. On the night of June 13, it is alleged, the trio entered William Miller's dry goods store at 2623 Northwestern avenue and stole merchandise valued at about $15.

HOOSIER DEATHS

NOBLESVILLE.—A telegram received here from Portland, Ore., announces the death of Mrs. Mallen Phelps, widow of Milton Phelps. The body will be brought to Hamilton County for burial. Mrs. Phelps and her family lived in Indianapolis for many years, but moved West twelve years ago. The children who survive are Mrs. J. H. Daugherty of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss Dora Phelps, and Miss Grace Phelps of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Sylvanus Kinsley, of Eugene, Ore.; Mrs. Oscar Phelps of Spencer, Ind.; Mrs. Emerson Elliott of Alameda, Cal. and Bert Phelps of Portland, Ore. William H. Gordon, 72, is dead at his home in this section of Indiana with his parents during the fifties. Among the children living is Mrs. John Little of Indianapolis.

SHELBYVILLE.—John Stewart, 65, is dead at his home north of this city, following an illness of six weeks. He was born in Carroll County, Kentucky, but had lived here for many years. Surviving are the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Maudie Sox and Mrs. Gertrude Conway, of this city.

GREENSBURG.—Mrs. Parthina Williams Miller, 74, the widow of the late David Miller is dead at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Zeller. She had lived here for many years. Mrs. Miller formerly lived at Franklin where her husband was a druggist.

HARTFORD CITY.—William H. Barnes, 70, farmer, is dead near here. Arthur and Chester Barnes, of Pennville, are brothers.

Another Dampier
Is Held as 'Tiger'

Richard Dampier, 815 East Tenth street, was arrested last night on the charge of operating a blind tiger. The arrest was made following a raid in which the police found twenty-two quarts and ninety-five pints of home-made beer and twenty gallons of beer in the process of making. The bottled beer was in a cupboard at Dampier's home.

Richard is a brother of John Dampier, who was arrested several days ago when the police found beer in his garage. John was convicted in Criminal Court on charges of receiving stolen goods and his case is pending in Supreme Court. The charges followed the finding of a number of automobiles in his possession, which the police say were stolen.
